A brother of the Smiths, Martin, finally arrived with Officer Fisher, and went into town. It was then discovered that the boys had left their coats in the shanty on the "Hill," and at the polls this morning Alderman Barr they went back after them. Smith was pulled off from him and he ran down Locust street. At Flury's saddler shop he was again knocked down and kicked, but finally succeeded in sheltering himself within the shop. He also is confined to ruary for mayor and last November for his house by his injuries. A number of governor: arrests will be made in consequence of the above affairs. White or colored, the guilty parties should all be ferreted out and severely punished. There has been too much work of this kind going on in Columbia, and it is time that it was stopped. Let Chief Burgess Sneath now do his duty. He is the man who should attend to this matter. Election Day in Columbia,

To-day was an exciting one to politicians. Every man who appeared in the neighborhood of any polling place and who looked like a voter, was pounced upon by the candidates in a way to cause the bair to stand on end. The contest for some of the offices has been a close one, and this accounts for the ferocious and manner in which voters are attacked. Wittig and public schools, one of whom at least has Fisher's contest for the constableship of the Second ward has excited more interest and comment than all the others together. By midnight, or long before, if there has not been so much cutting of the tickets, the candidates will be put out of their than a strict enforcement of rule 103, misery of suspense by knowing the result of the election.

Almost a Fire. The stable which stands at the rear end of the lot of the Spy office was on fire yesterday, and it is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. If such be the case it is bold work, as the men employed have the building in view. Fortunately the fire was discovered before it had gained much headway, and the type's from the Spy office soon extinguished the flames. Harry Dean was to the front of the battle Discharge Asked For.

This morning an attempt was made to have Frank Kilchrist released on bail to answer the charge of fornication. It will be remembered that the young man, in company with a number of others, was charged with having committed a rape upon Lizzie McClaren. Kilchrist was tried last fall and was convicted, An applica-tion for a new trial was made and it was granted on account of after-discovered counsel for the defense allege that it was agreed by the commonwealth they would not push the rape case but would be satisfied with a plea of guilty of fornication at him admitted to bail until that time. The district attorney appeared for the commonwealh and objected to the discharge on bail; he said that he had agreed to accept the plea of guilty of fornication, but it was understood that as a part punishment he was to stay in jail until March; he could not now tell what would be done in

HE ELECTIONS.

For Municipal, Ward and Township Officers Elections are being held all over Pennsylvania to day for city, ward, borough and township officers.

In this city all is going along smoothly at the several polling places, the "best workers" in the several wards being active, but not boisterous.

In the Second ward the main contest i for alderman and the friends of both Fordney and Stauffer are working hard for victory.

In the Third ward, where the Democrats are in a bad minority, the Republiselves. The faction led by Alderman Barr issued a "last card" in which Joel Haines, Republican caudidate for assessor. and Benjamin Henry, Republican candidate for common council, are charged Young, the Democratic candidates, a counter-blast in which " Alderman J. K. Barr (who holds the best paying office within the gift of the Republican party in his ward), and his lieutenants, several of whom are deriving pecuniary benefits from the party," are charged with conspiring with Democrats to defeat a portion of the ticket. When the opposing factions met ended like that one did; by the boys re- the alderman's barber, told him he did not know how much it was, but it was not much ; whereupon Barr in an insolent and p. d. q., and he wanted it polished up as clean as it was when it went to the barber shop. Scarlet Fever. There are quite a number of cases of died from the disease. The greatest care should be taken, both by teachers and parents to prevent a spread of the disease, and perhaps no means will go farther towards the accomplishment of this end which was long ago adopted by the board of school directors. It reads as follows: "No pupil shall be admitted or retained in any school while he or she, or any member of the family to which he or she let fever, measles or diphtheria, until at least two months shall have lapsed since clans, and always give perfect satisfaction. at Redsecker's stable almost constantly the invasion of the first two named diseases, and two weeks after the last two."

Panned Ovsters.

For panning fifty oysters provide four ounces butter; four tablespoonfuls cracker dust ; two saltspoonfuls salt ; one saitspoonful white pepper; one saltspoonful mace : two teaspoonsfuls whole allspice : one pinch cayenne pepper. Put the oysters the Opera House to morrow evening. He and their juice into a bright stewpan set on a quick fire, add the butter, salt and spices sift in the cracker dust, stir gently a special car will be run up that place by till well mixed; at the first boil pour them into a hot tureen, cover and serve immediately. If longer cooked they shrivel and get tough and indigestible. This is the popular Philadelphia style of panning oysters. They are often prepared in the same manner at table, on a chafing dish.

A GREAT ICE FLOR.

Rushes Down the Missouri River and Doe St. Louis, Feb. 20 -Information from St. Charles, Mo., is to the effect that an immense ice gorge came rushing down the Missouri river yesterday morning on a high and rapidly running volume of water, which overflowed the low bottom lands opposite St. Charles, and almost submerged the little town of Brotherton The government tug, Electra, was crushed by the ice, and nearly all the government work for the improvement of navigation at that point was swept away. The St. Charles car works on the river bank with the valuable dock built into the river were destroyed. The railroads in this; vicinity are getting in good shape again, and schedule time is about resumed.

His Sudden Death in Floride. Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—News has reached here to-day of the death of Robert A. Packer, of Pennsylvania, at his winter residence near Jacksonville, Florida. Great sorrow was expressed by the members of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey delegations in Congress. Mr. Packer was the oldest son of the late Judge Asa Packer and was universally esteemed.

[Mr. Packer was one of the foremost citizens and leading Democrats of Pennsylvania. He was president of the New York and Pennsylvania railroad and other parts of the Lehigh Valley system. aggregating 700 or 800 miles of railroad and lines of coal transports on the lakes and along the Atlantic coast. He inherited much of his father's excoutive ability and practical skill in railcoading. He applied his personal talents and large fortune to the development of the interests of his state, and was conspicuously identified with her material affairs.

Mr. Packer has been for years prominent in the councils of the Democratic party. He was a delegate to the Cincinnati convention, and no man was more active or influential in the late state campaign. He was elected at the late meeting of the state committee one of the new executive committee, and though compelled to leave for Florida before its meeting, he manifested substantial interest in its work.

Genial and sympathetic, noble in his impulses and generous in his dealings, Mr. Packer leaves a wide circle of sorrowing friends whose condolence goes out to his stricket relatives. Mr. Packer leaves a family, his wife being a daughter of Hon.
