; encer's Reporter. Mr. Armor D. Bell received a letter from Albert McGinness, last night, who was supposed to have been killed on a western railroad some weeks ago. The Vigilant fire company engine house was draped in mourning in honor to his memory, he having been a member of that organization when residing here, but now the boys can replace it with flags. Mr. McGinness states in his letter that he is residing in South Pueblo, Colorado, and that he is in excellent health. As he does not say any thing about any railroad accident that he was in, the probabilities are that the whole report was a mistake.

The Electric Light. It is expected that within the next 30 days many of the business places of Columbia will be lighted by electric light. Arrangements are now about being completed with an agent of the Maxim electric light company of Philadelphia, for the machinery and everything necessary for the enterprise. A company will be organized here which will operate the new system of lighting, and will commence the enterprise with about 40 lights. That number will not be a great while increas-

The P. R. K. water house at Dillerville, is to be removed. The engines will hereafter receive a water supply at Lancaster. The signal tour at Dillerville is also to be removed from the old line of railroad to the new. Church Topics.

On the evenings of March 15th, 16th and 17th the congregation of the Bethel church, corner Seventh and Walnut streets, will hold a supper. As these church entertainments are the means of keeping up a state of sociability in the community, they should be well patron-

Morning prayer and litany at St. Paul's P. E. church will be held to-morrow at 10:30 a. m ; evening service at 7:30 p m. The pastor of St. Paul's P. E. church, of Harrisburg, Rev. Leroy F. Baker, will preach at the latter service. Public Amusements

The agent of Wilbur's comic operatroupe is in communication with the manager of the opera house here regarding the securing of that hall for a performance by the company on Saturday evening. The matter is not yet definitely settled.

The "Spanish Students" will have a large audience to-morrow evening, between two and three hundred seats having already been disposed of. A large crowd will be present from Marietta; a special car will take home those attending from that place after the performance. Raserved seats are only 50 cents.

Tony Denier's "Humpty Dumpty" company gave a second performance last night and had a fair sized audience. Personal Points.

Yesterday morning, by the Rev R. Humphriss, Mr. S. A. Casey, of Para, Ill., was united in marriage to Miss Bella Strickler, of this place. The happy couple left for Washington, D. C., in the afternoon train.

Miss Annie Bruner left for Philadelphia this morning, where she will read at an entertainment which is to be given tonight by one of the principal churches in that city. This invitation to read is a high compliment to this young Columbia lady's powers as an elocutionist.

Miss Mary Preston, residing on North Second street, has almost finished making a quilt which will be composed of 3,815 pieces of patchwork. How many other young ladies in Columbia would persevere in the task of completing such a laborious work?

The friends of Mr. Marshall Smith, night operator at the dispatcher's office of the west yards of the Pennsylvania rail road here, presented him with a beautiful token of their regard last evening.

A general scattering of pedestrians on Cherry street, last evening, was caused by a cow of lively habits. Fortunately no one was hurt.

The Misses Mame and Maggie Ziegler left to-day for a visit to relatives in Altoona and Pittsburgh. Mr. Frederick Bucher is in Philadelphia attending to business. Mr. H. F. Bruner has gone to Altoona.

ENTER MARCH!

It Comes in Rather Lamb-Like. It is an old saying that if March comes in like a lion it will go out like a lamb, and vice versa. To-day it came in somewhat like a lamb-not a very little, delicate, playful warm-blooded lamb like Mary's, "with fleece as white as snow," but rather like a solid, half grown young buck, ready to give and take whatever buttings may come in its way. The sun shone brightly, the sky was blue, there was no wind worth speaking of, but the air was bracing and biting, and but little impression was made on the ice that still lingers on the shady side of the streets. While the day is the best we have had in a long time, it is only a "weather breeder," as Dr. Willitts says, for has not our weather prophet, the ground hog, prognosticated two weeks more of winter? The month is pretty young yet, and will be sure to show a leonine disposition before it ends.

Flection of Omcers. The Guttenberg death beneficial association of this city have elected the following officers: President, George Darm-stetter; vice president, Philip Kuhlman; secretary, Otto Pachelbel; treasurer, Peter Miller; trustees, John Landau, Geo. Wall, William Wissner.

Trial of a Traction Engine. Ezra F. Landis' "Peerless" road engine down North Queen street and around through the square into West King street this afternoon, drawing a wagon load of rags for Shober's paper mill at Slackwater, besides a couple of road wagons filled with men and boys, all in all making a heavy draught for a six horse team. Hundreds of persons were on the streets and greeted with enthusiasm the success of the experiment. It 'yew the load with ease on the level and went up and down the grades on movements skilfully and the entire experiment, when the cavalcade was last seen on its way to Slackwater, was a suc-

"The Mascotte" Monday .- This charming and deservedly popular opera will be presented in Fulton opera house Monday evening, by the excellent Wilbur opera company. Says the Cleveland Sentinel of this troupe : They came and saw and conquered, and their efforts were patronized by large and well-pleased audiences. The reputation they have achieved elsewhere was fully endorse here. The chorus is large and well-drilled, efficient in voice and attractive in appearance and the soloists are all good vocalists and capable actors."

WASHINGTON EVENTS.

