Events Along the Susqueha Interest In and Around the Borough Picked up by the Intelli-encer's Reported The late cock fights at Wild Cat Falls seem to have inspired a number of young men of this place with a desire to imitate the brutality of their elders. A crowd of them went into the country just outside of the borough limits, yesterday afternoon and had a contest between two pairs of cocks, although the fowls were not provided with steel gafs, but fought with their natural spurs. None of them were killed, but the sport was none the less inhuman for that. We wonder if there is not an agent of the society for the prevention of cruelty to animals in town?

A Terrible Accident. This morning at 9 o'clock Dennis Mc Carty, an old repairsman of the Pennsylvania railroad, had his right leg mangled in a terrible manner by engine No. 954 while measuring rails back of the round house here. He was first taken to the company's temporary hospital and then removed to his home in Elbow lane. Amputation will be necessary, the limb requiring to be taken off above the knee. The victim will hardly recover on account of his advanced age.

The River and the Weather. The Susquehanna river was covered this morning with floating ice, giving the stream the appearance of winter again. Some persons had commenced thinking about getting out their boats for use, but they will doubtless cease such prepara-

The gutters are again filled up with ice, which will necessitate the renewed use of the pick and shovel, in order to afford a free passage to the drainage from the upper parts of town.

A Successful Festival. The festival of the E. E. Lutheran churh closed last night. The gross receipts were over $300 and the net proceeds are about $225. The fan drill was not held the drillers auctioned off. Each lady was presented with the fan with which she drilled as a souvenir of the occasion. There have been a number of festivals lately, but the town will be quiet for awhile now, at least in this respect.

A Bloody Battle. During the progress of a fight between two young men on Union street last night Fred. Ball, one of the combatants, received a severe scalp wound from a knife in his antagonist's hand. The blood flowed freely, but the fight still went on untill Ball finally thrashed his enemy. None of the spectators of the fight attempted to put a stop to it, even after the cutting took place. The knife has played a prominent part in a number of fights in this place of

The Kevival Slacking Off.

The usual large crowd was not present at the revival services in the Methodist church last night. Rev. Humphriss announced that this would be the last week of the meeting if there was not a renewal of interest in it. So much good has already been done that it is hoped the good work will not have to close on account of a lack of interest in the Personal Points. Miss Lillie Grimes, of Wilksbarre, is visiting relatives on South 3d street.

Mr. William Dunbar has gone to Louisville, Ky., for a couple of months. Mr. Thomas Beckwith returned to his home in Bryn Mawr, Pa., to day. He has been a guest of friends on 4th street for the past three weeks.

The Borough Buaget, Morning prayer and litany will be held in St. Paul's P. E. church to-morrow at 10:30 a. m. In the afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, evening prayer and a short lecture will be beld. A dog was noticed on Chorry street this morning, which snapped at several other canines. As the symptoms were evidently those of hydrophobia, it was killed. There was a simly attended market this morning. Eggs brought 20 cents per dozen and butter 28 cents per pound. Vegetables were scarce. Public Amusements.

To-morrow evening will witness the performance of another Humpty Dumpty company, a very excellent one by the way, Tony Denier's. Another "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company will be here next week. The people are tired of this play, as is evinced by the smallness of the number of those who go

Police Cases.

Albert Reidenbach and Walter Lawrence were arrested on complaint of C. A. McGlinn, who charges them with having assaulted him with stones and driven him into his house. They were held to bail for a hearing by Alderman Samson. Frank Wilson, for drunken and disor derly conduct, was committed to jail by Alderman Samson for 10 days. Mary Wise got 30 days for being drunk and disorderly from Alderman Barr She had just been out of jail long enough to get a breath of fresh air.

"Baltimore Joe," who was so hard to take to the station house yesterday, will get out of jail in time to hear the bluebirds sing, as the mayor gave him ninety days this morning. John Sullivan will not be out to see Slade and Mace spar, as he, with six others like him, got 10 days from his honor for being drunk and disorderly. One also got 8 days.

In Mexico.

Col. James A. Zabriskie, U. district attorney of Arizona, accom-panied by Capt. Z. L. Tidhall, U. marshal of that territory, and Mr. Colin Cameron, of the Elizabeth farms, this county, made a trip last week from El Paso, Texas, to Chihuahua, Mexico. They were in special charge of Mr. James Campbell, superintendent of the Texas division of the Southern Pacific railroad, who provided them with a magnificent parlor car. While en route they were joined by Gov. Terrazas, who accompanied them to the capital and showed them much attention, introducing them to many important personages, feasting them royally and showing them all the principal objects of interest in the city The guests expressed themselves greatly gratified with their visit.

Killed a Cat.

