DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES

NUMINATIONS ON BATURDAY EVENING Spirged Contests in Some of the Wards-A Large Vote Polled-The Returns

For School Director. The Democratic primaries were held in the several wards on Saturday evening, and despite the inclemency of the weather and the fact that in some wards there was no contest, the poll was large. In the First ward a slight contest for assessor gave some zest to the primary, and after an entirely good natured struggle, M. W. Raub was successful over David Reese. In the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth wards, there was very little contest, though a fair vote was polled in all of them. In the Seventh there was a sharp struggle which excited interest all over the city. A very persistent effort was made to beat Select Councilman Geo. M. Borger and Common Councilman Frank R Everts, but it failed. In the Eighth there were numerous candidates for all the offices and a big vote came out. Good feeling prevailed and the winners had decided majorities. In the Ninth constable and assessor were the places most contested for, and Herr aud Scheetz, respectively, were successful.

For school director, as usual, there were numerous candidates and a good deal of random and scattering voting. Of the old directors H. Z. Rhoads declined renomination; Messrs. McConomy, Levergood and Oblender were renominated by very complimentary votes Against Geo. W. Zecher and F. W. Haas some opposition developed and by slender majorities they were defeated by Wm. Johnson and John Ochs. D. M. McCormick developed unexpected strength as a candidate and was elected by a very large vote. While there was an abundance of good material to choose from and some disappointment is of course feit, the result as a whole gives good satisfaction. Under the distribution of Democratic school directors as fixed by the nominations of Saturday evening the First, Second, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh and Ninth wards each will have two, the Third and Eighth, each, one and the Fourth four, but in explanation of this it is suggested that Mr. J. M. Johnson, who has since removed into the Fourth ward, was elected from the third and that Dr. Mc-Cormick resides almost on the line of the Eighth and was elected by its vote.

The name of Charles Krieg, of the Eighth ward, who was voted for as a candidate for school director was never sent to this office nor to the chairman of the city committee to be printed on the tickets. Following are the requits in detail

In 1845 William Miller was a soldier the army of the king of Wurtemberg. In that country soldiers were not permitted to marry. Nevertheless, William Miller became very much attached to a comely German girl named Wilhelmina Arlett. The attachment was reciprocated, and, as a result, there was porn to them on July 18, 1845, a son, whom they named after the father, William Miller. In 1853, hav ing performed the service claimed to be due to his king, William Miller came to America, bringing with him Wilhelmina Arlett and their child. They settled in the neighbors and family, but the room the city of Lancaster, Pa. Here, on June 28, 1854, William Miller fulfilled the promise he had made Wilhelmina, and was duly and lawfully married to her. They never had any children born to them save the son named, born before the marriage ceremony was performed. In 1858 William Miller renounced his alle giance to the king of Wurtemberg, and became a citizen of the United States. There is a statute of the kingdom of Wurtemburg, passed in 1610 and still in opera Home minstrels, of Philadelphia, will force, providing that children born out of wedl ck are legitimate by the subsequent company. Messrs. Simmons, Armstrong and marriage of the parents, and that their | Dougherty are all good commedians and have rights as regards inheritance from their played with the strongest companies in the parents, brothers and sisters, and other relatives shall therefore be held equal to those children who are born in lawful wedlock. Penusylvania also has a similar statute, passed in 1857, setting forth that ' in any and every case where the father and mother of an illegitimate child or children shall enter into bonds of lawful wedlock and cohabit, such child or children shall thereby become legitimate and enjoy all the rights and privileges as if night stands this week, in order that they they had been born during wedlock." statute of this state reads: "Children not be arranged and they will be here for certain. They open in Pittsburgh next week. be intitled to inherit;" and such has always heretofore been the law in New York.

