The school board held its regular monthly meeting last evening, all of the members being present but Mr. Wike. The finance committee reported $495.77 balance on hand; $1,313.96 of the general fund due the building fund on duplicate of 1881, when the valuation was 1-mill, and advised that that sum be paid over to the proper fund. By a resolution of the board the public schools will be closed May 29th, instead of on the 31st, as at first ordered. The change was made because of Decoration day, May 30th, intervening, that being a legal holiday.

The board decided that the high school commencement exercises shall be held on Friday evening, May 31st, in the opera house. The superintending committee advised the engagement of Cordelia orchestra for the occasion. Bills amounting to $193.57 were presented and ordered to be paid. A resolution to declare vacant the scat of Mr. Wike in the school board was unanimously carried, because of his con tinned and lengthy absence without giving valid reasons for so doing, although notified by the secretary to do so. Dr. W. G. Taylor was elected to fill the vacant seat by a unanimous vote of the board. Some business of minor importance was then attended to and the meeting adjourned. W. U. Hensel, esq., of Lancaster, has accepted an invitation to deliver an ad dress at the commencement of the high schools. The schools of this place were visited yesterday and to-day by the county super intendent of public schools, Prof. B. F. Shaub, of Lancaster. He was much pleased with their condition and praised the teachers for the efficiency of the work Popular Amusements.

On April 20th, 21st and 23d a "Dutch Pinafore " will be performed at the Grand opera house in Reading. For the purpose of giving such as desire to see it an opportunity to do so, the Reading & Columbia railroad will have an excursion on the 21st inst. Round trip tickets, good for three days, will be $1.41. The trains will leave the depot here at 7:30 a. m. and 3:40 p. m. The engagement of the opera house for April 20th, by the Philadelphia Arch street minstrels, has been cancelled. The troupe will postpone its appearance here until next September. Personal and Social

Their Presentation of "Interviews" Last Evening.

Last evening the Nobles were greeted in Fulton opera house by an enthusiastic audience which, in point of numbers, was far from being commensurate with the worth of the play, which is entitled "Interviews," and was written by Mr. Nobles himself. Lancaster theatre-goers are familiar with the unchallenged ability of Mr. and Mrs. Nobles, and in their acting last evening there was nothing to detract from and much to enhance the popular verdict of their excellence. "Interviews' is dignified with the appellation of comedy but more properly is a somewhat exaggerated but certainly clever and entertaining burlesque upon the American journalistic profession and the various peculiarities of the reporter and the harrowing tribulations of the editor. Mr. Nobles gives purely American characteristics to his dramatic persona and in the innumerable situations and ready wit of the reporter, Quilford Driverton, which part he imper-conates himself, he has presented a character to the public whose uniqueness is more the result of real life than the pro duct of a good imagination. Mr. Nobles' conception of the role is a tine one indeed. and seems well suited to the high abilities he possesses as an actor in the lighter view of the dramatic art. Alonzo Schwartz, : 8 Max Stein, created much amusement by his Teutonic brogue and actions, and Dollie Nobles as Florence Wolverton and Miss Lizzie Evans as Jessie Crayton gave very satisfactory interpretations of their parts, while in fact the whole company is an excellent one. The company appears this evening in "The Phonix," in which heretofore they played to big houses n

MARIETTA HIGH SCHOOL. Commencement Exercises—A Very Pleasant

The sixth annual commencement of the Marietta high school took place in Central hall, in that borough, last evening. The attendance was very large, the hall being crowded with directors, teachers and patrons of the school. Dr. E. E. Higbee, state superintendent; Prof. B. F. Shaub, county superintendent, and Prof. Benj Ames, borough superintendent of Columbia, were present. The graduating class numbered six—three boys and three girls, as follows : Charles Thompson, Henry S. Rich, I. Oliver Fry, Mary Williams, Mellie E. Fryberger and Katie Williams, all of whom acquitted themselves very creditably. The entertainment was varied and enlivened by excellent vocal music by the pupils. Following is the programme:

Valedictory Oration—"Look Before You Leap,'
Charles Tompson.
Address to the Graduating Class. Address, Dr. E. E. Higbee, State Supt. Public Schools.

