ANTI-DANCING.

A MOUNT JUY PREAUBER'S PHILLIPIC.

he Discourses of the Giddy and Voluptor Amusement of the Modern Times and Scores it Vigorously.

In anticipation of a sermon on "Danc-ing," which had been announced to be preached from the pulpit of the Methodist Episcopal church, of Mount Joy, there was a perceptible increase in the attendance on Sunday evening. There were present a a thin sprinkling of young ladies and gen-tlemen who indulged in the season's festivities which were numerous in the borough beyond precedence. The mazy pleas. ure attracted a few from that particu-lar flock, but to both Christian and sinner the good parson presented his argumentative sermon against it. The pastor, Rev. Charles Roads, took for his text Colossians III., 17: "Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him." His remarks he made in candor and he wanted the congregation to accept them in that spirit. He applied what he had to say to both Christian and sinner, as God's law was applicable to all. The mere fact that the one had entered into a covenant did not make him more liable to walk in the paths of rectitude than the other. who, if he has not given a promise, must at any rate not commit moral offenses. Having clearly designated the offenses he vigorusly assaulted them. In dancing he made three grades, parlor, select and public balls of the lowest order, and to each of which he objected. There was a close relation between them, the first being the doorway leading from bad to worse. Its infatuation he put on a par with the appetite of a sot for strong drink. The alieged artistic worth he ridiculed. The square dances were not so bad as the polka or the mazourka, but each he had a horror for, and by the time he came to the waltz his soul was burning with indignation as he exclaimed, "Let us hoot it from America, babish it from our shores, back to giddy France and voluptuous Germany where it originated. He had conversed with church members who would rather leave the church and go to another than quit dancing. To such he would say, "Go, go, but before you join be sure that you repent," To the opinion that the Bible sanctions dancing, he explained that dancing is modern and traced the different kinds to their origin. The Bible does not specially oppose the running of trains on Sunday, yet it is wrong so to do. And besides that in the time of David the dancing was of a differ ent nature, for a different purpose, and the men danced alone and the ladies too. The reverend gentleman gave the subject considerable study, and spoke very intelligently of it. His manner impressed one with his earnestness and conscientious duty which he is performing. Next week he will attend conference, and the probability is that he will get another charge, as he has been at Mount Joy two years, so that any unharmonious relations between pastor and layman that may occur will not interfere to jar the harmony of the congregation. Borough News.

The statement that Emanuel Reese, of Providence township, was dead proves to have been an error. He is alive and well. The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian association will be held this evening at 8 o'clock.

By the conference now in session in Chambersburg, J. G. Smoker, of this county, has been admitted into the itineracy of the United Brethren church. The mercury didn't quite reach zero last night and this morning, but it was decid-edly cold. The ground hog still dozes at the bottom of his comfortable home, dreaming of the sweet by and by. HAPPY SURPRISE.

Lieut, John Reese's 66th Birthday.

The family and friends of Lieut. John Reese determined to give him a surprise on Saturday evening, in honor of the 66th anniversary of his birth. He was cajoled from his residence by Fred. Brimmer under pretense of being wanted as a parter in a game of euchre, and was detained sufficiently long to enable the family to make all necessary preparations, and for the guests to arrive unseen by him. When he returned he found the parlors graced by about thirty of his most intimate friends and the dining room tables spread with a banquet sufficient for a bundred hungry hussars. He was completely sur prised and for a time was speechless, but the warm greetings he received from the jolly company soon set him at his ease and he became as merry as the merriest. The festivities were kept up until midnight when the party separated, wishing the lieutenant many happy returns.

Golden Wedding Anniversary. Wednesday February 28th, 1883, being the 50th anniversary of the wedding of W B. and Eliza Lytle, old and highly respect-ed residents of the lower end of Lancaster county, near the nickel mines, a few friends, relatives and neighbors were invited by their children to spend the day with them in a social manner, and while the father and mother were not surprised his head down and bit his ear off. Stewwhen visitors began to arrive in the forenoon, they were rather astonished when one after another who came to honor the occasion, displayed packages of useful and valuable presents as tokens of regard and esteem. After all the friends had arrrved, and an hour or two had been spent in social converse and enjoyment. the guests were invited to a bountiful repast which had been prepared for the cccasion, and to which ample justice was done. At an early hour in the evening the guests left for their homes, but a vol untary serenade was tendered by the Nichel Mine band and the members were handsomely entertained.

A Man Loses an Ear in a Fight.

On Saturday evening, Edward Gardner, white, and Benjamin Stewart, colored, had a fight in the yard in rear of the City hotel, during which Gardner lost a part of one of his ears and was otherwise rather roughly used. He says that Stewart threw him, but that he turned Stewart and got on top of him, whereupon Stewart pulled art declares that he did not bite him at all and that if he lost an ear it must have been cut off by the sharp edges of some broken slate in the yard where they were fighting. Gardner was taken to Cochran's drug store and thence to Dr. Reed's office. where his wound was dressed. The doctor said he could have sewed on the dismembered piece if he had had it, but it could not be found. Gardner had been drinking and had insulted one or two other men before he fell in with Stewart.
