Patrick Gaican was committed by Squire Grier to the county jail, this morning, for 30 days, charged on complaint of F. E. Kraus, proprietor of the Roundhouse hotel, with throwing stones at and breaking several large windows of his saloon.

Tow Hill is ahead of the rest of the town in one respect at least; it has a boxing school. Every Tuesday and Friday lessons are given by Leo Anderson. Set-ups are a natural consequence of such meetings, some of which are said to be particularly lively and interesting.

Several freight cars were thrown from the track of the Reading & Columbia railroad at Cordelia, yesterday. The accident occurred while the cars were being shifted to a siding from the main track.

A slight fire occurred at Stoner's reel works yesterday. The flames were communicated to the building from a large pan filled with burning wood, which is used for the purpose of heating and tempering iron. The employees of the works extinguished the fire with but little difficulty.

Repairs should at once be made to the pavements on West Front street. Attention has several times been called to their bad condition. A Wrightsville man has just received $200 or $300 damages from that borough for injuries caused by the pavement, which required repaving. Columbia does not want any such bills presented.

Wm. B. Given, ex-convict, has returned from his trip to Mansfield, Ohio. The "Tramp's Daughter" did not draw large houses to the Monday and Tuesday evening's performance.

Another handsome freight engine, the "Susquehanna," was recently ordered in the Reading shops of the P. & R. railroad company, for use on the Reading & Columbia railroad.

The freight depot to be occupied by the new freight depot of the R. & C. railroad was staked out yesterday by Mr. W. H. Bauer, who had charge of the work, left town this morning with his engineer corps.

The school board will hold its regular monthly meeting on next Thursday evening. The evening session (Friday) will be devoted to the building of the new city school, which will have a considerable amount of important business to which their attention must be given.

Benjamin Lewin has commenced a suit in slander against Jacob L. Hoffman, claiming $5,000 damages to his character and $3,000 damages to his business as a merchant, by reason of a report circulated by Hoffman that Lewin had solicited Hoffman's wife to commit adultery.

James Reilly, Peter Robinson and Wm. Leinbach, were arrested for disorderly conduct and who were arrested in their possession certain clothing belonging to the almshouse, supposed to be stolen, were heard before Alderman Barr this afternoon. The charges of larceny against Robinson was held under advisement, and like charge against the others was dismissed.

John S. Brant, of Mastersville, who was arrested for felonious assault on Addison Eddy, of Elizabethtown, and committed by Squire Becker to the county jail, had a hearing to-day before Judge Patterson on habeas corpus and was discharged on bail.

James Cosgrove, residing on Plum street, and employed at the Penn iron works, had his back terribly scalded this morning by the bursting of a steam pipe near which he was working. He was taken to his home.

specialties, who give a concert in Fulton Hall on Saturday evening, have entered with for June, July and August at Atlantic City.

The Nobles.—Milton and Dollie Nobles, who have heretofore appeared in Lancaster, will be in Fulton opera house Thursday and Friday evenings; on the first will be played "Latter Days" and on the second, "The Phoenix." These popular and able artists proved themselves of high excellence and have won much commendation from the public. The plays to be given are of the best order of the presentation of "Latter Days," which has not yet been given in Lancaster, the public estimation highly endorses them as special attractions.

At a certain time the longer a speech, the weaker it is, but not so with a cold, the longer it runs, the worse it becomes. A cold, be it ever so slight, is no trifle, it should be checked in its early stages. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup or the "Balm of Gilead," that millions say is divine in its origin.

SKIN IN THE WORKS.—To do good work the mechanic must have good health. It is long hours of confinement in close rooms have encumbered his hand or dimmed his sight, led him at once and before some organic trouble supervenes, take plenty of Hot Bitters. His system will be rejuvenated, his nerve strength, his sight become clear, and the whole constitution be built up to a higher working condition.

First a cold, then bronchitis. Check the cold with Dr. Hone's Hot Bitters and Tan's Pike's Toothache Drops cure in one minute.

Dyspeptic, nervous people, "out of sorts," Colic's Liquid Beef Tonic will cure. Ask for Colic's. Of druggists. 40-1-wed&w.
