HARRISBURG NEWS.

PROCEEDINGS ON CAPITOL BILL Dixmont to be Investigated-Prohibition Petitious Pouring In-The Weight of a Bushel of Potatoes

Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER. HARRISBURG, Feb. 16 .- The governor has signed a concurrent resolution author izing the Dixmont investigating hospital to extend its inquiry to the Western penitentiary, which has asked for an appropriation of $351,000. Hasson to day presented the resolution and it soon after passed both Houses.

In the Senate. In the Senate, to-day, at least 150 petitions were presented in favor of the constitutional prohibitory amendment. House bills were favorably reported for the protection of agricultural and horticultural societies; for the protection of dairymen and to prevent deception in the sale of butter and cheese, and to fix the standard weight of a bushel of potatoes at sixty pounds. Mr. Emery introduced a bill requiring foreign fire insurance companies to pay volunteer firemen a certain premium. Kennedy introduced a bill to require evidence of the payment of a poll tax to be placed in the commissioners' office 29 days before the general election. The contractor having thrown up his contract, Mylin presented a concurrent resolution, which was adopted, that the Senate librarian pur chase supplies for the Legislature not exceeding in amount $3,500. A bill was passed finally for the improvement and alteration of charters of the second class. The bill for the care of the insane, drafted by Governor Hoyt's lunacy com mission, was favorably reported. Mylin presented petititions from citizens of Willow Street, West Lampeter. Salisbury, Little Britain, Colerain and Fulton, and from four hundred members of the Methodist churches of Lancaster for the passage of the prohibitory liquor amendment. Stehman presented similar petitions from citizens of Marietta.

House Proceedings. In the House a bill was favorably reported requiring fire escapes and fire alarms in hotels and tenement houses over two stories in height. The House was engaged nearly half the session in the consideration of the bill authorizing councals of cities of the first class to issue subpopus and take testimony of witnesses concerning the management and accounts of any of the departments The bill was passed on second reading with amendment divesting it of very objectionable features.

THE WESTERN WATERS.

Sickness Among the Sufferers-Help Needed For Smaller Towns. LOUISVILLE, Feb., 16.—Yesterday fifteen houses on the point floated away and went over the falls. The water was still rising last night reaching as far as the cellars of the Galt house. There is already much sickness among the suffer-

Assist. snow was melting under the warm blood ance is coming from outside places, but Louisville, while thankful, feels able to had just begun the task of mangling his take care of her citizens. Jeffersonville and other smaller places need help. A fall in the river is expected to day.

The Water Receding at Cincinnati. The water continues to recede about one and a half inch an hour, but is still one inch above the highest previous flood -that of 1832. The brisk wind rising this morning gives cause for serious alarm to the owners of barges, who fear that they will be wrecked. The indications are favorable for rain which is much feared now. Nowhere does the falling of the water give greater joy than in Lawrenceburg, Ind., where it is estimated two hundred houses have been overturned or washed away and that three thousand people were driven from their homes. The loss there will reach five hundred thousand dollars. Generous relief has been sent them. No loss of life has yet been reported, but there have been many narrow escapes. A Flood in This State Auticipated. WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Feb. 16.—The Susquehanna river at this city is rising slowly, but a few miles above here, where the ice is gorged, the river is fifteen feet. Some ice went out of the dam here to-day. A very high river is reported at Renovo, where it is still rising. Experienced lum

This was done with the assent of the ways and means committee, which agreed not to pass the tariff bill until three o'clock unless the legislative bill be passed earlier. A member of the House military committee stated this morning that there would be no further action by the committee at this session on the Grant retirement bill. In the Senate Mr. Morrill made a speech in justification of the amendment to the House bill adopted on his motion and in refutation of the charge in the original bill that the United States obtained a large sum of money from Japan through false pretenses. After some discussion the report of onference committee was agreed to.

ACQUITTED.

The Testimony of Medical Experts Clears BALTIMORE, Feb. 16.-The jury in the case of Fdward H. Tompkins, charged with shooting and killing Martin Leschofsky, in September last, to-day rendered a verdict of not guilty. Leschofsky knocked Tompkins insensible with a billiard cue and upon recovering Tompkins shot him dead. During the trial a number of medical experts expressed the opinion that Tompkins, at the time of the shooting, was temporarily insensible and irrational from the effect of the blow.

The Warrants Now Honored. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 16.—In accordance with a resolution passed by city councils yesterday, empowering their treasurer to pay all warrants issued and countersigned by S. Davis Page as controller, pending the determination of the controllership by the supreme court, the city treasurer to-day commenced to honor such warrants, thus breaking the deadlock in the municipal machinery. D. Sheppard, of New York, got loose at Larchmont and made a great sensation for fifteen or twenty minutes. Sheppard, who is lessee of the club house at Larchmont, keeps his dogs at that place. The bloodbound is a savage, blood-thirsty beast, and possesses the strengtl of a lion. He was chained in dog house, but, becoming restive under restraint, he tore the house down and pulled the stake up to which he was chained. He immediately killed a game dog belouging to his master and mangled its carcass in a shocking manner. He next went toward the barn, in the vicinity of R. K. Clark, M. D., South Hero, Vt. pulled the stake up to which he was which William H. Shute, a constable of New Rochelle, and James Fallor a companion. They were in a sleigh. They saw the animal approaching and they ran into the barn and climbed into a loft. The dog's attention was diverted from them by a passing cur, and while he was indulging in the pastime of killing the un lucky beast Shute and Fallon sprang into their sleigh and made speed for New Rochelle. At a locality known as Jerusalem the bloodhound overtook the fleeing med, who were unarmed and made a desperate attempt to get into the sieigh. The men fought him with a club and a whip, and shook a buffalo robe in his face to keep him out. He tors the robe almost into shreds, and was in a fair way of coming off victorious when a neighboring dog of an in vestigating turn ran into the road to ascertain what was going on, and take a hand if necessary. He made a fatal mistake. The bloodhound forthwith turned his attention to him and in a brief space the victim's carcass when the owner of the deceased cur came into view and fired six shots at long range from a revolver at the ferocious beast. None of them took effect. The man then procured from his dwelling a double-barreled shotgun, and just at the right time let it fly from both barrels, which were loaded with buckshot, killing the bloodhound almost instantly.
