DEMOCRATIC REFORMS AT HARRISBURG.
What has been Accomplished—Twenty-Three Officers and Employees Dismissed—Eighteen Thousand Dollars to Salaries Saved.
Special Correspondence to the INTELLIGENCER.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 16, 1883.—It has never been maintained by the friends of reform that because retrenchment at Harrisburg began with lopping off the superfluous officeholders that it was to end there. The INTELLIGENCER and other Democratic journals and stump speakers, who during the late campaign held up the long list of offices filled by Republican House members from year to year as proof of the tendency of that party to spend the public money to maintain its organization, pledged their party to abate these useless places and when the members came together that pledge was insisted upon.PHARMACY.
