The tollowing named officers were elected : President-John I. Hartman.

Secretary-Jos. Samson,

Treasurer-Christian Gast. Superintendent-Samuel J. Pool. Mr. Lutz was induced to resign the position he has so long and creditably tilled, because of his advancing years and failing health, which, he feels, are beginning to unfit him for the arduous duties he is called upon to perform. The best wishes of hundreds of friends will follow

Mr. Lutz in his ensuing retiracy. Lancaster cemetery was chartered in 1847 and the first int rments were made in 1848. Jacob Hupert was the first superintendent and continued in office until the spring of 1855. During those seven years he interred in the cemetery the remains of nearly 1,900 persons. Many of these, however, were remterments from the Lutheran, Reformed, Methodist, Moravian, Presbyterian and other cemeteries located in the heart of the city. Mr. Hupert was succeeded by the present incumbent, George Lutz, who has held the office continuously from 1855 to 1883, a period of 28 years. During bodies-an average of over 125 per aupun.

The cemetery company is in a prosperous condition financially. It is entirely out of debt, has $23,913 96 in safe investments including $1,063 96 in the hands of the treasurer, and owns besides a large number of burial lets which will be sold and add largely to its revenues.

ble, somewhat more than life size. Fulton is represented sitting in a large arm chair, studying a model of a steamboat, which is grasped in both hands and resting upon his knee. His coat is off, and he wears the full waistcoat and loose shirt-sleeves, and the knee-breeches and low shoes of his time. The costume, in short, is that of a well-dressed man in his workshop, and some books and tools about the base the statue carry out this thought. These are the mechanical details. One will notice first the fine head, surmounted by an abundance of curling hair, and the beautifully chiseled face. It recalls the portraits prise a d gratification, 1 commenced to feel of Fulton, but it is a stronger face than the engravings show us, and the high-bred air is perhaps a little idealized, as is right enough. This is plainly an earnest and capable men who sits here absorbed in thought. He is not posing for his portrait; he is not thinking of his attitude at all, but has allowed his muscles to relax and his body mind upon the possibilities of its improve ment. It is a portrait of Fulton, but it might also stand as an ideal personification of the inventor. You do not need a label on the statue to tell you that this man is working out a problem in his mind, and when you look at his face you are sure that he will master the problem. The ability, the energy of purpose, the power and by cleansing, regulating and strengthenof concentrated thought which enabled Fulton to bring his many inventions into successful use, are plainly recognizable in this face and figure, more plainty, it may

The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medleines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a lyttle to satisfy them, when to my surbetter. It never breaks or wrinkles from wearing and is in every respect a perfect fit. For the last 30 or 40 years all manufacturers of shirts have been striving to produce a perfect fitting bosom and neckband, but have all come short of a perfect fit until the advent of the EICH-MIE PATENT BOSOM SHIRT, which is, without doubt, the Finest, Cheapest and Only Perteet Fitting Dress Shirt in the market to-day. We keep them in long and short sleeves, and to show how thoroughly the public apreciates the advantages of the Celebrated Eighmie Patent, we have sold at retail the past year, nearly FOUR THOUSAND of these shirts There is not a shirt manufactured that has more counterfeits than the perfect fitting Patent Bosom Eighmie Shirt, and none are genuine unless stammed "G. D. E." price is ONE DOLLAR, and a Perfect Fit is guaranteed or the money refunded.

THE STATE CAPITAL.

50 20 PROHIBITION PETITIONS PILING IN Various. Acts Introduced on a Variety o

Subjects-Members Struggling to the Front With Buis. Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER. HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 13.-In the Senate a majority of the senators presented petitions in favor of the liquor prohibitory amendment; thousands of names were attached to the petitions. The fol lowing bills were introduced: By Kennedy, Philadelpnia, to repeal the building commission act of Philadelphia; by Reyburn, Philadelphia, providing for the distribution and use of unclaimed bodies for scientific purposes through a board by Grady, Philadelphia, to amend the act of 1794 to allow the sale of papers, milk, etc., on Sunday, and to allow barber shops to be open on that day until 11 a. m.; by Smith, Philadelphia, to allow the recorder $7,500 a year. all fees outside of office expenses to be paid into the state treasury. A bill was passed finally to prohibit the receiving and retaining of children in almshouses and poorhouses, and to provide for their care and education. The Senate was occupied over an hour in the discussion of the bill to deprive the commonwealth of the power to stand aside jurors. Several letters from judges of Philadelphia were read a gainst the bill, which was passed, yeas 31, mays 14. The bill to establish an insurance department also passed finally. Hess, of Northampton, by request, in troduced a bill to fix the sessions of the supreme court at Philadelphia.

