

AN OLD STORY. The Pope is leading a happy life. He has no care, no wedded wife, no children to cheer his hope, I think I would not be the Pope.

Home at Last. The remains of John Howard Payne, author of "Home, Sweet Home," are expected to reach New York to-morrow on the steamer Bergundia, and will be met by two representatives of Mr. Cochrane, and conveyed to Washington on a special car furnished by the Pennsylvania railroad company.

Warring Milkmen. A contest between the producers and dealers in milk in New York, originating in the demand of the producers for higher prices, has assumed large proportions. On the Erie railway milk route last night thirty-one cans of milk were spilled, and as many more taken back by the farmers.

BEAUFORT'S SKIN CURE.

Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives.

To improve this appearance great risks are taken: arsenic, mercury, or high-priced tried, named articles containing these death-dealing drugs are taken in hopes of getting rid of all these troubles. In many cases, death is the result. No alleviation of the burning, itching, and inflammation of the skin is obtained.

Beaufort's Skin Cure. It makes the skin white and smooth, removes tan and freckles, and is the best toilet dressing in the world. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package, consisting of both internal and external treatment.
