

Lancaster Intelligencer.

THURSDAY EVENING JAN. 25, 1883.

THE OLDEST INHABITANT.

Some of the Story's Uncle Sammy Tells the Quarryville Boys.

For the Intelligencer. "Have you ever seen a better wheat crop than we have this year?" said one of our farmers to Uncle Sammy. "I have seen it beat all hollow. Why, near about forty years ago I helped Ed Lefever to cut his harvest and in one of the fields we had to back in to take out the first four loads, and I helped to thresh it, too. It made over sixty-two bushels to the acre and the acres weren't big either."

"How about the big corn you helped to husk at Erb's?" said Joe to the old man as he limped in. "Well, that was corn, men. It was in that field below the barn, and Erb sold it nearly all by the barrel. When we put it into the barrel we had to stand it on end, it was so long to lay across the barrel, and some of it was so long that it stuck out the top of the barrel. The shelling in it was bigger near the ears you have now-a-days."

"There is no birds nowadays like there was when I was a young man," said Uncle Sammy. "Why, you could get a bar full in a very short time then, and not have to go far for them. I have seen wild pigeons fly for two days, so that you could hardly see the sun, and so low that you could knock them down with poles. Why, you could see them flying in one hour than you young fellows have in all your life. One time we went out on Stony Hill and killed over 1,600 in less than a half day. 'Twas to me there's no fun gaining' these times."

"When I lived below the Pines," said Uncle Sammy, as he lit his pipe, "we had a house that had one of these old big stone chimneys, and the old woman said she could hardly make the fire, it smoked so, and so me down to examine it. I could hardly see through the chimney, and I had to save me I couldn't get them out, so I just went and got a keg of powder and blew them up; and, you my soul, we hauled out fourteen cart loads of dead birds and the nests kept us in kindlin' for a month."

The conversation was of comets, and powerful glasses were mentioned. Uncle Sammy listened attentively when he broke in with: "When I lived out at Turkey Hill John Snyder had a spy-glass, and I went out by the top of the hill, and looked clean into Lancaster, right into the square and it drew the attention there that close that you could hear them talk, and that was nearly ten miles away. No, I don't believe there is any better kind of glasses made now than that was."

"Old birds are not caught with chaff," said Uncle Sammy. "The pure golden grains of truth in the history of the young or old, named or unnamed, if out of health, will be readily identified by taking notice of the facts."

"Goods, parts, ribbons and any fancy articles can be made any color wanted with the Diamond Dye. All the popular colors. For Dyeing and other complaints, you have a special guarantee on every bottle of Shiloh's Kidney, Bladder, and Urinary Pills. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street."

Beds of Down Feel Hard. Then harken to these perfect sufferers. Apply Dr. Thomas' Kidney Pills to your kidneys, joints and muscles. They open up that you will experience perfect relief. Such relief is the testimony of those who have used it. The remedy is likewise successfully resorted to for throat and lung troubles. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street."
