THE GOOD DISTILLERY TROUBLE. The Defendants Held to Answer.

Jacob B. Good, George Shoff, Abraham Shoft and Benjamin Good, charged with forcible entry, had a hearing before Alderman McConomy this morning to answer a complaint made against them by Thos. Baumgardner, of taking forcible possession of a distillery owned by him in Pequen township. Henry Yost testified that he was placed in charge of the dis- Is three times the man he was before he began tillery by Mr. Baumgardner; that he using "Wells' Health Renewer," $1. Drughad stored in it a lot of his own goods; that day before yesterday the defend nots demanded possession of the place, and on his refusal to let them in Jonas B. Good broke open a window and climbert in, and that then in connection with Jacob B. Good and Abraham Shoff the lock of the front door was broken off. They then set Yost's goods outside, but afterwards put them back again, saying they would let him keep them there for a day or two. They then went to the ulator is proverbial. blacksmith shop and got new irons and a took and tooked the distillery up and went them ; yesterday witness broke off their lock and put on another of his own. A HORSE CASE.

The Parcha er Heid for Larceny. Before Alderman Diffenderffer this afternoon was heard the complaint of vicorge D. Bender, of New Holland, against Matthias Bush, who is charged pain, whether chronic or sente, than any other with the larceny of three horses. The facts appear to be that Bush went to Bender's, bought three horsesone for $90, one $145 and one for $127.50. He paid Bender $10 cash on account and told him to bring the horses to the Black Horse hotel, this city, and he would pay him the balance. The horses were brought to town, and Bender was then offered payment, part in cash and part in timee of Bender's own promissory notes, which had come into Bash's hands. Bender refused to receive his own notes and said he would have his horses: but while the wrangle was going on the horses had been removed. Bender ther saed out a writ of replevin for the recovery of the horses, and subsequently brought the suit for larceny. Bush claims to have been an agent acting for Henry Russing in the purchase of the horses. The ablerman held the accused to bail to answer at court. Mr. Ransing became their bail in the sum of $500.

THE PHENIX PARK MURDER.

Kavanagh informs Agatest His Companions DUBLIN, Feb. 10.-Michael Kavanagh, the car man, has turned informer against the prisoners. He will be the first witness examined at the investigation at Kilmainham court house. He will testify that he drove the car employed by the assassins of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke and will describe the whole

Joseph Brady, Timothy Kelly, Jas. Carr (the town councillor). Fitz Harris, the carman, known as the Goat, Daniel Delaney and six others were placed on trial to day. Kavanagh, the informer, was then sworn. He seemed to labor under great excitement. He deposed that he drove Brady and Kelly and two other men unknown to him to Phoenix Park on the day of the assasination. Brady here uttered a loud gutteral threat. Kavanagh then identified Delaney as another of the party. On arriving in the park he saw a cab approaching, driven by Fitz. Harris and four other men alighted. He then saw two men approaching arm in arm, and heard an order given to assassinate the tall man, Mr. Burke. The conspirators than left Kavanagh with his horse and car, instructing him to be ready to start promptly. As the gentleman passed along, either Carey or Delaney raised a white handkerchief The witness did not describe who struck the blows, being at some distance, but he saw the scuttle and the victims fall. The remainder of his testimony described the route taken in driving from the scene of the murder. The case was then adjourned until Thursday next. The prisoners evidently feel that the game is up All of them exhibit defiant demeanor, except Carey, who sat motionless gazing at the bench. Little can be added to Kavanaugh's testimony, as the crown will not accept the evidence of any of the actual participants in the Fress & Vote on. Washington, Feb. 10.-A conference of the Republican caucus committee of the Senate was held this morning to determine which of the various measures now pending in the Senate shall be regarded as the most important to press to vote when the tariff measure shall have been disposed of. Senators Edmunds, Allison, Sherman, Hill, Miller (Cal.), Harrison and Aldrich were present and devoted three quarters of an hour to discussing the general subject. No definite programme was settled upon, but it was decided that the shipping bill scemed to present greater claims for prethis city. Remember, I am going to close them out if possible this season. Thave handled this class of goods for over 25 years. I am general understanding was reached that thoroughly familiar with the merits of all the this bid shall be first called up after dis-
