IN WAKEHOUSE AND THE FIELD. New York and Havana Market-The Lancaster Trade-Bosent Sales in This

Vicinity-The Crop Moving

Rapidly. U. S. Tobacco Journal. It is a settled point now that before May 1st no great improvement in business can take place. The time which must elapse before rebate claims can be cashed forces cigar jobbers to reduce their already small stocks to the smallest possible size, and consequently cigar manufacturers are once more experiencing a disagreeable idleness. Such a stoppage of operations is a loss which can never be retrieved; and no matter how brisk business may be after May 1, in the cigar manufacturing line, the empty past cannot be filled.

A great stock of leaf is now in the market, another crop is advancing toward a marketable condition, and with the only partly successful attempt to check the im-portation of Sumatra, the outlook for the ealization of good prices is anything but problematic.

obacco cheap enough. They may argue 21 acres to same for 181, 6. that if they can offer fine running lots at 15, 16, 17 or 18 cents there will be plenty of buyers-because a year or two ago 20, of buyers—because a year or two ago 20, 22 and 25 cents were paid. Five or six years of prices like the last named have accustomed the ear to them, and there. coustomed the ear to them, and therefore reductions such as referred to appear, at first, immense. It is all a delusion. The situations demand the payment of extremely low prices for new tobacco. We must clear our markets of their surplus by fore reductions such as referred to appear, must clear our markets of their surplus by exporting it and by undermining Sumatra. Both can only be effected by carrying out the above suggestion. The sales of the week were as follows Pennsylvania—Crop '80: 250 cases fillers, 7 cents; running, 10 to 14 cents. Ohio-Crop '80: 300 cases, at 5, 6, 61 and 63 cents

Connecticut-Crop 81: 200 cases wrappers, at 16 to 35 cents. Wisconsin-Crop '81: 100 cases Havana eed, at 15 to 18 cents. New York-Crop '81: 100 cases Havana seed, at 22 cents.

Sumatra-Market active. Sales 300 bales at $1 to $1.50. Havana-Market fair. Fine goods have become such a scarcity that for the little to be found figures as high as $1.35 are nt, so that the outlook for prime cigars never was better.

Sumatra continues to find willing buyers in moderate quantities. Receipts for the week-371 cases Connecticut, 364 cases Pennsylvania, 23 cases Ohio, 49 cases Wisconsin, 81 cases York state seed, 116 bales Havana, 17 bales Sumatra, and 396 hhds Virginia and Western leaf tobacco.

Sales have been—210 cases Connecticut, 196 cases Pennsylvania, 19 cases Ohio, 44 cases Wisconsin, 63 cases York state seed, 81 bales Havana, 14 bales Sumatra, 64 hhds Virginia and Western leaf in transit direct to manufacturers, Exported of leaf tobacco-to Liverpool, per str British Prince, 49,210 lbs; to West Indies, 3,327 lbs. Total, 53,537 lbs. Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J S. Gans' Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No. 131 Water street, New York, for the week ending March 19, 1883:

100 cases 1881 New England, 16@35c;

THE LOCAL MARKET.

A Fair Proportion of the Crop of '83 Soid. A few hundred cases of old tobacco were sold during the past week and we hear of several large sales under negotiation but not yet consummated. Although the demand for old tobacco has not been very active, holders seem in no hurry to sell, evidently expecting an advance in the market. Of the new crop it is estimated that 25,000 cases have been taken in Lancaster, York and Chester counties, and that about 22,000 cases remain unsold. It is too early as yet to state with certainty how the new crop will pan out. While there is some wonderfully fine leaf in it the crop, as a whole, is not regarded as first class. The prices paid for the better grades are not so high as those paid last year, but some heavy buyers are inclined to believe that they are still paying too dear for their whistle, while the others are sure of it.

Inquiries as to the probable acreage of the crop of 1883 have brought answers from various quarters that it will be less than 1882; that some planters will go out of the business altogether, and that others will reduce the area. But then, on the other hand, there are always new adventurers to take the places of those that

Some Recent Sales. From a long list of sales sent to us from different parts of the county we print the following representatives transactions as indicating the general tendency of the market in the various sections whence these reports come : Lititz : The tobacco market has been quite lively in the northern end the past two weeks and two-thirds of the crop has now been disposed of at prices ranging from 12 to 20c. for wrappers, 4 to 8c. for seconds, and 2 to 4c. for fillers. The pur-chasers were Lederman & Co., McLaughlin, Arndt & Fringent, and M. H. Shindle, of Mountville, besides our local packers, viz: Stauffer & Reist, Fry & Co., and

ON THE ROAD. A Reporter as Assistant Tobacco Buyer.

After a hearty breakfast at D-(and we had little to complain of as to boarding in Lancaster county; good grub and good beds were the rule), we proceeded to fulfil the promises of John to the grow-ers the night before. Of the whole some three were visited; John finding more flea than was healthy, "we lit out," leaving the rest cursing tobacco buyers for the biggest liars in the world.

near any hotel, no dinner until three when we arrive at W-, took a square meal, walk out, find some good tobacco and tell grow-ers to come to the hotel in the evening. After supper we are again entertained by ninety and nine proud, but rather sick growers. We are asked often to drink; John gets excited, buys several crops he has seen, and again promises to meet then all to-morrow, much to my amusement and of which I take an account, and next day he visits one-tenth of them, much to our surprise, which is nearer telling the truth than at any other time during the week. Going away the next morning we visit a grower, who insisted on an offer so strongly that John finally says he will be back in a short time, though he confesses no such intention soon after leaving.
