THE KEYNOTE

of the Spring Clothing trade is the Light Overcoat Stock. We do not flat on it, the lines are full and bright and right; nor sharp on it, the prices are fair and low. We are just natural, having precisely what we ought to have in quality, quantity, variety, style and price. If any man thinks Oak Hall is behind the age, let him look at this Light Overcoat Stock. If there is doubt about the magnitude of our general stock and low prices, a personal inspection will remove it.

SECOND EDITION.

MONDAY EVENING, APRIL 9, 1883.

IRISH TROUBLES.

NEWS FROM EUROPE BY CABLE. Michael Davitt Characterizes the Dynamite Policy as Insane and Idiotic. The Phoenix Park Murders Reminded. The Phoenix Park Murders have been removed to the Kilmalham jail to the court house under heavy guard. A rescue is apprehended. Many suspicious persons resembling Americans are being watched by the police.

The Trial Begun. DUBLIN, April 9.—The court-house, where the trial of the Phoenix park assassins is to take place, was besieged this morning by crowds of persons eager to gain admission. Only the jurors and reporters, however, were admitted. The prisoners—Brady, Kelley, Delaney, Caffery, Carley, and Fitzharris—were brought to the court house, escorted by a whole troop of dragoons. The grand jury was sworn in and were addressed by Judge O'Brien. He stated that the crown would allege that Lord Frederick Cavendish's murder was the result of a conspiracy, but that no part of the crime was committed by the defendants in his presence in the park with Mr. Burke, nevertheless all present at the time of the murders were responsible. The grand jury then retired.

A True Bill Found Against Brady. The grand jury soon returned to the court room with a true bill against Joe Brady, charging him with the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke. Brady was arraigned at the bar and pleaded not guilty. His trial was set down for to-morrow.

A Murderer Executed. BERLIN, April 9.—A convict, who had been sentenced to death for the murder of a woman, was executed this morning. The execution was witnessed by a large number of persons.

SHERIFF KEIM'S PREDICAMENT. He is Ordered to Show Cause Why He Should Not Be Released. PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—Judge Ludlow today directed an order to be served upon Sheriff Keim, returnable on Saturday next, directing that officer to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court in failing to summon jurors for the trial of cases in the court of common pleas No. 3. The discovery was made at the sheriff's office late on Saturday and the matter had been overlooked and notices included in the list, many of them, however, not receiving their summons until late on Saturday night. Upon the opening of the court this morning a number of the jurors requested and were granted a discharge for ten days on account of not having received their summons provided by law. The panel was finally left with thirty-nine jurors to transact the business for the next two weeks in the two rooms of the court.

An Old Indian Woman Starved. ST. LOUIS, April 9.—An old Indian woman, over 80 years of age, known as the Widow Jim, living a lonely life near Onaga, Kansas, was found dead in her cabin after several days' absence. Money was the object of the murder, the old woman being known to have several hundred dollars.

Catastrophe at the Fall of a Building. ELMIRA, N. Y., April 9.—Henry Moeck, a laborer, was killed by the falling of the walls of a three-story building, built by a week ago. Alderman P. J. Leo, the owner of the property, was badly hurt about the head, and six other workmen were slightly injured. They were removing uninjured goods from the cellar.

Secretary Foster at the Post. WASHINGTON, April 9.—Secretary Foster was at the treasury department to-day for the first time in about two months. His left eye is still somewhat inflamed and is protected by a bandage. Otherwise he is in pretty good health.

A Jealous Man Commits Murder. SPOCK CITY, April 9.—George A. Edmunds, of Conoverville, shot and killed a man named Hose whom he found in his house at night. Jealousy was the cause.

Weather Indications. WASHINGTON, April 9.—For the Middle Atlantic states, warmer, southeast to southwest winds, fair weather and lower barometer.

A Strange and Startling Dream! Is There a Spirit World? A remarkable dream or premonitory vision recently occurred at Conoverville, Ky. Mr. V. E. Storer, a gentleman well known and highly respected in the community, was awakened in the night, feeling unwell and nervous. He was restless in his sleep, but could not get wide awake and in full control of his senses. A vision appeared in his dream showing a large flaming number commanding him to obtain it from the lottery and then to travel in lotteries or uphold them, yet try as he would he could not shake the vision or forget the numbers which seemed to be burned in his brain. Finally he called at the office of the Commonwealth distribution Co., and paying $1, asked for a ticket with the number of his dream on it. Fortunately the number was unsold and his ticket given him. The drawing was soon to come off and so nervous and excited had he become that, although against his principles, he was constrained to sell and he was so strongly drawn to the wheel and the handsome prize of $5,000 was his. Was this simply a coincidence? Who can tell? Next drawing, the Commonwealth Lottery, the number of his dream, amounting to $112,600. Whole tickets, only $2. Address R. M. Boardman, Louisville, Ky. 1014W
