Iliness of Mrs. D. H. Wingerd. Reading Herald.

For over a month past Mrs. D. H. Wingerd, of this city, has been ill, and late on Saturday evening her condition was so serious that her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Culbertson, of Chambersburg, were sum-moned to her bedside. The latter left Chambersburg for Harrisburg on a special train, Sunday morning, in order to reach Reading the same day. At Harrisburg Dr. Culbertson left his wife and returned to Chambersburg. As he was about entering his home he dropped to the floor with heart disease, and in a few mo-ments was dead. He was 70 years old and one of the most prominent citizens of the Cumberland Valley.

"HONEST JOE."

A Six Years' Sentence for Horse Stealing. Alderman Spurrier who went to Media yesterday to testify in the case of "Hon-Hinkle, alias Wm. Muthart charged with stealing a valuable team from Mr. Cochran of Chester, Delaware county, has returned. His testimony was not required, as "Honest Joe" pleaded guilty, and was sentenced by the court to an imprisonment of six years in the East-ern penitentiary at hard labor.

NOTE.—The above Diagram illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedier. A one pound can of such powder was taken, the total leavening power of volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedier only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than the ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair minded person of these facts. convince any fair minded person of these facts.

Henry Shubber, Auct. 113-3tdTu&m5&7 PHILADELPHIA, - March 6.—An inquest was held to day on the body of Chang Ah You, the Chinese laundryman, who died on Sunday from mjuries alleged to have been inflicted by roughs in the laundry where he was employed. Several Chinamen testified that Ah You was struck with iron knuckles by Thomas W. Lyons and that John D. Clark and Samuel H. Brough also participated in the attack on Ah You. The three men named are in custody. White witnesses testified to seeing Lyons, Clark and Brough coming from the laundry and the Chinamen following them I Fifth Annual Tour of the PEOPLE'S CHOICE, with clubs and flat irons. The jury found that Ah You died of a fracture of the skull received at the hands of Thomas Lyons, and that the two other prisoners were accessories. The three prisoners were then committed to await the action
