gencer's Reporter. The Easter services at the various churches yesterday were well attended. Exercises were also held at several of the Sunday schools, those of St. Paul's P. E. and St. John's Lutheran being especially interesting. Rev. Samuel Yingling, pastor of the latter church yesterday presented his church with an exquisitely embroider-ed silk-velvet altar cloth. Both of the above named churches were profusely and beautifully decorated with flowers for the great day of the Christian church. The tota amount of the Easter collections at Trinity Reformed church and Sunday school yesterday was $49.62.

Interesting sermons were preached by the Rev. R. W. Humphriss at the M. E. church. That of the morning was an Easter sermon, but the evening's was one appropriate to the first Sabbath of the new conference year of the church. On Thuis. day evening, at this church, a love feast will be held. On Friday evening will take place the quarterly conference, which will be attended by the presiding elder, Rev. J. S. J. McConnell.

On Saturday evening while Miss Ella Arms was crossing the railroad track at Snyder's corner in front of au approaching train, she fell and was almost struck by the engins before she regained her feet and escaped from the track.

Funeral services of Sarah, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. Henry Klinestever, who died yesterday, will be held to morrow at 10 a m., in the German Lutheran church, on Locust street.

W. F. Kessler, a former Columbia public school teacher, but late master of a school near Bainbridge, is seriously ill. A pleasant evening sociable was held at Wm. Clark's residence on Locust street, Saturday evening, by his daughter, Miss

The warm weather has again broug t out in force the nuisance, the corner loafer. Chief Burgess Sneath will earn the favor of a grateful public by immediately enforcing the borough ordinance against it. The property of the late Mrs. Rebecca Eddy, situated at 217 South Second street was bought at public sale, on Saturday night, by Michael Shuman, for $1,060. Mr. Bert Thomas, formerly of Colerain, late of Deer Lake, Mich., who has been in town a few days, left to-day for Florida to engage in saw mill business. Mr. J. A. Meyers and wife returned home to-day from a brief visit to Bethle-Mr. L W. Richards, of Thurlow, Pa., spent Sunday in town with his parents.

The fair weather will now admit of the wretched North Front street pavements being repaired. Several Columbia gentlemen to attend Red Men's ball in Reading to-night.

OBITUARY.

Death of a Good Woman. Mrs. David Houston, whose death at Houston, near the Gap, is recorded to day, was the mother of R. J. Houston, and other wall known sons. She was a native of Ireland, and through a long life of Christian usefulness was the faithful helpmeet of her husband. In connection with the account of their golden wedding colebration published in the INTELLIGEN-CER, some years ago, appeared a sketch of her life, and the news of her death, even full of years as she was, will be heard with grief by a wide circle of friends.

Death of a fromment Man. David E. Small, of Billmyer & Small, died in York, yesterday. He was 50 years old and a man of prominence. He was worth between seven and eight hundred thousand dollars; a leading business man, and a devout member of the Presbyterian

SERGEANT MASON'S COUNSEL'S ACTION He Will Bring Suit Against Him, His Family and Bankers-Honors to the Dead

Postmuster General. WASHINGTON, March 26.-Jonathan G. Bigelow, counsel for Sergeant Mason during his trial for shooting at Guiteau, to day filed suit against Mason, his wife Bettie, and Riggs & Co., bankers, for $3,500, counsel fees. He alleges that there is now $7,000 in Riggs & Co.'s bank to the credit of Mrs. Mason, the proceeds of the "Bettie and the Baby" fund, which he says he was instrumental in collecting. He declares that he expects soon to secure Mason's release.

The Death of Postmaster Howe. Walnut Leaf Hair Sestorer. It is entirely different from all others. It . as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer—it will immediately free the head from all dandruff, immediately free the head from all dandruft, restore gray hair to its natural color and produce a new growth where it has fallen of. It does not in any manner effect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of Leui and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or fasted hair in a few days to a beamout glossy stown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. SMITH, KLINE & CC., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and HALL & RUCKEL, New York. [une lyd.eod&w]