William Miller, by his marriage, did all se could to remove the stain, if there was any stain resting upon his son. In 1860 ne came with his family to this city and engaged in the hotel business. He was taking a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup than very successful, and amassed considerable property. One piece of laud of which he became possessed is a corner lot, 153 by 30 feet, opposite the station of the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad company. Upon it now stand the large brick buildings of the Tioga coal company, both owned by the New York, Lake Erie & Western railroad company. It is a very valuable piece of property. On this spot William Miller conducted a hotel and restaurant for a number of years. His wife, Wilheimina, the mother of his son, died in 1873 and about two years thereafter he married again, his second wife being named Christina, No children were born to him by this second marriage. In 1876 William Miller himself died, and without making a will. William Mil ler, the son, then and still a resident of Lancaster, l'a., thereupon laid claim to the real estate which his father owned at the time of his death. Christiana Miller, the widow, resisted this claim on the ground that William Miller was an illegitimate son, and, by the statutes of this state.

residents of this city, diller, deceased, were the rightful heirs. A suit was begun in the latter part of 1876 by William Miller for the possession of the property. It was tried by a referee when the above facts were established, the decision being that William Miller could not inherit. The case was taken to the general term of the supreme court, Elizabeth, N. J. where the decision of the referee was affirmed. It then went to the court of appeals, and its decision was handed down on Tuesday last. It reversed the decisions of the referree and the general term, and gives the young man the right Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute. to the possession of the property which his father owned at the time of his death. This is an entire change of the law that has been in operation in this state ever since it was a state, and has excited much interest and comment all through this region. A bill has been introduced in the Legislature by Assemblyman Poucher reaching the same end attained by the decision of the court of appeals, and there is an important case in New York now, in which the possession of a large amount of property is at issue on the same point. So much of this story as makes the claimant still a resident of this city is an

SECOND EDITION.

MONDAY EVENING FEB. 12, 1863. AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS. STEADY RISE OF THE SWOLLEN KIVERS

The Ground Floors of Louisville Hou Inundated and the Occupants Gone-Great Disasters Anticipated.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 12.-The ground floors of the houses in Water street are inundated and the occupants have either removed to the upper stories or gone out entirely. The shipping port of the city is under water and much of Portland is in the same condition. No loss of life has as yet occurred, owing to wachfulness. Dispatches from Frankfort say that the Kentucky river had reached 34 feet and was rising a foot per hour. When this volume of water reaches the Ohio river great damage will undoubtedly result here, notwithstanding that strong efforts are being made to prepare for the worst. The life saving service has been of inestimable advantage to the poor people caught by the flood.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.-The river at 11 clock this morning reached 63 feet 5 inches, a rise of two inches in three hours. Barges are being run along second street to relieve the wants of people living there. The suspension bridge can only be reached with boats. The suffering among the people in the flooded part of the city is great, and unless some organized effort is made soon for their relief loss of life is inevitable. Dispatches from points above indicate that the rise will continue here probably till to morrow. The river is falling at Marietta, but is rising above there. No news has been received to-day from Lawrenceburg, Ind., and the worst Smashing an Idel. A series of revival meetings was in progress and the subject on one evening was the Book of Ruth. Among the congregation was a brother whom the sisters delighted to hear. His language was always flowery-grandly eloquent. Waiting for his chance, he at length arose and said : Brethren and sisters, the subject this evening is the Book of Ruth. And do you know that I never turn to the Book of Ruth without a thought coming to my mind that there it lies, like a beautiful jewel between the ermine of the judges and the purple of the kings."

"I am thirty-nive years old," writes Mr. Charles H. Watts, of West Somers, Putnam county, N. Y., and had suffered from dyspersia for fifteen years. Tried everything. At last gave Parker's Ginger Tonic a chance to Such an exquisite thought did not fail to have its effect upon his admiring hearers. Later in the evening an elderly clergyman came in, and after listening to the remarks for some time, arose and said: "My friends, whenever I turn to the Book of friends, whenever I turn to the Book of friends in the same of the truth all labor, sleeplessness, disgust with all labor, sleeplessness, horrid dreams to render bedt me like the hour of execution to a Ruth I am always reminded of that beautiful quotation from Taylor that it lies, meant when he said: "Night is my hell."

At fifty he is prematurely gray, bent in form and dispirited. Dyspepsia did it—Dyspepsia, the self-inflicted curse of the American in every department of toil.