THE LAST DAYS OF THE SESSION. Mr. Bayard Gives His Reason for Not here Trouble to Fill the Vacancies.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Mar. 1-In the Senate Bayard, rising to personal explanation gave reason why Mr. Beek and himsel withdrew from the conference com on the tax bill. After reading the Sen-ate's resolution directing its conferees to withdraw if they found that a full and fair conference could not be obtained, he said his colleague and he had been unable to come to any other conclusion than that it was not a full and fair conference. He asked that both be excused from further service, which request was granted by a vote of 49 to 6, and the chair was authorized to fill the vac The president then appointed Mesers. Voorhees and McPherson. The latter was subsequently excused, and the chair appointed Mr. Harris, but he too was ex-cused. Mr. Voorhees then declined to serve and was excused. The president said he had no means of ascertaining who would consent to serve "except by going around and interviewing every senator but he might find some one during the day." [Laughter.] The Senate then proceeded to consider the sundry civil appropriation bill. In the Houte.

In the House Mr. Forney, (Alabama) presented a conference report on the forti-fication appropriation bill, and it was agreed to It appropriates $670,000, being 295,000 more than when it passed the House. A motion to limit debate on river and harbor bill to one minute was lost and the House went into committee of the whole on the state of the Union. Mr. Hiscock then objected to the river and harbor bill, and the committee rose and reported the objection to the House.

The House by a vote of yeas 124, nays 107, ordered that the consideration of the river and harbor bill should be resumed and immediately went into committee on the bill. An Informal Meeting of Tariff Conference-no action was taken, owing to the absence of the Democratic members and an adjournment was had to await the action of the Senate, touching the declination of Messrs. Bayard and Beck to serve upon committee. At 12 o'clock vacancies not having been the filled the Republican members of the committee again met in the room of the Senate committee on finance, where they are still in session. One of the Republican members said in reply to a question that they would go on with the bill regardless of the vacancies on the committee and would submit their conclusion to the House. A point of order, raised by Mr. Carlisle, that the committee could not proceed in the absence of the two members on the part of the Senate, was sustained by the chair, and the committee adjourned subject to a call of the chairman. Nominations Sent to the Senate.

A large batch of nominations will be ent to the Senate this afternoon includ ing a surveyor and naval officer for the port of New York and chief examiner under the civil service commission. Public Debt Decrease. Public debt decrease for February was

Tc-Day's Proceedings at Harrisburg-Bills Introduced and Passed. Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER. HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—In the House to-day the Senate bill to authorize the fish commissioners to sell the state hatching houses and the House bill fixing the rate of sleeping and parlor and palace car companies at about half the price that is charged, and making them common carriers, were affirmatively re ported. A bill was introduced by Mc Namara, of Bedford, providing for the forfeiture of railroad charters if they construct only a portion of the line authorized to be built. Morrison, of Lawrence, moved to reconsider the vote providing for ten thousand additional copies of Smull's hand book which was defeated after a long discussion the motion was agreed to and the bill was passed on second reading, with a proviso that the book cost not exceeding 46 cents a copy. The governor's veto of the Lackawanna poor directors bill was sustained by an almost unanimous vote. Governor Pattison submitted a message to both branches to-day on the conduct of E. G. Patterson, of Titusville, in the Standard

Chandler Should Sue Gorringe. Philadelphia Telegraph.

Making all allowances for the fact that Mr. Gorringe is angry and that he feels sore over the treatment he has received at the hands of Mr. Chandler, the fact nevertheless remains that the gravities of his language are about as great as they could be. In fact, Mr. Gorringe's charges have particular importance for the reason that they put into rather plain and understandable terms accusations that have been whispered about and hinted at for a long time past. The substance of these accu sations, in fact, represents the real animus of the opposition which defeated Mr. Chandler's confirmation for solicitor general and which protested against the confirmation as secretary of the navy. It is high time that these accusations were put at rest somehow, for if they are true, Mr. Chandler is an entirely unfit person to oc-capy the great office that he does, while if they are false every consideration of public and private propriety demand that their falsity shall be plainly demonstrated, and that those who are guilty of libelling the secretary of the navy shall be punished according to their just deserts. There abundant material for any quantity of libel suits in the language which Mr. Gorringe is just now giving to the public, and we are quite interested in knowing whether Mr. Chandler has sufficient regard for himself and intelligent public opinion to take the ex-lieutenant comman der into court and demand that he shall make his words good or stand the legal

A Ghost Story from Georgia. For the past 10 days Montgomery county Ga., near the line of the Macon & Brunswick railroad, has been the cause of a great mystery, and people are almost wild with excitement owing to the manifestations of alleged ghosts. The house of Mr. Adams is the scene of the disturbance About 10 days ago he was alarmed by loud rappings against the side of his house as if some one was beating against it An informal meeting of the conferees with sticks. When he would open the on the tariff bill was held this morning but door to go out and investigate the matter, the rapping would begin on the inside of the house. No trace of the cause could be found. The disturbance has greatly increased within a few days, and the rapping finally became so violent that Mr. Adams tore down the ceiling and walls of the house in endeavoring to find a reason or explanation for the singular proceedings. The entire matter is involved in the greatest mystery. People are greatly alarmed and are flocking FRAKE by hundreds to Mr. Adams' house to try to solve the mystery.

Villages Wiped Out by Floods. At Shawneetown, Ill., the worst is over. The town is an awful scene of desolation. There are great gaps left by houses swept away. In one addition four solid blocks of dwellings have entirely disappeared. The Presbyterian church has floated away a mile. Several mills and business houses are entirely gone. The villages of Blackburn and Raleigh, Ky., have been nearly ble loss of memory, secondaried with a turely disappeared. The Presbyterian church has floated away a wiped out. Over one hundred houses in these places are gone. At Columbus, Ky., over ten feet of water spread over the town fills nearly al! the stores.
