Meeting at Strasburg-Surprise to Dr. J. A. Martin.

The Harris Dental association held its for the purpose of surprising Dr. J. A. Martin, a member of the association, whose 60th birthday occurred yesterday, the meeting was postponed until that day. The surprise was complete, as none but the members of the society and Dr. Marthe memoers of the society man ments made for the meeting at Dr. Martin's office.

The following named members were in attendance : Drs. W. N. Amer, Lancaster; Alfred D. Clark, Marietta; P. W. Hiestand, Millersville; D. Rine Hertz, Ephrata; J. D. Heiges, York; H. D. Kuight, Lancaster; J. A. Martin, Strasburg; Thos R. Pixton, Lancaster; A. W. Rogers, Col umbia; J. S. Smith, Lancaster. After the society had been called to order, the roll was called and the minutes of last meeting read. Dr. W. N. Amer then made a few remarks, congratulating read a congratulatory paper, prepared by Dr. J. McCalla, of Millersville, who was unable to attend. Dr. Smith, a pupil of Dr. Martin, followed in some compliment ary remarks, to which Dr. Martin ro sponded at considerable length, relating many interesting experiences in his proessional life. An adjournment then took place, and the association was as much surprised as Dr. Martin had been, when they were marched to a saloon near by where an elegant entertainment, prepared to the order of Dr. Martin's family, awaited them, and which was discussed with the keenest relish. At 2 o'clock the association re conven d and proceeded to the election of officers for the ensning year. The following were elected : President, Dr. D. Rino Hertz; Ephrata ; vice president, Dr. J. D. Heiges, York ; secretary, Dr A. W. Rogers, Col umbia; treasurer, Dr. H. D. Knight, Lancaster ; executive committee, Drs. Wm; N. Amer, J. A. In the House,

Senate bill to prevent exhibitions such as the Passion play was reported affirmatively. The bill providing for the taxing of persons and firms engaged in the bus . ness of buying and selling crude petroleum was considered on second reading. An amendment was adopted taxing brokers in oil at a rate of $150 on sales of $10,000 and upward, and grading the tax down to $20. The House then proceeded to the epnsideration of the bill imposing a tax of one mill upon every gallon of oil shipped outside the state. A motion to indifinitely postpone was defeated. The bill was under consideration when the House ad journed.

THE STATE TREASCREE

Why He Has Not Obeyed the Law State Treasurer Bailey submitted a report to the Senate to day in response to the resolution of Senator Humes requesting him to state why he had not turned into the sinking fund all moneys in the general fund in excess of $500,000. The state treasurer says the amount

No. 22 North Queen St. required to meet the expenses of the present legislation and appropriations falling due prior to June 1, 1883, will be $2,196,242.75, loaving in the general fund $539,750.64. After this indebtedness has Latest Novelties, been paid he claims that he has the right to anticipate claim which he has done in this instance. Men's Wear.

HOW SHALL WE

Solve the problem of the proper suit to wear 7 This question is often asked, and how easy it is solved. All we have to do is just to take particular notice of how other people's suits are made when we meet them The fashion is not what one particular person wears or the cecentric style of another which may be suitable to the person and yet not fashionable. The MAJORIT' RULES IN FASIIION and the MAJORIT OF ALL THE VERY LATEST FASHIONS FOR MEN, YOUTHS' AND BOYS' SUITS ARE TO BE FOUND UPON OUR COUN-TERS, the workmanship of which in every detail, we are prepared to say, is of the finest order, are excelent in fit, and are all fresh stock They are exchangeable if not satisfactory. They are thoroughly goost all through and the prices are the lowest.

SHOES for the very little fect that are short and fat. We have a complete stock of the prettiest little shoes for children from size nought upwards.
