ALTHOUGH THE STEPS ARE HIGH AND THE FALL WAS A VERY HEAVY ONE.

The horse of Dr. Bockius and Frank Shilow ran away yesterday; the former on Locust street and the latter on Fourth street. Both were captured with but little difficulty.

Improvements. The new dwellings on West Third street are now being fenced in. Pavements are also being laid in front of them. These are pretty homes and it would be well for the town if more like them could be built.

The residences of Mr. Adam Neisling, on Locust street, is being repainted. Wm. Hartman has the contract for doing the work. The latter has just commenced business for himself.

Personal and Social. A festival will be held in the armory on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 20th and 21st. The public are invited to attend and partake of refreshments.

Miss Josie Hoyer, of Harrisburg, is visiting Mr. Henry Hippey, on Fourth street.

Mr. and H. F. Bruner are visiting Philadelphia.

Tom Thumbo's Show. Large audiences were present at the performances given by Tom Thumbo and company yesterday in the opera house.

Much dissatisfaction was created by a larger price being charged for tickets than had been announced. Such a proceeding will not benefit an organization of any kind.

Educational, Literary and Religious. Messrs. J. W. Steacy, C. S. Kuffman and C. H. Platter were elected trustees of the Presbyterian church at the congregational meeting which was held last evening.

The report of the financial condition of the church was read, which showed it to be flourishing circumstances.

The "Organ" met to-night at Dr. J. K. Linneweaver's, on Walnut street. A full attendance is requested, as this will be the last night of practice for the Shoch library entertainment.

The senior class of the Columbia high school contemplates attending the commencement exercises of the Marietta high school in Central Hall this evening.

The Borough Budget. A fight began at a place on Front street last evening, and with intermissions, was continued until almost morning.

The Columbia school board will meet this evening. No particular business was transacted.

Orion Lodge No. 867, L. O. O. F., met last evening. No particular business was transacted.

Defrauding the revenue. Martin H. Fry, cigar manufacturer, of Reading, Pa., was arrested on a charge of defrauding the U. S. revenue by selling cigars without stamps, filling boxes that had been previously used, and making false returns to the revenue officers.

He gave bail this morning in the sum of $1,000, for a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Slaymaker on Wednesday, 25th inst.

His factory and its contents have been seized, and his stock of tobacco, cigars, moulds, presses, &c., have been brought to the revenue office in this city.

Correction. The chairman of the new lamp committee seems to have been mistaken in the figures which he gave yesterday in the issue of the "Intelligencer." Instead of the cost being $16,000, he stated it was $12,720, including the street lamps, gas in the station house, mayor's and treasurer's offices and council chambers. The appropriation was $12,000.

A Landslide. A landslide on the Columbia & Port Deposit railroad yesterday caused a detention of trains on the road for several hours. The slide was discovered by the north bound train in time to prevent a serious accident. A special train from Columbia was sent down and took off the passengers of the up train.

Gored by a Bull. A telegram received this afternoon by James Black, Esq., contains the news that his son, John Black, was very seriously gored by a bull to-day on Mr. Black's farm in Colerain township.

Assault and Battery. Frank Nestor has been arrested on the charge of assaulting Philip Kempf, son of Conrad Kempf, and Alderman Barr has held him for a hearing.

Date Cancelled. The Arch street minstrels, who were to have appeared here on April 31, have had their date cancelled.

Hall at Mountville. This morning between 9 and 10 o'clock there was a "right smart" little hail storm at Mountville and vicinity.

Church Entertainment. The coffee sociable at Christ Ev. Lutheran Church this evening will be a fine affair. Go to it.

The greatest novelty in the musical world of the day, the Strauss family, consisting of father and seven children, each expert in their specialties, who give a concert in Fulton Hall on Saturday evening, have entered with for a list of names and August at Atlantic City.

Amusements. "Interviews." Milton Nobles, aided by the young and gifted comedienne Dollie Nobles, and by a fine company, will present "Interviews" at the Grand Opera House, commencing to-night. The play abounds in fun and is interesting throughout. It has been received everywhere by big and delighted audiences, and the knowledge which Lancaster theatre-goers have of the excellence of the artists will not draw a large audience this evening. Alonzo Schwartz, whose name is synonymous with the acting of the light and pleasing sort, is in the troupe and takes the character of Max Stein in "Interviews." The company will give "The Phoenix" to-morrow evening.

SPECIAL NOTICES. Pug dogs as pets have had their day among the extremely fashionable, but cold never go out of fashion, so that it is always necessary to have a dog. Dr. Bockius' Syrup is a sure cure for all coughs and colds.
