The oldest, best, most renowned and valuble medicine in the world, and in addition it contains all the best and most effective curative properties of all other remedies, being the greatest liver regulator, blood purifier, and life and health restoring agent on earth.

It gives new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To ciergymen, lawyers, literary men, ladies, and all whom sedentary employments cause irregularities of the Blood, Stomach, Bowels, or Kidneys, or who require an ap-petizer, tonic, and mild stimulant, it is invaluable, being highly curative, tonic and stimu lating, without being intoxicating.

No matter what your teelings or symptoms are, or what the disease or ailment is, use Hop Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but it you on'y feel bad or miserable use the bitters at once. It may save your life. Hundreds have been saved by so doing, at a moderate cost. Ask your druggist, or physician. Do not suffer yourself or let your triends suffer, out use and urge them to use Hop Bitters.

If you have lameness in the loins, with frequent pains and aches : numbness of the thigh: canty, painful and frequent discharge of urine, filled with pus, and which will turn red by standing; a voracious appetite and unquenchable thirst; harsh and dry skin; clammy tongue, often derkly furred; swollen and inflammed gums; dropsical swelling of the limbs; frequent attacks of biccough; inability to void the urine and great fatigue in attempting it-you are suffering from some torm of Kidney or Urinary Complaint, such as Bright's Disease of the kidneys, stone or inflammation of the bladder, gravel and renal calculi, diabetes, stranguary strictore and retention of the urine, and Hop Bitters is the only remedy that will permanently cure you. Remember, Hop Bitters is no vile, drugged, drunken nostrum, but the purest and best medicine ever made and no person or family

The "Breeches Bible" edition was printed in 1609. The name comes from the fact that in the third chapter of Genesis, verse seventh, instead of "apron," as in the present version, the word 'breeches' is used. The verse reads: 'Then the eyes of them both were opened and knew that they were naked, and they sewed fig leaves together and made them-

A stylishly dressed woman entered Boston restaurant. The waiter handed her a bill of fare, and said, "Please mark off the dishes you wish to order." Could a woman in a scalskin confess that she could not read? Taking the pencil she made a few dashes and the order read: "Dinner, 50 cents," "Feb. 20, '83," "vegetables," "please pay at the desk," "celeral." The majeral brought has beginned. The waiter brought her beefsteak and onions and prune sauce, and she did not dare to raise a word in protest. Mme. Theo, the French opera bouffe cantatrice, took a benefit recently, que which occasion, in addition to receiving $3,740 in gold, she was presented with a heavy gold bracelet of gold, bearing her name formed of large diamonds; a big ingot of unpolished gold and silver, with Theo" in gold letters in relief; a silver box containing a complete collection of Mexican coins; a massive grown of silver, adorned with thirty ounces of gold; a rich collection of Mexican cloths; a mail box of embossed silver; an ivory fan of exquisite workmarship, bearing her mon-ogram in gold, and, finally, a whole gal-lery of those quaint little statues illustra-tive of Mexican life.

No Shirt on his Back. One sultry Sunday a minister was thundering away at his drowsy congregation, the majority of which would go to sleep in spite of all his efforts. At last he shouted: "Wake up here! There is a man preaching to you who has only half a shirt on his back!" It woke them tremendously. The next day a delegation of ladies visited the parsonage and presented the preacher with a package containing some very nice shirts, saying, "that it was ashamed that he should be reduced to half a shirt to his back." He replied, after accepting the shirts with thanks, that he was not literally reduced to a half shirt, although he wore a half on his back, he wore the other half in front of him."

