

Lancaster Intelligencer.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 12, 1883.

A True Story. A lady and gentleman residing in Allentown, Pa., own a pair of ponies, also a spaniel. Last year, at their custom, they sent these animals out of the town about three miles distant, to their farm, to remain during their absence, through the summer. When they returned in the fall they traveled home on horse-back, and having these horses at their town home did not send for the ponies at once. The dog came in from the farm however. This was on Friday. The dog showed himself very uneasy and dissatisfied with something, and the lady observed him carefully. She came to the conclusion that he did not like the new horses (which were two boys) and remarked upon it to Mr. R. On the following Sunday morning the dog disappeared, and had not returned in the afternoon when they went to drive with the boys. After an absence of an hour or two they returned, and found standing at the gate, the dog with the two ponies. He had evidently trotted out to the farm, informing the ponies that their place was taken by strangers, and this was the result.

Ask the most eminent physician of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always? And they will tell you unhesitatingly "Some form of Hops!"

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians: "What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as neuralgia, sciatica, catarrhes, retention or inability to retain urine and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to women?" "And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically "Buchu." Ask the same physicians: "What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, neuralgia, fever, ague, &c., and they will tell you: "Mandrill or Dandelion!" Hence, when these remedies are combined with others of equal value, as well as being compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ailment can possibly exist or resist its power, and yet it is Harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

"Almost dead or nearly dying" For years, and given up by physicians of Bright's and other kidney diseases, liver complaints, severe coughs called consumption, have I seen cured! Women gone nearly crazy! From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness and various diseases peculiar to women. People drawn out of shape from excruciating pains of rheumatism, Inflammatory and chronic, or suffering from sciatica! Erysipelas! Salt rhum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia, indigestion, and in fact almost all diseases trial. Nature is cured to have been cured by Hop Bitters, proof of which can be found in every neighborhood where the name is known. Hop Bitters for sale at B. R. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen Street.

Tonic, alterative and cathartic; read advertisement of Simmons Liver Regulator.

A STRANGE AND STARTLING DREAM.

Is there a Spirit World? A remarkable dream or preternatural visitation recently occurred in Louisville, Ky.: Mr. F. E. Moore, a gentleman well and favorably known about town, on retiring for the night, feeling unwell and nervous was very restless in his sleep, but seemed to himself to be wide awake and in full control of his senses. A vision appeared in his dream showing him a large building another commanding him to obtain it from the lottery and then vanished. The dream was so startling as to fully awaken him, and he was not long before he believed in lotteries or "wheel" things, and he tried to buy one, but could not make the number he wanted. He then decided to try to get the numbers which seemed to be bargained in his dream. Finally he called at the office of the Lottery Distribution Co., and paying $1, asked for a ticket with the numbers of his dream on it. Fortunately the number was unused. The drawing was soon to come off and so several numbers excited had become that, although against his principles, he determined to win it, and strangely enough, he saw his number drawn on the wheel and he had some prize of $5,000 was his. Was this simply a coincidence? Who can tell? Next drawing takes place in Louisville, Ky. May 21, 1,500 prizes, amounting to $12,400. Whole tickets only $2. Address R. M. Boardman, Louisville, Ky.

In Good Spirits. T. Walker, Cleveland, O., writes: "For the last twelve months I have suffered with lung and general debility. I commenced taking Burdock Blood Bitters about six weeks ago, and now have great pleasure in stating that I have recovered my appetite, my complexion has grown ruddy, and I feel better altogether." Price $1. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street.

Do You Believe It. That in this town there are scores of persons passing our store every day whose lives are made miserable by Indigestion, Dyspepsia, sour and distressed stomach, liver troubles, Constipation, when for 75c. we will sell them Sillit's Food, guaranteed to cure them. Sold by H. B. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 137 and 139 North Queen Street. feb7-0002

Too Fastidious. Some would be Byron look on with disgust at the elegance of "Elector" Oil. But we have the best article known to the world. And intend that all persons shall know it. It cures coughs, colds, asthma and catarrh, rheumatism and complaints of that kind; it does not cost much, though rheumatism is cured. "The best oil in the world you can find." For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen Street.
