DRUMORE NEWS.

Several Recent Deaths-Disgusted, Tobacc Jesse Shoemaker, one of our oldest an most respected citizens, died last week at his home in Martie township, near Liberty Square. Deceased had almost reached four score and ten and by his long and good life had friends wherever he was On the 20th instant Valentine Gardiner, of this township died in the 65th year of his age. His funeral was last Monday; burial at Mount Hope church. Mr. Gardiner, also, was one of our foremost, upright, respected men, and will be missed from our community. He was an enthusiastic and liberal Methodist.

very rich in promise. If we have one class of men more thoroughly disgusted with their business than another it is our tobacco growers, and we almost all belong to that class. Prices being paid are discouragingly low and buyers are determined to keep them

THE DENNIS CASE.

He Will be Taken to Missourl. A special dispatch to the INTELLIGEN-CER from Philadelphia states that when the case of John B. Dennis came up before the United States court this morning. and before argument began, Dennis' counsel asked and obtained leave to withdraw their petition, so that the prisoner could be remanded to Lancaster and extradited to Missouri. He will be brought on to Lancaster at once and have a final hearing the Missouri authorities.

The following later associated press dispatch gives a more extended account : In the United States district court, John P. Dennis, who is wanted for fraud in Miscouri and forgery in Lancaster county, Pa. withdrew his petition for a writ of habeas corpus Attorney-General Cassidy sought to have Dennis handed over to the Missouri authorities when defendant's counsel applied for a writ of habeas corpus and con tested the right of the authorities to grant a writ of extradition. Argument was to be heard to day, but upon the prisoner withdrawing his petition he was remanded to the custody of the sherift of Lancaster county, whence he will be taken to Mis

Waten Your Houses.

Whenever a large circus appears, sharpers and thieves of all kinds follow it, notwithstanding the efforts of the management of the show to apprehend them. When the street parade takes place tomorrow citizens should keep a watch on their houses, as thieves often take advantage of the great attractions on the cutside to cuter houses.

Mianie Hank .- This tamous songtress will be in Lancaster next Thursday and will give one of her bridiant operatic concerts, support el by a fine and talented company. Her programme will be extended and varied, and she will give scenes from the opera "Carmen," in which she has for a long time won the highest enconiums. Says the Indianapolis Times : "Carmen is by right her creative part. She made the success of the piece in London. Since that time this role has been her especial triumph. There is no one who can approach her in the charm of grace and artlessness of manner. Her success last evening was pronounced, and will leave a lasting impression." The Circus To-Morrow.-To-morrow Adam Forepaugh's monster circus and menageric will appear in this city, and the exhibitions will be given on McGovern's lot at the head of North Queen street. No better location could have been chosen, as the place is conve niently located for the circus people as well as the thousands who will attend. This show is larger by far than ever before, and has been drawing tremendous andlences. The street parade, with golden charlots, open dens of animals, brass and reed bands and other nonular features will begiven in the morning and will be worth going many miles to see. Some of the brightest rights in the circus profession will be seen in the great double ring performances, and the menagerle contains among other animals a herd of twenty-five yeld phants, among which is that monstrous beast The Great Forepaugh Show,

The following statement of William J. Cough in, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our read ers. He says: "In the fall of 1876 I was taken with a violent bleeding of the lungs, followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not leave my bed. In the summer of 1877 I was admitted to the City Hospital, While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung as big as a half-dollar. I expend ed over a hundred dollars in doctors and medteines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope but a friend told me of DR. WM. THE LEGISLATURE.

THE WORK IN THE SENATE AND HOUSE

Petitions and Kemonstrances on the Liquor Prohibitory Amendment-Bills Passed In the Senate-Proceedings in the special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER.

