Death of Mrs. Garvin.

Mrs. Elizabeth Garvin, wife of James Garvin, died at her residence in East Strawberry street, at an early hour this morning, after an illness of about two weeks, though she had been ailing for a year past, being in the 76th year of her age. Deceased was born in Ireland, married there and came to this country while her first born was yet a little child. Her hus band and four children survive her; the former is now confined to his bed by illness. Her children are James R., foreman of the INTELLIGENCER press room, and William Garvio, Mrs. Margaret Zecher, relict of the late John Z-cher, and an unmarried daughter. Mrs. Garvin was a lady of exemplary habits and Christian character, and her death will be mourned by all who knew her. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon; interment at Woodwar I hill.

Sleighing Accidents.

This afternoon Miss Ida Huber, daughter of Wm. Huber, was walking over the crossing at East King street and Centre Square, when she was knocked down by a horse hitched to a sleigh and driven by a countryman. She was picked up by a party of bystanders and taken to Baker's drug store, where it was found that she was severely bruised about the head. J. K. SMALLING'S CARD.

We started a boom this week with a card giving a list of prices of our heavy weight goods. We intend to close out, and have had unbounded success. We had is patterns of the very best Over-coating in the market. We sold 2 of coating in the market. We sold 9 of them, while the cheaper grades remain on hand. We warrant any of them to be of good quality and popular styles. Anyone in need of an Overcoat will make a noic of this; the investment is good to carry over. Our Edicions have created a great sensation since we direct special attention to them. We had a lively run on them this week. It is a singular fact that few persons are judges of good goods and first class work. We take pride and great pleasure in showing our productions. We have in showing our productions. We have a great job in Tiouserings. We have on hand 412 patterns of choice styles of Pantaloon Goods which ranged in prices from $6 to $15. We are closing them out at from $3.50 to $16 a pair. Our low priced Suffings we are slaughtering a any price. Bear in mind all our work is cut and made up in the highest style of art. We endeavor to do all we can of art. We endeavor to no an we can to stimulate trade and create a spirit of rivalry among our competitors, although some men pronounce it HUMBUCK. We challenge anyone to prove our assertions false, and will back them up with solid argument.
