'Squire Barr's Shaving Cup.

Alderman Barr having withdrawn his patronage from Joel L. Haines on account of political difference, and demanded of that tonsorial artist that he should "polish up his shaving cup and send it home p. d. q.," Joel gave the cup a most thorough washing and polishing, and yester-day returned it to the alderman as demanded, and, in appreciation of past favors, sent along with it a piece of shaving soap, moulded in the form of a naked crying baby. The gift was a graceful one, and will be, no doubt, appreciated at its full worth by the alderman.

He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. pecial Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 23-Among the etitions presented in the Senate to-day, was one from Hamilton, Perry county, for the establishment of the whipping post. Mr. Coxe offered a resolution for the appointment of a joint committee of eight, to inquire into the Soldiers orphans schools, with a view of ascertaining if all the pupils have destitute fathers, which is a legal requirement. After a speech by Mr. Coxe, giving instances where children of fathers who are in good circumstances had been admitted to these schools, the resolution passed. A bill was passed finally, fixing the term of members of council in boroughs, at three years and providing for filling vacancies by council. The bill to provide for the investment of the sinking fund moneys of the state was slightly amended and further consideration post poned until Thursday next. Stehman introduced a bill fixing the fees to be received by the officials of Lancaster, Lu zerne, Schuylkill and Berks, agreed to by members of the bar associations of those counties in this city yesterday.

The House Proceedings. In the House bills were favorably reported to repeal the provisions of an act compelling the sentence of all convicts in Lancaster county to the county prison, and to provide for the registration of dentists. The House passed the following bills on second reading: To suppress the growth, properties and gring to growth, propagation and going to seed of the wild daisy; to print ten thousand addi-tional copies of Smull's hand book for the use of the Senate and House at a cost not exceeding seven thousand dollars. The bill for the relief of the owners of agricultural land, included within city or municipal territorial bounds, was indefinitely postponed. The civil service bill was defeated by a vote of 72 yeas and 82 nays. The bankrupt act was amended by strik-

THE GAS TRUST.

Investigating the Manner in Which the Money Goes. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 23.—At a meeting to day of councils the sub-committee on gas, appointed to investigate the coal tar and hauling contracts made by the trus tees of the Philadelphia gas works, a report was drawn up and signed by all the members. The report specifies where special privileges were given to certain contractors and avers that the tar sold in the last 41 years is $1,569,307 gallons less than should have been sold according to the coal used; that a contract for tar was made extending over a term of years at the price of one cent per gallor, when it could have been sold for at least 2 1 5 cents per gallon; that in the 41 years mentioned the city has been the loses to the extent of $167,696, and that for this loss the trustees of the Philadelphia gas works acting at the time should be held respon sible, the committee being clearly of opinion that it is to be at tributed to gross mismanagement. The general committee on gas met sabsequently, when this report was read. The chairman was instructed to submit the report to councils with a recommendation that it be referred to the city solicitor for information in the pending gas trust equity suit.
