THE LEGISLATURE, An effort to expunge a Resolution from the Journal causes Much Discussion. HARRISBURG, April 17.—In the Senate to-day an effort was made by the Republicans to expunge from the Journal the decision of the chair on the tie vote on the recorder's bill that amendments inserted on second reading could not be stricken out on third reading, caused much discussion, and elaborate remarks were made by Messrs. Cooper, Wallace and others. During the debate the special orders were called for, and a motion to extend the time was made but defeated by a vote of 24 to 23, not the necessary two-thirds. The resolution was not disposed of, Mr. Davies consuming the time until the hour of adjournment.

FROM EUROPE, The Queen's Injury Causing Her Trouble.—LONDON, April 17.—Queen Victoria's sprained knee troubles her so much that she had to be lifted into her carriage this morning when starting for the royal residence at Osborne. Her doctor, Lord Rosebery, is at her side. The race for the Great Metropolitan stakes handicap, to-day, was won by Lord Rosebery's Vista, five ran.
