DESERTING THE LILY. Miss Alice Langtry and an Escort Take French Leave of the Actress.

In the latest news from the Langtry combination the central figure is not Mrs. Langtry, but Miss Agnes Langtry, the chaperone and sister-in law of the actress, who was called to this country by the Lily to be her traveling companion after Mrs. Labouchere's departure. Miss Agnes is said to be the sister of Mr. Langtry, and has hitherto enjoyed the intimate friend ship of the wife. She is more than a few years Her senior, is moderately good look. ing and is very sedate and dignified in her manner. Since joining the company, several months ago, she has been an almost constant associate of Mrs. Langtry and Mr. Gebhard in their walks and drives.

The Times has a despatch from Roches ter, saying that on Sunday, March 18, the company were on their way into Canada and stopped at Niagara Falls for the day. With the party was a young man from Torocto, who had been introduced to Miss Agnes a few days before, and whose attentions to her, it is said, were almost as marked as were those of Mr. Gebhard to the actress. The company met at the depot at the appointed time to make their departure, but Miss Agnes and her friend were missing. No explanation could be given of her absence, and when last seen she was on the Canadian side, in company with the Toronto admirer, riding from the Suspension bridge towards the Clifton House. As they were not on hand when the train was ready to start the company went without them. Telegrams were sent back to her, but no information was obtained until several days later, when a message came to the city simply request ing that Miss Agnes' trunk be sent to her at once to Toronto. This was too much for Mrs. Langtry. She positively refused to send the trunk and she still retains it. Mrs. Langtry is very angry at her sisterin-law's conduct, and is shocked that her own decorum did not inspire within her a deeper sense of propriety. Meanwhile, it is a serious question how a woman can stay away two whole weeks without her baggage. She sent several telegrams later demanding her things, but they have not received attention.

Visiting the Theatre to See Salvini, and Pittsburgh to See a Minister. Miss Katharine A. Hartness, one of the society belles of Cleveland, eloped Friday evening with Charles H. Patten, a rich banker. Miss Hartness belongs to one of the best families in Cleveland, and is a handsome young heiress. Patten has sought her society for some time, and it was rumored lately that they were engaged to be married. The parents of Miss Hartness, however, objected to their marriage. Friday evening the young couple went to the opera house where Salvini presented "Othello." They occu pied front seats and were whispering together all the evening. When the play reached that part where the dusky Moor kills Desdemona the couple left the theatre. They went to the Union depot and took the train for Pittsburgh. Arriving there they went to a hotel and soon after were married by the Rev. Dr Scoville. A telegram was received by the lady's parents stating that the marriage had taken place, and that the couple would return after a two weeks' wedding tour. The affair is creating considerable talk in society, owing to the social prominence of both parties.

The Prophet Honored in His Own Country Even to His Own House.

The honest, simple narrative of Mrs. S. J. Whipp, who resides at No. 177 Williams street, Providence, R. I.:

"During the past six or seven years I have been severely afflicted with Kidney disease, causing intense backaches, dizziness, and other severe pains through my body and limbs, rendering me so weak and prostrate that at times It was impossible for me to do any part of my housework. I have had also a fluttering of the heart, and was terribly distressed for breath. I was very miserable and completely worn cut and discouarged : I had no ambition to undertake to do anything and barely sufficient strength to render existence desirable, having failed to find any relief from the doctor's prescriptions. At this trying crisis a friend persuaded me to obtain a bottle of Hunt's Remedy, and now I rejoice that I followed this friendly advice. for the Remedy acted like a charm in my case. After I had taken a few doses, my health began to improve ; I felt better every way. The fluttering of the heart, the intense backaches and terrible shortness of the breath speedily disappeared, my strength and ambition soen returned, and before I had taken two bottles of the Remedy I was entirely well and was able to wash and iron and do my housework. Once in while I am troubled with the headache, and as soon as I am taken I resort to Hunt's Remedy, and a few doses fix me att right. Ishall never be without it in the tuture. I have frequently recommended the Hunt's Remedy to my friends, and they have experienced relief from the first dose. I heartily recommend it to all who who are afflicted with Kidney disease or diseases of the Liver, Bladder, or Urinary organs. I think no tam ily should be without it.

DENSON'S SKIN CURE.

From Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper

A LADY SAID Those Horrid Pimples! No, I Cannot Go.

Please Present My Excuses."

Probably two-thirds of the ladies in society and homes of our land are afflicted with skin diseases of various kinds, to do away with which, if it could be done without injury, would be the happiest event of their lives Then she would have instead of a disfigured and marred countenance, one that would be handsome, or at least good-looking, for any one with a clear, pure skin, no matter what the cut of her features are, has a certain amount of good looks which attract everybody. As it is now, she imagines every one
