ATURDAY FVENING, MARCH :0,1888,

OUR RIVER. tht blue at noon, our childhood's river, At eve all soft and silver white, a June its rims with blossoms brightor childish prizes and delight; Our home, in shade of sycamores, Looked up and down the emerald shores ; Our barvest meadows, broad and fair, In autumn perfumed all the air; The stream with endless joys seemed rife ; Twas placid where all else was strite; Our hopes, our wealth, lay in its life; From boy to man we loved our river.

udden, a livid sea, our river Came roaring past the sycamore wood ; Crushed like an egg-shell where it stood, Our house swirled down the seething flood Its rafters spinning off like chips, Its windows wide like parted lips ; Our harvest meadows torn and slung Like sands in maelstrom eddies flung ; My brother's hands in terror tossed, In the same second swallowed lost, Where boiling torient swept and crossed-Good God! And we had loved that river!

WIGGINS' WEATHER.

His Cataclysm Postponed for a Day. An Ottawa dispatch indicates that Wiggins is in an unhappy state of mind, and subjected to serious aunoyances from many persons because of the failure of his predicted great storm. According to another dispatch, however, Wiggins postpones his cataclysm until this afternoon and to morrow morning. The mischief that has been done by his vaticinations in sertain quarters is shown by a telegram from Gloucester, Mass., says : "The loss to those dependant on the tisheries by the torm scare will reach $125,000. Over hree million pounds of fish might have been taken this season." A telegram from St. Johns, New Brunswick, says fishing schooners want out yesterday morning, the gale having abated.

The weather in New England yesterday morning was unusually cold for the sea n. the temperature in some places being 30 degrees below zero. A dispatch from Machias, Maine, says this is the coldest March on record in that region. For twelve days the temperature has ranged from zero to 20 below. Yesterday morning it was 14 below. The worst snow and wind storm of the season, is reported along the line of the Northern Pacific d. West of Fargo, freight business is entirely suspended, and passenger trains are moved with difficulty. In Grafton, Dakota, business was suspended during the day.

Owing to a heavy gale the tide of the Clyde is remarkably low. The steamers Devonia, Circassia, Manitoban and several others were at one time aground. The Hull fishing fleet has suffered seriously by the gale. Eighty vessels of the fleet have arrived there in a damaged condition. Twelve of them lost members of their crews. Three vessels foundered, one of them with all hands. Similar accounts have been received from the Yarmouth fishing fleet.

A Call for Missionaries. N. Y. Correspondence Public Ledger.

There is an urgent call for young men as missionaries to China, with complaints that there is a disposition, so far as the s concerned, to overlook that field, on the assumption that Budd hism and Confuciusism, the prevailing re ligions of Eastern Asia, contain so much that is good and so much that is identified with Christianity that it were as well not to disturb them at present on the principle that it is the part of wisdom to " let well enough alone." This, at least, is the sub stance of a complaint in this week's Churchman from Rev. Dr. Schereschew sky, missionary bishop of Shahghai, who is just now stopping at Geneva, Switzerland, with a view of recruiting impaired health. He says : " For more than twenty years I have been a student of Buddhism I have talked with hundreds of Buddhist priests and monks, Chinese, Mongolian and Thibetau; I have visited many Buddhist temples, and have even lived in such therefore, I feel competent to state that a more gigantic system of fraud, superstition and idolatry than Buddhism, as it is now, has seldom been inflicted by any false religion upon mankind." The bishop concludes with an earnest appeal to the church to substantiate her apostolic claim by stimulating her missionary energies to supplant paganism with the gospel of Christ, adding: "All I ask of any cler gyman called of God to offer himself for work is, that he shall conform to the rub rics and to the prayer book standard."

A Terrible Accident.

Capt. Mayet, a celebrated Spanish aero naut, was recently killed by falling from a balloon in Madrid. He made an ascen sion accompanied by another person Suddenly the balloon descended rapidly His companion was at the time in the baket, while he was doing monkey business on a trapeze swinging beneath. The person in the basket had not sufficient presence of mind to throw out some ballasts, and before Mayet could climb up to do so he was violently dashed against the roof of a house. The trapeze was torn loose by the blow, and he plunged head long into the street, striking upon a third story balcony in his descent, bounding from it to another lower down, and landing on the sidewalk. He was horribly mutilated, but lived for severa! hours, without, however, regaining his conscious-

KESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the sum-mer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital. White there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expend-ed over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a br ttle to satisfy them, when to my surprises d gratification, I commenced to feel better My hope, once dead, began to revive, and to day I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years. "I write this hoping you will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM, HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convince that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sick-ness. My cough has almost entirely disap-peared and I shall soon be able to go to work.' Sold by H. R. Cochran, 187 Forth Queen street

DARKER'S GINGER TONIO. EVERY MAN HIS OWN BOSS.

How to Promote Personal Power—A New Radical Reformer. "There is no provision in the Divine econ-"There is no provision in the Divine economy for political bosses!"
With a bang of his fist, and in the voice of a man who had made up his mind on the subject, Rev. James Chambers, of Calvary Presbyterian church, Harlam, recently opened his sermon with this announcement. He was right. The only boss authorized by the Book is mentioned in these words: "He who ruleth his own spirit is greater than he who taketh a city."