Annual Reunion of the Hibernian Society The Hibernian society for the relief of emigrants from Ireland, will have its annual dinner on Saturday evening next in Dooner's hotel, Philadelphia, Tenth street, above Chestnut. Among the iuvited guests are President Arthur, Govervited guests are President Arthur, Governor Pattison, Lieut. Governor C. F. Black, Chief Justice Ulysses Mercur, Justices Isaac G. Gordon, Edward M. Paxson, Henry Green, John Trunkey, James P. Sterrett and Silas M. Clark; Mayor King, Congressmen Bingham, O'Neill, Randall, Kelley and Harmer; General Wm. T. Sherman, Major General Hancock, Joel Cook, Commodore Simpson, ex-Goek, Joel Cook, Commodule Simpson, ex-Governor A. G. Curtin, ex Judge Jeremiah S. Black, George D. McCreary and W. U. Hensel. Toasts will be responded to by Col. Aiexander K. McClure, Charles Emory Smith, James Gay Gordon, Gover nor Pattison, Mayor King, W. U. Hensel and others. The Hibernian society was organized on the 22d af March, 1790, and incorporated on April 27th, 1792. Its objects are "to aid and assist poor and oppressed persons emigrating from Ire-Bread-winners land into Pennsylvania." An anonymous novel wil be begun in the Century Magazine sometime during the next volume. It is entitled "The Breadwinners," and is described as a story unusual in scene and subject, and powerful in treatment. The locality is one of the includes a charming love story with tragic undercurrent, in which are de-scribed the doings of a secret society of "Bread-winners." Certain phases and types of American society will he here described for the first time by a literary artist of of real merit. The heroine, by the way, is said by those who have read the manuscript to be a representative American western girl, of a more agreea ble type than the public is generally presented with. Among the most striking passages in the book is a description of a terror in a western city, culminating in a labor riot, in which the "Bread-winners" bear a prominent part.

Fair, of Nevada, says a Washington correspondent, is the richest senator; Harris, of Tennessee, is the poorest; Sherman, of Ohio, is the leanest; David Davis, of Illinois, the fattest; Butler, of South Carolina, the handsomest; McDill, of Iowa, the ngliest; Mahone, of Virginia, the most beterodox, and McMillan, of Minnesots, the most orthodox. Senator I wells of Kanasa is the best debater, and of Minnesots, the most orthodox. Senstor Ingalls, of Kansas, is the best debater, and Don Cameron, of Pennsylvania, the poorest; Van Wyck, of Nebraska, the wittiest, and Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, the dullest; Bayard the most scholarly and Plumb the least so; Morgan, of Alabama, talks the most; and Johnston, of Virginia, the least; Saulsbury, of Delaware, is the tallest, and Sawver, the shortest; Edtallest; Sauisoury, of Delaware, is the tallest, and Sawyer, the shortest; Edmunds is the best lawyer; Davis, of West Virginia, the best business man; Logan the most noted general, and Frye, of Maine, the most eloquent orator. does not signify that the lady has captured a husband and wishes to inform the several hundred housekeepers, in whose kitchens she has reigned during her year's residence in America, that they were not overlooked in sending out invitations to the wedding; it is merely to say to any who desire to engage her that, if they want her, they must come after her. The nego-tiations and the inquiries into the respectability and responsibility of would-be employers, must be carried on at the cook's own house. She does not propose to waste her time tramping over the city at the bidding of postal cards. Possibly, is she were sent for with a coach and four must pay personal calls upon these ladies. In visiting them the chances are that they will gain valuable information about the city, and become acquainted with neighborhoods and features of which they before had no knowledge.

FRIENDS AND PATRONS—This may be the last chance to secure the greatest barmins in fine Heavy-Weight WOOLEMS ever observing this city. Remember, I am going to close them out if possible this season. I have handled this class of goods for over 25 years. I am thoroughly familiar with the merits of all the leading makes of cloth in the market and do say I think the F. & H. and Johanny Livedons are superior in finish, more reliable in color and more durable than any cloths produced in the WORLD. Remember, also, I am the only man in this city that has the NERVE to tackle these fine, high-priced goods. They can only be had in large cities at prices not less than $70 to $75. I am closing mine out at $40 a suit.

I am having a great Boom in Trouserings. I am offering Heavy-Weights from $1.50 to $10 a pair—make a note of this, I have among my line the best English and French patterns, that cannot be had in Philadelphia for less than $15 to $18 a pair.

Thanking the public for the kind patronage extended particularly since my great reduction in prices, I shall endeavor to give entire satisfaction to all my patrons. Being again able to attend to business. I will superintend every department of the trade personally and will guarantee to secure to every one the greatest value for their investment. All my productions are warranted to be of superior CHARACTER AND TONE from any other house in the trade, having in my employ the best skilled workmen from the city. Unless entirely satisfactory to the customer I will not allow it to go out.
