Events Along the Susquehanna—Items Interest In and Around the Borough Ficked up by the Intelliancer's Reporter

It is expected that the Pennsylvania canal will be filled with water by tomorrow morning. The upper levels are all full and the one at this end of the canal is now being rapidly filled. Navigation will be opened April 1st, without a doubt.

Mr. William Beck has purchased Gurfin's island, below the dam, for $600. The island has connected with it good shad fishing grounds, which will be operated during the approaching season by their new owner.

Yesterday the first raft of the season passed through here. The men compos-ing the crew looked cold and weary. Literary and Social.

To night the Norwood literary society Oberlin, on the Chestnut Hill turnpike. As part of the interesting programme for the evening, Mr. Frederick Bucher will continue his description of his travels in Europe. Those who leard him at the last meeting of the society will be pleased to hear him again. If there are any Colof this literary society.

Borough Briefs. At St. Paul's P. E. church, to-morrow, Good Friday, services will be held as follows: Morning and sermon at 10;30 a. m evening sermon at 7:30 p. m. Three drunks were sent down this morning by 'Squire Young and two by Saurr Greer. There is a great deal of sickness in town, but none of a contagious character.

Stale Eggs. Forty-seven years is a long time to keep Easter eggs, yet Mr. Henry Sample has two which were colored by his grand father in 1836. The coloring has remained as bright during all these years as though it was only recently put on.

Mome From School Messrs, Harry Bruner and Charles Hal deman have returned from school for the Easter holidays, the former from Hacketts town, N. J., and the latter from the military academy at Sing Sing, N. Y. Both are looking well.

Silm Excursion

But few persons took advantage of the do not like the early hour usually selected | worst cold or cough. for the departure of the train.

Mart Hanley, the well known manager, has a strong company on the road, which has been out all season playing Harrigan & Hart's "Squatter Sovereignty." telegraphs from Pope's theatre, St. Louis, to Mr. Yecker to hold for him the date of April 20

Catherine Lewis, who was to have been here on Monday, has cancelled that date, and will come two weeks later.

John D. Mishler took Bartholomew' horse show to the Windsor theatre, Boston, some time ago, with the intention of remaining two weeks. On Monday 100th performance was given and each spectator was presented with a miniature metal statue of the horse "Sprite." Mr. Yecker, of the opera house, received one of the souvenirs.

The Big Heg.

The big hog, lately exhibited in several places in this county and raffled off several times, was killed at the Cross Keys hotel to day. The slaughter attracted quite a crowd of curious spectators, and a great many bets were made on the weight of the hog. "Guess boxes" were put up and there were considerable sums of money deposited in them to be awarded to the person who may most nearly guess the weight of the hog after it shall be dressed. The butchering was done under the management of the veterau Peter Lutz.

This afternoon the hog was placed on the scales and it weighed 1,092 pounds dressed, but some parties claim that it was not dressed as closely as it should have

There were about a hendred ten cen guesses in the box, and the contents, about ten dollars were paid to John Shenk, who guessed 1,090 pounds; the porker dressed 1,092.

Denies the Charge.

John Laux, the tramp who was arrested for assaulting the woman near Manheim, is a big burly fellow about 38 years of age He says that he is not guilty of the charge against him, as he did not see the woman or children on that day. On Monday night he says that he slept in a barn three miles from the place of the alleged assault, and on the next morning fell in with a party of tramps, who had built a fire along the railroad. He remained with them until noon and then went for dinner at a farm house. Soon afterwards he was arrested.

Harness Stolen.

Night before last the carriage house of R. S. McIlvain, of Paradise, was broken into and a set of carriage harness stolen. It may be noted as a coincidence that about two years ago the same set of harness was stolen, and brought by the thief to this city and offered for sale. He was arrested, tried, convicted, served a term of imprisonment, and then died. The other thief may take warning.

Neighborhood Fatalities. Charles Gross, a son of Mr. E. S. Gross residing about nine miles from York, has died from injuries received by the bursting of his gun on Saturday. George Miller, a four year old Reading child, was fatally burned yesterday. The child lighted a stick of wood at the stove and set fire to its clothing, Purchase of an Engine Mouse by the City. The fire committee of councils met the trustees of the Washington fire company last evening, when it was agreed that the committee should purchase the engine and house of the company for $5,500, pay able April 1st, 1884, the committee giving a bond with five per cent. interest. Held for Postage,

Attempt to Extert Money. Jacob Fisher, of Elizabethtown, had a hearing before Alderman Spurrier at noon to-day to answer a complaint of attempt ing to unlawfully extort money from Levi Myers, of Mountville. The particulars of the case have been published Myers bought a safe at sheriff's sale which had belonged to the Fidelity life insurance company. Defendant was an employee of the company, and after the sale of the safe he locked it and changed the combination, and refused to unlock unless the purchaser gave him $25, which was re fused. The alderman returned the case to court and held the defendant to bail in the

RESCUED FROM DEATH. The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says : "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital, While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR, WM, HALL'S BAISAM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughe at my friends, thinking my case incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surrise a d gratification, I commenced to feel better My hone, once dead, began to revive, and to tay I feel in better spirits than I have the past three years. "I write this hoping you" will publish it, so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done me more good than all the other medicines I have taken since my sickness. HARRISBURG NEWS. House Bills in the Senate.

Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER. HARRISBURG, Pa., March 22.-In the Senate this morning the House bill exempting building and loan associations from taxation, and Greer's anti treat bill were favorably reported. Similar action was taken on the House bills providing additional means of safety in cases of fire and allow ing two hundred dollars to each military company for armory rent A bill was introduced authorizing district attorneys to employ assistant counsel in crimi nal cases. Coxe's concurrent resolution authorizing the governor to appoint a commission of six persons, three from each political party, to inaugurate a better system of book keeping in the auditor general's department was adopted atter an unsuccessful effort by Mr. Cooper to give the appointing power to the speakers of both Houses. The resolution asks for an appropriation of $2,500. A resolution was adopted to adjourn at 5 p. m. to morrow, being Good Friday, until Monday evening to read bills the first time : an amendment was offered to include bills on second reading. Cooper strenuously opposed the amendment to prevent the consideration of the Philadelphia recorder bill and the pipe bill the amendment was adopted after a futile effort to make the consideration of the recorder bill the special order on Wednesday morning. The Senate proceeded to consider the bill to reduce the number of copies of public documents about one-half; the Senate made still further reductions. House Proceedings.

NOT A MERRY WAR.

The Difficulty Between New York Milk Dealers and Producers Not Settled. NEW YORK, March 22.- Excepting that the shortage of milk in this city is even greater to-day than yesterday, aspect of the battle between milk dealers and producers remains unchauged. The dealers who are unconnected with the milk exchange are hourly growing more restive as they see their business brought to a stand still and their future prospects jeopardized, and it is certain unless a settlement is at once effected they will take the matter out of the hands of the exchange. The proposition on the part of the exchange to pay 34 cents per quart for the latter halt of the month of March, which was rejected by the representatives of the producers yesterday, will be submitted to the meeting of farmers to be held at Goshen this after-