HARRISBURG, April 24.—There was no lack of petitions and remonstrances in the Senate to-day on the liquor prohibitory amendment. The amended anti-discrimination bill was reported favorably. The resolution of the Democrats calling the state treasurer to account for not turning surplus moneys in the general revenues into the sinking fund, was adopted unanimously, the Republicans having been assured that the state treasurer would have a satisfactory explanation to make. The anti-treating bill received 25 votes, which is less than a constitutional majority required to pass it. Among the Senate bills pass finally were the following: Senate bill fixing salaries of officers in counties containing between sixty and eighty thousand inhabitants; Senate bill to abolish the office of jury commissioners; Senate bill prohibiting street passenger railway companies from employing their hands more than twelve hours a day Senate bill to authorize the admission into reformatory institutions of Pennsylvania of youth delinquents from Delaware. Railroad bills to authorize companies to change their routes and increase their capital stock, were amended on third reading : they are intended to meet the demands of the Vanderbilt system. Senate bill giving right of eminent domain to harbor companies was passed finally. After the final passage of the Senate bill allowing incorporated banks and banking institutions to change their names and place of business within the county where located, Senate adjourned.

In the House. In the House the general appropriation bill was reported with amendment, appropriating enough money to allow the mem bers compensation for one hundred and fifty days. The following bills passed finally: House bill to secure laborers in and about mines, etc, the payment of their wages at regular intervals; House judicial apportionment bill ; House bill to prevent wagering and gambling in insur-ance policies. The following bills were defeated constituting eight hours a day work ; regulating the mode of granting licenses to taverns, etc., of the fourth class; providing for the election of state license commissioners. The House ad journed on a bill providing additional means for the safety of bituminous coal Charter Granced. A charter was issued to-day to the Easlock and manfacturing comfor the manufacture of locks, hardware and metal castings. The capital stock is $25,000. The principal stockholders are residents of New York and New Jersey. Among the stock-holders are Frank Reed, Andrew A. Clark and Samuel Martin, of Easton.

THE CIRCUS TROUBLE. Roughs Held for Participation in tack on O'Brien's Show. WILMINGTON, Del., April 24.-An Every Evening special says that Frank Pyle, Daniel Tomlinson, Charles Farris and Edward Farris have been held at Dover to await the action of the grand jury fer participation in the attack on O'Brien's circus troupe, on Saturday night last. Dr. Bishop has returned from Cambridge, to which place he had gone with the wounded circus men. He reports that with proper .care all the wounded men will recover. Charles W. Henderson, an attache of the circus who was shot in the head during the riot, and who was yesterday taken to Philadelphia, is reported as somewhat improved to-day, but his condition is still critical.

A WILD TALE.

A Rich Deposit of Gold Said to be Discovered In Lebanon County, READING, Pa., April 24.-Considerable excitement prevails at Myerstown, Leba non county, owing to a supposed discovery of a gold vein. Farmers have given up their business and commenced digging on their premises. Kreitzer & Co., of Philadelphia, have equipped a mine with a sixty horse power engine, a furnace for emelting ore, &c., and are making daily shipments of quartz to Philadelphia. Over $6,000 dollars hove already been spent in experimenting. It is also claimed that a rich vein of silver has been struck.

The Clans wathering NEW YORK, April 24.-About 20 delcgates from the various New England cities to the convention of the Irish National Land League, which opens in Philadelphia to morrow, passed through this city this morning. Among the num ber were J. Boyle O'Reilley, editor of the Boston Pilot, M. P. Curran, editor of the Boston Globe, and Congressman P. A. Collins, of Boston. About 150 delegates will go from this city to morrow morning at 7 o'clock by the Pennsylvania railroad. Among them will be General Jas. Obeirne, Stephen J. Meany, John Devoy, Dr. Wm. E. Wallace and others.

PRISONERS LOOSE.

Desperadoes Make Their Escape From Juli Brarnard, Minn., April 24.—Burns, Hawley and Bennett, three of the despera does who engaged in a fight with a sheriff's posse at the Mississippi railroad bridge near this place on Thursday last, made their escape from jail yesterday by cutting their way through the wooden walls. Ree and McClure, of the same party and who were wounded in the meleo, are held in the county jail.

More Discoutent Among the Cigar Makers BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 24.-Some ifteen or twenty hands in the employ of Ruder, Gable & Co., cigar manufacturers in this city, have waited upon their employers and asked for an increase of one dollar per thousand for making cigars. They demanded an im mediate answer, and receiving none, quit work.