The House Proceedings In the House a resolution was adopted that no appropriation bill be considered on third reading unless an itemized statement of the expenses of institution is furnished, A bill was favorably reported appropriating $5,000 for a pedestal for the monument to Gen. Reynolds; one providing for the creation of counties. Sharpe introduced a as a substitute for Hines', which has so long occupied the attention of the House; the bill is not near so radical as the other. The following bills passed finally: For protection of agricultural and horticultural societies, fixing standard weight of a bushel of potatoes at sixty pounds. The bill to compel railroad companies to fence in their lines was amended to deprive it of its salient fea tures, and as it now stands it requires simply the erection of cattle guards. The bill was finally passed allowing the people to vote every three years on the question of license.

THE TERRIBLE FLOODS.

hirty People Reported Lost in Louisville. NEW YORK, Feb. 13 .- A private dispatch from Cincinnati this morning says the flood is still rising. Lives Lost in Louisville.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 13.-A special from Louisville, Ky., says the dam proteeting the lowlands in the eastern part of the city broke about midnight, letting sixty at 76c; tresh No. 3 Spring, extra, 55% bid. feet of water upon twenty blocks of dwellings. The scene which followed was indiscribable. It is reported that thirty lives were lest, but the fact cannot be were as a rule small and mainly occupied by poor people.

One hundred Persons Thrown Into the Raging Waters. CINCINNATI, Feb. 13 .- A shocking disaster is reported by telephone from the western part of the city. Both freight and passenger depots of the Cincinnati Southern railroad were inundated and fell into the surrounding water, carrying with them over a hundred or more people. The depots were one story frame structures rest ing on McLean avenue, which was almost covered by water. Both sides fell into the water, thirty to fifty feet deep. The earth had become so scaked as to melt and the catastrophe was further hastened by the breaking of a sewer, which sent a current along the bank. Crowds of people have been in that vicinity looking at the floods. It is supposed these are the victims

Later Particulars. It is impossible to state this afternoon how many lives have been lost by the depot disaster. Not one body has yet been recovered. It will be difficult to discover the bodies of those drowned as the place is isolated and full of dangers. Terrible State of Things in Indiana. NEW ALBANY, Ind., Feb. 13 .- The river rose eighteen inches last night and is still rising, all the houses and factories along the river front are abandoned. The water got into the glass works furnaces last night and the fires are all out. They will lose at least $100,000, About 3,000 persons are thrown out of employment, from 300 to 500 families bad to move, and all available room on the high ground is filled. The railroad track between here and Jeffersonville is abandoned. The

CONGRESSIONAL PRCEEDINGS.

What is Transpiring at the Capital. WASHINGTON, Feb 13.-In the House, Townshend (III.) offered a resolution amending the rules of the House so as to permit members to ask for unanimous consent for the passage of bills during the first thirty minutes of the session ; referred to committee on rules. Page, (Cal.), from the committee on commerce, reported the river and harbor bill; ordered printed, and recommitted. It appropriates $7,-937,000. The House then resumed consideration of the tariff bill.

In the Senate. At the close of the morning business the Senate also proceeded with the tariff bill.

Border Troubles.

St. Louis, Feb. 13 .- A private dispatch from Muscogee, Indian territory, says that Gen. Pleasant Porter, commander of the government party of the Creek Indians, left Okmulkee on the 9th inst. with four hundred men for the camp of the rebel faction under Spioche. In the meantime Major Tuft, the United States agent, has been busy, and an arbitration committee has been appointed, to whom have been referred all causes of trouble.

No Money for City Warrants, PHILADELPHIA. Feb. 13.—The city solicitor to day gave an opinion to City Treasurer Irvine, to the effect that pend ing the appeal to the supreme court in the city controllership controversy, he could not advice the city treasurer to pay warrants signed by S. Davis Page as city con-
