THE PUREST AND BEST. Remedy Ever Made. -It is Compounded from Hope, Malt, Buchu, Man-

The oldest, best, most renowned and valuable medicine in the world, and in addition it contains all the best and most effective curative properties of all other remedies, being the greatest liver regulator, blood purifier, and ife and health restoring agent on earth. It gives new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To clergymen, lawyers, literary men, ladies, and all whom sedentary employments cause irregularities of the Blood, Stomach, Bowels, or Kidneys, or who require an appetizer, tonic, and mild stimulant, it is invaluable, being highly curative, tonic and stimulating, without being intoxicating.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, or what the disease or ailment is, use Hop Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable use the bitters at once. It may save your life. Hundreds have been saved by so doing, at a moderate cost. Ask your druggist, or physician. Do not suffer yourself or let your friends suffer, but use and urge them to use Hop Bitters. It you have lameness in the loins, with frequent pains and aches; numbness of the thigh; canty, painful and frequent discharge of urine, filled with pus, and which will turn red by standing; a voracious appetite and unmenchable thirst; harsh and dry skin clammy tongue, often darkly furred; swollen and inflammed gums; dropsical swelling of the limbs; frequent attacks of hiccough; inability to void the urine and great fatigue in attempting it-you are suffering from some form of Kidney or Urinary Complaint, such as Bright's Disease of the kidneys, stone or inflammation of the bladder, gravel and renal calculi, diabetes, stranguary stricture and re tention of the urine, and Hop Bitters is the only remedy that will permanently cure you. Remember, Hop Bitters is no vile, drugged, drunken nostrum, but the purest and best

Don't risk any of the highly lauded stuff with testimonials of great cures, but ask your neighbor, druggist, pastor or physicians what Hop Bitters has and can do for you and test it.

A Tale of the Late Civil Struggle. Elizabeth P. Allen in "Our Continent," Lauderdale, a little Virginia town, lying between the Blue Ridge and the Allegheny mountains, was astir early on one June day of 1864, for the soldier boys were others during his long absence, and this coming-the ones in gray-and they would of course be very hungry, a condition that had become chronic with Confederate soldiers by that time. They were to march rapidly through the town, and whatever hospitality was to be shown them must be in a sort of passover form. So the townfolk were making busy preparation to waylay the regiments on the street with bread and meat aud coffeerye coffee !- and buttermilk, and sorghum molasses ginger cakes, and blackberry wine, and home brewed ale. You would have taken it for market day in some Old World village, so animated was the thronged street, and with pecple in such queer costumes. front gate, with the Greville roses in her hair and at her threat, as intent upon rationing those dear, dirty fellows as a chief of commissary. But they were tremendously hungry, and after the last bite that could be found in the house had been given out, a straggler came up and asked for breakfast. "Oh, I'm so sorry," said the girl. "We shall have to keep a fast-day as it is, but I would keep two at a time if I only had a nice breakfast for you."

The soldier took off his old slouch hat, and made such a low bow that Cary turned again to look at him. "To what regiment do you belong?"

she asked. "I am just from the Linchburg hora pital," he replied, "and on my way to join the 101st Mississippi." The roses suddenly bloomed in Cary Brook's cheek, and she came out into , the

"It will not be perjury to break an oath sworn on a non est, and having no honor as a rebel, I may keep the roses and a clean conscience. May the kind fates give me a chance to tell that pretty rebel some day that she gave her roses to a Yankee spy."

The next two weeks witnessed many rapid march and countermarch, and Lauderdale held its breath while the dust of its streets blew first upon gray coats and then upon blue. Meantime our ravisher of the roses had gotten safely back to his own place and his own coat, and early in July entered the little mountain town with Hunter's army. The gala look it had worn two weeks before was gone, and sullen expression marked its countenance. No women were to be seen, boys were kept carefully in doors by anxious Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and HAL mothers, and men had a sudden access of & RUCKEL, New York. Mansfield, Onio, Nov. 26, 1881. Gentlemen:-I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spicen, but I got no relief. I thought 1 would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well-pain in side and back all gone-soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. Silk novelties innumerable and indescribable. Everything that ladies or dressmakers have occasion for in matching, decorating, combining. What we are remarkable for, more than for anything else in silks, is variety; or, at least, we are reputed so. You hear it said by everybody: "If you want to match anything, or find a rare silk, even an unexpectable one, go to Wanamaker's." The other peculiarity that everybody expects to find here is less pleasant to speak of; lower prices. We put it second, because there are people who don't credit us with lower prices. Still, we imagine that if one should assert the contrary, almost everybody in Philadelphia would believe it. Oftener we speak of other aspects of our trade; aspects less obvious or less recognized. It is well occasionally to give old news.