Joseph Boyer is the owner of an old pistol, that contained an old load. Wishing to discharge it, he drew a bead on Philip Wolf's cat that was disporting itself on top of the fence. Joe is a better marksman than he supposed himself to be, for instead of scaring the cat, as he intendel, he sent a bullet right into its head whereupon it flummixed and died. Wolf got mad and sued Joe before Alderman Pat Donnelly, charging him with violating the ordinance which prohibits sheeting within the city limits. Boyer was held for a hearing.

Sale of Keal Estate. Samuel Hess & Son, auctioneers, sold last night, at public sale, at the Leopard hotel, Lancaster, for A. J. Eberly, esq., is particularly useful in Diphtheria, Fever, assignee of Augustus C. Rhoads and wife, and every depressing disease." a tract of land containing 36 acres, more with improvements thereon, situated in Manor township, to Michael Steigerwalt, for $2,515.

Held for Postage.

A letter addressed "Mr. Simon Abraham, 616 Vaine street, 25th ward, Philadelphia," is held at the Lancaster postoffice for want of a stamp.

WANTED IN THE WEST.

nother Man Who Come Rest In a Marry This morning Albert Dull was arrested at Fry's mill, on the Columbia turnpike, on the charge of grand larceny, which is preferred against him in Clay county, Illinois. Sheriff James I. Ritchie came from that county and landed in this state last week. He received a requisition from the governor and started for York expecting to find his man there. He soon found that he was not in that county and came on to Lancaster, where he learned the whereabouts of the man. Dull is a native of York county, and is a son of Jonas Dull. He has been living in the West and recently returned home. It is alleged that he killed and sold cattle, which did not belong to him. The officer will leave for the west with his prisoner to-night.

The Only True Prophet.

The ground hog, the only reliable weather prophet, revealed to us on the 2d of Febreary that we were to have six weeks more wintry weather from that date. Nearly four weeks of the aliotted time have passed and the ground hog's prophecy has been fulfilled to the very letter. We have had snow, hail, sleet and wind or rain nearly every day, and to-day the mercury fell to ten above zero. This ought to be enough to satisfy the most skeptical that the ground hog is the only true, original and legitimate prognosticator of meteoralogical phenomena, and yet our esteemed contemporary, the Harrisburg Patriot classes him in the category of Vennor, Wiggins, the almanac. the goose bone, and other false prophets. Perhaps the two weeks of bitter weather yet in store for the unbelieving editor may open his mind to a perception of the truth as it is recorded by the ground hog.

Who Was the Accused Lancastrian. Baltimore Sun.

About one o'clock Sunday morning loud cries of "Police," "Murder," &c., were beard in the vicinity of Franklin and Cal vert streets. An officer ran to the place and found a man who said he had been garroted and robbed on Franklin street near Bell alley. He said his name was last night, and neither were the fans of James Kelly, of Locust Point. The officer went to a hotel near, where Kelly pointed out a gentleman from Lancaster, Pa., as the person who assaulted and robbed him. The stranger protested his innocence, but Kelly failed to appear, and the prisoner was discharged.

Dead, Under the Load. Benjamin Silver's team, of Lapidum, Harford county, Md., was sent to Havre de Grace for a load of coal and iron. The driver, named Cullen, got drunk with a party of his associates, the wagon ran over one of them, breaking his leg, and afterwards upset and another, Allen Jones, was found under the load dead.

Assault and Battery. Waiter Myers and John Franklin were heard last night before Alderman A. F. Donnelly on the charge of assault and battery, on Frank Lepple. Myers was committed for trial at court and Franklin was discharged.

Sheriff Sale.

The sheriff was busy yesterday and this forenoon selling the stock of Astrich & Bro. The greater part of it was purchased by Julius Loeb and Ettinger Bros. who were the heaviest creditors.

Canada horses at an average price of $215.40 per head.

Humpty-Dumpty To-night .- Tony Denier's Humpty-Dumpty" troupe, with its innunerable comicalities and many startling stage husions and funny tricks, will be in Fulto opera house this evening. There is a fine lot of specialty acting in addition to the pantonime, and it is safe to predict an evening of pleasure to all who attend. Alf. Miaco is the clown.

Mace and Stade.-The Mace and Stade com bination will be in Lancaster to-morrow evening. This combination includes some or the best athletes in the world, and certainly the well known champion puglist Mace, and the big Maori, the New Zealand giant, will prove great attractions. There are also with he combination Kelly and Murphy, light weight champions, Steve O'Donnel, the cham pion wrestler, and several others, all of whom will no doubt give a fine entertainment to the big audience that will certainly be present. Mace and Slade will give an exhibition o sparring in full ring costume, and the admir ers of pugilism will have a good opportunity to note the strength, size and ability of Slade about whom so much has been said and writ

"The World."-Little's company will pro duce the really splendid spectacular drams "The World," in Fulton opera house on Thursday evening. When this show was here in September its attractive scenery was great ly admired. Mr. Little is a popular and able actor and will no doubt be again well re ceived.

Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report, went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a triend told me of DR. WM. WASHINGTON NEWS. BON. DAVID DAVIS TO STEP DOWN

The Republicans Likely to Choose President of the Senate Pro Tem-Who it Will Be.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.-In the Senate to day, Mr. Davis (Ill.) announced his in tention of resigning the office of president pro tem. at noon on Safurday, the 3d of March, in order that a new president pro tem. might be elected. Various petitions were presented from printers and other workingmen, protesting ers from the government printing office. What It Means. It is believed that the announcement by Judge Davis that he will resign the office of president of the Senate pro tem. at noon next Saturday was prompted by information from President Arthur that he does not intend to convene the Senate in special session on the 5th of March. It is understood that the Democratic senators will offer no opposition to the prompt election of a Republican sena tor pro tem. Mr. Anthony, who filled this position from 1869 to 1873, and who was the choice of the Republican caucus in 1881, will not be eligible for election to hold the place during the coming recess, as his present term will expire with the legislative day of March 3d, and he cannot be sworn in again until the next meeting of the Senate. Although no caucus convention has yet been taken on the subject, the indications are that Mr. Edmund's will be chosen president pro tempore, and that the other officers of the Senate will hold their positions until De-

The House resolution authoring Major Ludlow, of the engineer corps, to accept a civil position (chief engineer of the water works, Philadelphia), was passed. After the transaction of some miscellaneous business the Senate went into execu-

In the House. Immediately after the reading of the journal the House proceeded to vote on the adoption of the Reed resolution and it was agreed to-yeas 129, nays 22, Democrats generally refrained from voting. The negative vote included Bayard, Campbell, Ermentrout, Walker and Wise, of Pennsylvania. Hammond, of Ga., then rose to a question of privilege and offered a resolution declaring the action of the Senate unconstitutional in substituting for the House bill to reduce internal revenue taxation a proposition imposing import duties. He then proceeded to argue upon the constitutional question raised by his resolution.

Mr. Hammond's resolution also proposed that the tariff bill be laid on the table. Argument on the resolution was continued at length and Mr. Haskell offered as a substitute that the bill be referred to a conference committee, and that the constitutional question be confided to the committee, which shall submit its findings to the House.

The House Committee's Final Meeting The House committee of military affairs held its final meeting to-day. Among the bills left unreported are the Grant retirement bill and the bill to restore Gen. Fitz John Porter. v's Action Appro

Secretary Chandler has approved the action taken by Capt. Ramsay in the recent troubles with the cadets at the Annapolis naval academy. Capt. Ramsay submitted the names of the three cadets who declined to apologize to him for their conduct to the secretary, who referred the matter back to Capt. Ramsay, giving him authority to excuse any further discipline necessary, and to make any suggestions or recommendations he might think advisable to the department. Bail Fixed for Dishonest Detectives. In the criminal court this morning ludge Wylie fixed the bail in the case of Private Detective Charles E. Flinders and ex-Police Detective John M. Coomes, indicted on yesterday for receiving stolen property, at $2,500 and $1,000, respectively. Bonds were promptly furnished. The other persons indicted yesterday have not yet been arrested.

STATE LEGISLATION. Progress of Affairs at Harrisburg. special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. HARRISBURG, Pa., Feb. 27.-An hour was occupied in the Senate to-day in the presentation of a petition in favor of the prohibitory constitutional amendment and other measures before the Legislature, among them the bill to continue the soldiers' orphaus school system. The following bills were introduced : Watres, exempting bequests to benevolent institutions from collateral inheritance tax; Agnew, proposing an amendment to the constitution, increasing the number of supreme court judges from 9 to 11, and providing that the court shall it in divisions, a division to be constituted of not less than three nor more than five judges. The state board of health bill was defeated, receiving but 22 votes, four less than required to pass it finally. Petitions were presented from Fulou, Drumore, Little Britain, Millersville, Conestoga Centre and Mt. Joy, in favor of the prohibitory constitutional amendment. Two petitions were presented from Columbia for a continuation of the soldiers' orphans school system.

The House Proceedings In the House Hines' personal liability oill was amended by striking out the provision requiring that suits be brought within six months after injuries shall have been sustained, after which it passed third reading. The bill for the protection of farmers and owners of cattle, etc., along the lines of railroads passed on second reading. Coxe's Senate concurrent resolution for an investigation into the soldiers' orphans school was concurred in. The bill to prcvide for the care and treatment of the nsane was passed on third reading; similar action was taken on the bill to prohibit the receiving and detaining of children in

The bill authorizing councils in Phila-