Dr. Higbee's address was brief and to the point. He said he was glad to have an opportunity to attend the commencement exercises and was gratified with the esult. He feared that we were all inclined to go too fast in this fast age and hurry through with our work with too much impetuosity. He advised the young people to go slow, and not worry about getting into the bustle and confusion of the world-they would get there soon enough, and the longer they kept out of just such entertainments as these; he would rather attend a school exercise than a session of the House or Senate at Harrisburg. He complimented the school on the progress made, and looked for still better results when the directors saw their way clear to extend the school term, which is only seven months in the year-a term entirely too short for a populous and flourishing borough like Marietta.

At the close of the regular exercises the graduating class presented their photographs, handsomely framed, to their teachers, Prof. Geist and Miss Smith. During the afternoon yesterday the primary schools of the borough gave an entertainment in the same place, which was also well attended The programme consisted of music, recitations, dialogues, &c., all of which were well rendered.

FIRE IN COLUMBIA.

Smedley's Rake Factory Destroyed. About half-past 1 o'clock this afternoon the rake factory belonging to Ezra Smedentirely destroyed by fire. It was situated on Commerce street, between Walnut and the best interests of the commonwealth. The Bridge streets, was of brick, two and a corporations who are opposed to the bill and half stories high, and adjoining it were whose interests it antagonizes, have been vigseveral frame buildings, which were also ilant and determined in making local sentientertaining the delegates to the great destroyed. The origin of the fire is not ment against it. The other side of the story is known, but is supposed to have been incendiary, as several attempts have been made on the building within a month or evening, the first which have moored at two. The loss is heavy and the insurance

A large stable adjoining belonging to Mr. Smedley is also a total wreck. -Since the above was in type we learn by telephone that the fire was accidental, being caused by the ignition of oil in which hot rake teeth were being tempered.

Surprised on His Birthday. Yesterday Frank Mettfet, the Wellknown oyster and fish dealer, was 27 years of age, and his wife surprised him by having a fine supper at his house last night. A large number of Frank's friends were present, and he knew nothing of it until his arrival at home, where a very pleasant evening was spent.

In Town. John Hooley, representing Mart Han ley's "Squatter Sovereignty" company is in town. The troupe, which is the only one authorized by Ned Harrigan to produce the piece, will be here on Friday night. The printing is a feature, and with the Courier the best songs in the piece are given away.

In Philadelphia John J. Smaling, son of J. K. Smaling, of this city, is now with Hoyt & Gleason, at 1517 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, where he is a cutter in their tailoring establishment. He has been very successful at his work, and will no doubt do well in his new position.

Court To-merrow. Court meets to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock for the transaction of the usual current business which comes up on the Saturday before quarter sessions. Some opinions will also be delivered.

A Handsome Barber Shop. The barber shop in the Stevens House has ust been refitted and is now the handsomes a the city. The walls have been repapered with the latest designs of paper. The casing is of ash and of the Eastlake design. The mirrors are French plate glass, with bevelled edge and underneath them is a long marble slab. The chairs are of oak, cushioned in green plush, with the latest improvements for rai-ing and lowering the head. The castors and cups are ni. kle-plated and the handles of he brushes are plated with silver, The cur tains on the front bear gold letters in Charlie Brimmer's be-t style. The chandeliers are marvels of beauty. The bath-room, with several tubs, has been refurnished, and the place

French Dress Plaids,

Which goods will be largely used this season in combination with plain materials, as witness also the following extract from Harper's " Bazar :"

"Smoothly-woven wool stuffs, like Tamise Cloth, of very firm quality, are imported in plain colors, and in plaids, blocks, checks and stripes, for Spring dresses. There are dresses made entirely of the plaids, in very dashing styles, but it is more usual to buy the plain goods for the overdress, and plaids or stripes for the skirt."

