was her engagement ring, given to her by her husband, and that she herself had given it to Haverstick. "If they do not give it back," she cried, they may take everything. I want the ring! I want the ring!"

Mrs. Uhler remained in the flat an hour and a half. In the afternoon she went to late the bowels, and give rest to the mother the tombs to see her brother. Warden and relief and health to the child, operating Finn declined to admit her without a permit from District Attorney McKeon, as she is a witness in the case. The district attorney's office was closed and she was compelled to give up her visit to Conk-Then she went to the office of her tain property entrusted to Dr. R W. Amidon, her physician, on the night of the shooting. She wrote this letter: SIR: I now demand that you forthwith liver to bearer the sum of five hundred and fifty dollars, a box and contents delivered by me to you for safekeeping on the night of March 19, 1883. No further demand will be made on you, and unless you comply with this I shall apply to the meel to take measures to reclaim cer-

parts for your arrest. She said she was in doubt about going home with her brother, not knowing whether she would be kindly received or ot. Conkling received a telegram from no saying that public sentiment there is all in his favor and that a hearty reception awaits him. On his behalf Mr. Howe applied to Judge Donohue for writs of habeas corpus and certiorari, which are returnable to-morrow morning and en which Conkling's release on bail is sought.

From Frank Leslie's Illustrated Rewspepe A LADY SAID

"Those Horrid Pimples! No, I Cannot Go

Please Present My Excuses." Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skir diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives. Then she would have instead of a disfigure and marred countenance, one that would be handsome, or at least good-looking, for any one with a clear, pure skin, no matter what the cut of her features are, has a certain amount of good looks which attract everybody. As it is now, she imagines every one sees and talks about "those freekles," "those horrid pimples," and other biemishes with which she is afflicted, and this is true of either

To improve this appearance great risks are taken ; arsenic, mercusy, or high-sound titled named articles containing these death-dealing drugs, are taken in hopes of getting rid of all these troubles. In many cases, death is the result. No alleviation of the burning, neating, itching and inflammation is given. All troubled with Eczema (salt rheum) Tetters, Humors, Inflammation, Rough Scaly Eruptions of any kind, Diseases of the Hair and Scalp, Scrofula, Ulcers, Pimples or Tender Itchings on any part of the body, should know that there is hope for them in a sure, perfect and elegant remedy, known as "Dr. C. W. Benson's Skin Cure." It makes the skin white soft and smooth, removes tan and freckles and is the best toilet dressing in the world. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package, consisting of both internal and external treatment. Our readers should be sure to get this and not some old remedy resuscitated on the success of Dr. Benson's and now advertised as "The Great Skin Cure." There is only one,-it bears the Doctor's picture and is for sale by all druggists. $1 per package.

A Sensation HAS OFTEN BEEN MADE by the discovery of some new thing, but noth ing has ever stood the test like Dr. C. W. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills.
