Stauffer's Catfish Supper. For the INTELLIGENCER.

A certain party met the proprietor of the Rockhill hotel, (Manor township,) and accosted him as follows: "Do you know whether Jacob Lutz has got any Atfish for sale?" The reply was that Capt.W. D. Stauffer has engaged all I can catch for the next week. On the Wednesday after the election he is going to bring his friends down to partake of a first-class catfish supper."

IN STRASBURG

The Democrats and Independents Rejoice in a Citizens' Victory.

The election in Strasburg borough resulted in a victory for the peoples' ticket

there thus relates the event: The Rubicon is crossed-the die is cast-the vote is counted, and if the correspondent of the Examiner is agreed that the next caucus will be held in the ladder For the last three weeks the borough has been in a ferment over the sad death that was in store for the Independent party. In connection with the township politiciansespecially the former protege of Levi-our borough leaders had foreshadowed the to be sacrificed by common consent on the, Nevia is in excellent health. altar of party spleen by the defeated candidate for recorder and his bevy of postoffice followers. Unfortunately for their calculations, good citizens of the borough sounded the key note of common sense -and the Stalwarts died-hard. The justice of the peace, H. G. Book, was triumpantly elected, and the school directors (one Democrat and one Independent) left warrants for the arrest of his assailants, their Stalwart competitors sadly in the cold-never to hope again. There never was a more determined effort to sacrifice the good interests of the borough to boss methods and machinery than the campaign of yesterday, and when the fact is taken into consideration that the vote of the community is strongly Republican, the victory is still more complete. It is a still, small voice from a rural district to the hidebound and interested politician, that blind adherence to party interests for party sake has had its day. The entire citizen ticket with the exception of assessor, constable and one councilman out of six, were triumphantly carried through. For the next year our genial citizen, Chris tian Rowe, will preside over the affairs of our borough as burgess, and Ross Black, a pronounced Independent, will act as judge.

The writer of this article has been in the borough but a short time but he is assured by old citizens that the staid old town never witnessed greater rejoicing over an honest victory. The township politician went early to their homes, and when the citizens of the borough, headed by the Paradise band, paraded to the lower end of the town the mouth organ was no where to be seen. The following is the ticket elected:

Judge-A. R. Black, (Ind.) Inspector-H. H. Ingram, (Dem.) Assessor-W. B. Miller, (Stalwart.) Justice of the Peace-H. C. Book, (Ind.) School Directors-H. F. Andrews, (Ind). Amos Esternach, (Dem.)

Constable—Jason Stetton, (Stalwart.) Burgess-Christian Rowe, (Dem.) Council-Jacob Carpenter. (on both tickets), Elam Mooney, (on both tickets), E. C. Musselman, (Ind.), Wm. Black, (Dem.), Samuel Esternach, (Dem.), John K. Bachman, (Ind.) High Coustable-John F. Hull, (citizen's ticket.) Auditor-Wm. Spencer, (Dem.) Scattering Beturns. Girard Roth and Allen S. Ruby, Democrats, were elected respectively to the offices of burgess and high constable in Marietta. With those exceptions all the rest of the ticket elected is composed of Republicans. In Little Britain the Dem. JOHN S. GIVLER & CO. ocrats elected the entire township ticket except school director. In Bart the Democrats elect the assessor, one supervisor, auditor and town clerk.

A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

A Clean Sweep in Columbia Borough There are many sad faces in Columbia to day, for the election is over and there are quite a number who did not get what they wanted. This number is principally confined to the Republican ranks, however as the following list of those elected will

FIRST WARD-School Board, Wm. B Given, D.; Council, James Perrottet, D. Constable, John Gilbert, R.; Assessor, Andrew J. Meisling, D.; Judge Wm. B. Fasig, R ; Inspectors, Joseph McFall, D. and Martin Hinkle, R. SECOND WARD-School board, H. C

Graybill, D.; council, George Tille, D.; constable, William Wittig, D.; assessor, William Boyd, R.; judge, Harry Nolte D.; inspectors. James Schroeder, D., and James Baker, R. THIRD WARD-School board, Dr. W.

F. Markel, D.; council, Henry Westerman, D.; constable, Frederick Struck, D.; as-sessor, Daniel Gohn, R.; judge, William Beck, D.; inspectors, William Books, D., and William Gilbert, R. Messrs, Jacob Sneath, D., and Christian

Strawbridge, R., were respectively re-elected chief burgess and high constable. The election passed off quietly, with a single exception, and that was a fight which, however, did not cause much excitement. Few people awaited the returns last night, as it was rather cold standing on the streets and nothing of a warming nature could be had, as all the saloons were closed.

The raging Democratic Columbia reporter of the Examiner is about on a par with the bowling Democratic editor of the same paper. In the paper he carries the standard of the Republicans, but always forgets to vote that way; he casts a straightout Democratic ballot. Strange,

But the happiest man in Columbia today is Harry Nolte. "Shudge Nolte, of you blease." He will make a good judge of election and do his duty. We know he will. As he remarked to the crowd last night, it is the first time in many years that a Democratic judge has conducted the election in the Second ward, and " he is a Dutchman, py shiminy."

Don't say that Columbia is a Republican stronghold hereafter. The combined Beaver and Stewart vote had not a halfscore majority in town Put out the roosters now, 'Squire Grier.

Bennie Clepper has missed the assessorship again. Always will, too, although the Republicans have a strong majority to back him with, if they only would; but they won't; why is it? Let us here bid poor Henry Fisher a last sad adieu. Willie Wittig had too many votes, and Fisher is minus the constableship. The Tow Hillers" went back on him. Constable Struck bounded through the political arena with a rush again. When, after desperate exertions, he finally focused his gaze on a voter and said, "Come with me, my poy," there was no resisting the appeal and the Democrats scored another vote.

The Temperance Women

The Women's Christian Temperance Union met in the basement of the Duke street M. E. church, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 to perfect their organization and commence the work they have assumed. Mrs. J. P. Wickersham, the president, was in the chair, and Mrs. E. Ellen Wright,

The proceedings were opened with prayer and the reading of a portion of the criptures by the president. After some introductory remarks by the president there was an informal discussion as to the best means of accomplishing temperance Just at this time we would like to know | reform. Robbing a Church. Yesterday a thief entered St. Joseph's Catholic church, and broke open and robbed the contribution box which hangs therein for the reception of offerings for the benefit of the poor. WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 21, 1883.

AFTERNOON TELEGRAMS THE FATAL NEW YORK CALAMITY. A Jury Selected to Investigate the Cause of the Disaster-The Building Not Favorable for Occupancy. NEW YORK, Feb. 21.-The coroner this morning selected a jury to investigate the causes which led to the fatal school disas ter. Crowds of people visited the place this morning. Many were loud in their denunciations of the elergymen in permitting the stair case, which they say has been weak for some time, to remain without being properly strengthened. All the injured are reported to be doing well. The dead children will be buried to-morrow from the church of the Most Holy Redeemer, where services will be held.

An examination of the records of the building department shows that a report on the condition of the school had been made, from which it is inferred that if an examination was made the place was deemed to be in good condition. An inspection of the building shows that the doorways are only two and a half feet wide and open inwards, facing on the end, on the benches so as to allow no pas sage room and with the aisles narrow and blocked up with stoves. The exits every-where opened on a dark and narrow hallway.