THE SPRINGFIELD STRIKERS. The Situation Assuming the Features of Murderous Riot.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 13.—The situa tion at the rolling mills is becoming very serious and assaults are being frequently made on the non-union men employed there. A party of two or three were badly beaten and thrown off a bridge by the strikers yesterday. Two of the vic tims were seriously injured. About half past seven last night the strikers opened fire on some workmen as they leaving the mill, using rifles, shot guns and pistols. In the assault John Waldron, a young fell dead riddled with buck shot in the side, breast, throat and face. Two other men were wounded. There is no clue to the murderers, as they fired from an am bush. There is much excitement here.

WRECKED ON THE BAIL.

Miraculous Escape From Death in a Col-lision Near Bound Brook. The disaster on the Bound Brook raiload, which resulted in the injury of a half score of people on the Reading train and several on the Lehigh Valley engine, of whom two will die, was occasioned by gross carelessness somewhere.

Joe Brady Found Guilty of the Phoenix
Park Murders and Sentenced to be Hanged.

DUBLIN, April 13.—The trial of Joe
Brady was continued to-day, the defense offering further testimony to prove an alibi and closing their case. Argument of counsel followed.

The judge finished his chargs at 3:13 p. m., when the jury retired. They were absent but a short time and on returning to the court room announced that they cating that the latter should stop. However this may be, the two trains approached with undiminished speed. The smoker and Pullman car of the Bound Brook train had just cleared the Lehigh track when the locomotive struck the first of the two day coaches with a crash that startled farm laborers half a mile away.

The wreck was terrible. The jar uncoupled the front of the train, freeing it from the wrecked day coaches, one of which was shattered almost to kindling wood and driven more than its length down the Lehigh track. Nearly half of one side of the other day car was torn out and its half dozen passengers were covered with the splinters of the wreck. It seemed impossible that any in the worst wrecked car should have escaped death, but not one was fatally hurt in it, although all of the half dozen in it were more or less severely bruised.

Engineer Smick, of the Reading com. pany, and engineer of machinery L. B. Paxson in the cab with him, are positive that the white signal was displayed to them until within two train lengths of the crossing, when the red signal to stop was flashed upon him and noticed simultan-eously by his fireman. "Down brakes" was whistled, and the air brakes put on in full force; but it was too late to stop out of danger at the speed at which they were running. It is an indisputable fact that the uninjured part of the train came to a stand still not six car lengths in advance of the point of collision.

Bayron, the signal man, is apparently as unintelligent a man as ever was intrusted with responsible duties. It was only under orders of Superintendent Donnelly that any information at all could be extracted from him. He maintained stoutly that he had set the red signal for the Bound Brook train to stop several minutes before it came, and had not changed it afterward. When asked why he had set a stop signal for a train that was not likely to meet any regular train, at the crossing, he being ignorant of the coming of the special, he lapsed into a moody and obstinate silence. Superintendent Donnelly, however, mair-tains the truth of Bayron's story, and says that several farm laborers working near will swear that they saw the red signal displayed, as Bayron asserts.

Bayron admits that a white signal was given to the locomotive, which clears its crew of blame unless it can be shown that they failed to use all means at command to stop when they saw collision imminent. The matter is being vigorously investigated by the companies, with a view of escaping the damages, which will have to be paid by the one at fault.

John Black's Condition

A postal card received this afternoon by Mrs. Jas. Black, states that Mr. John Black man who recently arrived from Pittsburgh | whose accident yesterday was mentioned in the INTELLIGENCER, is not so severely injured as was feared. He was tossed twice by a bull and had one rib broken. James Black, esq., his son, will bring him to Lancaster to-morrow if he is in a fiz condition to bear the journey.
