

Lancaster Intelligencer.

FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 20, 1883.

FOLLOW ME. Master and servant, through the storm and sleep.

And thickening darkness, tolled with weary lie.

Fitful winds came hurrying from the mountain light.

The pines moaned sadly in the bitter night.

Flickering the lantern shed a fitful glow.

On paths unbroken, dritted deep with snow.

Courage and fortitude alike outworn.

The servant faltered, frightened and forlorn.

"Home beckons fair," he sighed, "aye, sweet but I shall never live to enter there."

Eyes clear as stars, lips sweet as rose in bloom.

The Master bent above him in the gloom.

"Arise," he said, "we cross an evil land. The tempest's wrath is wild on every hand.

But I before thee go, to lead the way. And I will guide thee, to the dawn of day.

Thou hast but this, to set thy feet where mine. Make prints, step after step, a track for thee.

O taint of heart! I'll craven terror flee. I am thy Lord. Arise and follow Me."

Master Divine, by times the upward way. Lies nearer midnight than the dawn of day:

The chill wind smites; the dark pines murmur low.

Faith's waning tapers shine with fitful glow. The servant needs Thy look of steadfasty:

Before its light his trembling fears must flee: O bend with lips as sweet as rose in bloom, O bend with eyes like stars and pierce the gloom:

Say royally: "Arise and follow Me. Step after step my feet make prints for thee."

TOBACCO.

Sumatra vs. Domestic Growth of Seed Leaf. Western Tobacco Grower.

The editor of that detestable New York sheet which is prescribed by nearly every member of the tobacco trade of New York seems intent on giving Sumatra tobacco an importance as a factor of trade in this country that it does not possess.

He pictures the New York market as dull and inactive for domestic leaf, and rampant and anxious to buy Sumatra, even if $1.60 per pound has to be paid for the choice of the importations.

He says the crop will aggregate 1200 bales, which, at 200 pounds to the bale, is equivalent to 240,000 pounds. As the foreign trade takes the greater portion of this tobacco, and at terms which can not be proved as satisfactory to holders as those that can be realized in this country, now that a tax of 85 cents per pound has been placed on it, it is hard to see how Sumatra tobacco can paralyze trade in home growths, especially as about 100,000,000 pounds of which is required annually to meet the wants of the home and foreign trade.

The frothings of this editor, we think, are given off with the hope of discouraging holders of seed leaf, so that packers may have everything their own way, for what other purpose is this advice given to packers? "You can't pay too little for the leaf you buy?"

Fortunately planters are not compelled to sell their tobacco at whatever is offered as trade has revived wonderfully since the statement of the tax question, and is likely to prove prosperous for some time to come until another agitation is set on foot, which it is fervently hoped, will not be in this generation. A few months ago it looked as if holders of seed leaf would in many instances be compelled to part with their holdings at whatever could be obtained before the year was well advanced, but now sales are quite brisk, and while prices are not as high as was obtained in previous years, yet they generally prove satisfactory to holders, who understand and appreciate the situation, and are willing to make reasonable sacrifices to facilitate trade.

Our Citizens desire no notoriety, but are always ready to proclaim the truth.

Mrs. Geo. Dawley, of 75 Knight street, Providence, R. I., writes to our reporter her experience with the wonderful curative properties of what is destined soon to be the standard and leading specific of the whole world, for Kidney and Liver diseases, etc.

Early last spring I was severely afflicted with torpidity of the kidneys and enlargement of the liver, and the kidney disease came upon me so fast and so suddenly that before I was scarcely aware of the cause of my trouble I became badly bloated, and my body and limbs very much swollen, so that it was great difficulty and severe pain that I was able to walk any.

I became greatly troubled by being short-breathed, so that even a slight exertion or a little exercise would tire me almost to exhaustion, and I was so distressed when I retired at night that I could not sleep and was very restless. One of my limbs especially had a very severe nervous pain, which always seemed to be more severe at night than at any other time, and would frequently ache so sharply as to rouse me from sleep. I was very nervous and uncomfortable all the time, and was being doctor'd, and taking all kinds of medicine for this complaint, and that and the other, but all to no good purpose, until at about the time when I was tired out and somewhat disgusted, and almost discouraged with medicines and doctors, a relative and highly esteemed friend persuaded me to try Hunt's Kidney and Liver Pills. I began to take it a few days ago, and am happily appointed by the result, for before I had used a bottle of it I began to feel relieved, and soon headache and backache disappeared. The severe nervous pains in my limbs which I had to handle so tenderly do not appear any more. The swelling has disappeared from my body, and I feel well every way and rest well at night.
