Several Engines Off The Track, Three wareles occurred on the Penusyl cancer railrestly this morning and travel was considerably delayed.

About two o'clock this morning engine 375 ran mto the rear and of the train drawn by engine 599, just east of the tower at Glen Leek. Terest cars and a caboose of the latter were demolished. The trains were going west and the one ahead had stopped. It was just pulling ent when the one about ran into it. The cars were all capty. The track's were blooked for five hours.

About 8:20 a. m. engine 184, casiward bound, ran into the rear of the train drawn by engine 665, at North Bend. Engine 481, the caboese of the front train and a number of cars were thrown from the track. All were damaged. The north track was blocked for an hour and the south one for two hours.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock engine 925, attached to the Lancaster accomodation, a nails were of full length. The hog was in passenger train which runs between this a healthy condition. city and illurrishing, was thrown from the

A Laucaster Soldier in Command of Mrs Washington's Guard. The following letter was written by John Steele, a captain of the Continental army, to his brother, Wm. Steele, Laneas ter, Pa., from Morristown, N. J., 14th of June, 1780 The original manuscript is in passession of Miss Marguerite Castillion, of New Jersey, who is a great grand daughter of Captain (afterwards General) Steele. Gen. Steele was a native of Lancaster county. His parents intended him for the ministry and he was under the fuition of Rev. James Latta, at Chestnut Level. At the breaking out of the Revo ationary war, full of aidor and enthusiasm he forsook his studies and entered Washington's army. He was woulded in the shoulder at the battle of Brandywine, and almost lest his life by unskillful surgery. On recovery he returned to his command, served through the war, and was with Washington at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. In 1805 he was appointed collector of the port of Philadelphia, and he held that effice until 1827, when he resigned. This letter will be read with special interest by his numerous friends and relatives in this city :

Legislation in the Senate. In the Senate, Mr. Morrill presented remonstrance signed by Oliver Wendell Holmes, T. B. Aldrich and J. G. Whittier, against a reduction of the tariff on books below 25 per cent. At the close of the morning session an executive session was held the singing was disgraceful!" "And I," after which consideration of the tariff bill was resumed. Mr. Morrill gave notice that if the bill should not be passed to day he would ask the Senate to sit long enough to morrow to dispose of it.

In the House In the House a long discussion was had on the Japanese indemnity fund bill, after which the tariff was taken up. Mr. Van Voorhees' mo tion, which had for its practical effect the placing of sugar on the free list, was rejected by a vote of 26 to 130.

THE PARDON VALID. The Prisoner Who Ate Soap to Look Sick

Carries the Day. COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 15.—Isaac Knapp, of Fremont, Ohio, a life prisoner who was recently pardoned by the governor. was rearrested on January 2 on the ground that the pardon was secured by fraud. Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted in the supreme court, which decided this morning that the validity of the pardon could not be inquired into on a writ of habeas corpus, and the prisoner was dis charged, Judges White and McIlvaine dissenting. This is first case of the kind in Ohio.

son, N. J., who prefixes "Rev." to his name, has filed with the city clerk a bill against the city for $5,000, the account being itemized as follows: "To breaking up the ravages of diphtheria by showing it consists of a few ounces of foreign matter in the blood which can only escape through the pores,

$1.500. "To lowering the death-rate of the city to the extent of 538 lives in two years (see vital statistics of 1876-79 and 1880) by means of circulars, letters, cards and tracts, showing what fever consists of, $2,000.

"To stopping ravages of smallpox by showing that 100 cases of it can be expelled from the blood in two or three hours by the vigorous action of the pores produced by hot tea, $1,500. Total, $5,000.

Dr. Robinson indorses on his bill the words: "I can prove in any court of justice that I have been the instrument of saving 1,000 lives in this city." Robinson is noted for having written many ecceutrie communications to the newspapers on is thought that he has become insane. Among the circulars issued by Robinson is one anneuncing a joint stock company for the preservation of 40,000 lives a year, and another proposing a claim against the United States government for

Joseph Parish, a man with many aliases was brought to Syracuse, N. Y., by th sheriff, on Wednesday, from Chicago. He profession. He is wanted there for robbing Delos H. Johnston, of Fabians, N. Y., of to morrow, and those living near the ice $1,000 on the Binghamton division of the Delaware, Lackawanna Western railroad sometime ago. Johnston was about to take a seat in a smoking car, a man thrust a valise into his face while three or four others crowded around and jostled him about. As soon as Johnston recovered from his excitement he found his money gone. Two of the suspected parties were arrested and have since been indicted, but the third person, who is thought to have been Parish, got away. It is thought that he is also the party who robbed a man of $5,000 in an Albany railway eating house a few years ago, and who stole a pocket book containing $1,600 in the Central railway station in Syracuse.

He Ought to Know. The late Lord Cardigan believed that all the world was an army, and everything therein was regulated by military tell you that, in my opinion, the singing of the children to-day in church was disgraceful." The clergyman replied, with due humility, that he was sorry to differ from his lordship, but that he could not consistently agree with him "I repeat, sir," said Lord Cardigan, "that said the clergyman, "regret to repeat that I cannot agree with you." "I tell you, sir," repeated Lord Cardigan, "that the singing was infamous! I have been an inspector general of cavalry for five years, and I suppose I ought to know something about it."

FRIENDS AND PATRONS-This may be the last chance to secure the greatest bargains in Heavy-Weight WOOLENS ever offered in in Heavy-Weight WOOLENS ever offered in this city. Reinember, I am going to close them out if possible this season. I have handled this class of goods for over 25 years. I am thoroughly familiar with the merits of all the leading makes of cloth in the market and do say I think the F. & H. and Johanny Edrec'ons are superfor in finish more reliable in color say I think the F. & H. and Johanny Edrec'ons are superior in fluish, more reliable in color and more durable than any cloths produced in the WORLD. Remember, also, I am the only man in this town that has the NERVE to tackle these tine, high priced goods. They can only be had in the larger cities at prices not less than $70 to $75 a suit. I am closing mine out at $40 a suit. I am having a great Boom in Trouserings. I am offering Heavy-Weightstrom $5.50 to $10 a pair-make a note of this, I have among my line the best English and French patterns, that cannot be had in Philadelphia for less than $15 to $18 a pair. lelphia for less than $15 to $18 a pair.

delphia for less than $15 to $18 a pair.

Thanking the public for the kind patronage extended particularly since my great reduction in prices. I shall endeavor to give entire satisfaction to all my patrons. Being again able to attend to business, I will superintend every department of the trade personally and will guarantee to secure every one the greatest value for their investment.

All my productions are warranted to be of superior CHARACTER AND TONE from any other house in the trade, having in my employ other house in the trade, having in my employ the best skilled workmen from the city. Un-less entirely satisfactory to the customer I will not allow it to go out.
