TOBACCO MARKET

TOTAL MED CONCASTRE. The Trade and Officiel in Samstra, See enf and Havana for the Week

Enging Saturday, May 13. Tobacco Journal. In the minds of the leaf trade it is now a settled fact that next mouth, at the latest, a cloud of presperity will burst perpendicularly ever the market, and cause prices to jump upward with the vim and agility of a auddenly released Jack-in-the-hor. Never was the market more hopeful than now. At the large sale of Sumatra tobacco at Amsterdam on Wednesday last prices were realized which will make the cost of laying down this tobacco in New York about $1.50, inclusive of (old) duty. Then there are reports of the inferior colors of the stock (quality not ody admits) and combined (quality not ody admits) and combined with this the reasonable prices at which, as a whole, the '82 seed leaf crop has been bought, bringing about the feeling described. Said Mr. A. Cohn, of Water street, to the writer: "You may safely put down that everybody who packed '82 tobaccos, no matter of what growth, will make money out of his investment this year." Now that we have "safely" put down the statement of our esteemed friend, we venture to dispute his sweeping

The present excitement at Amsterdam regarding Sumatra is merely due to the coming increase in duty in this country and the presence there of a handful of real and pretended buyers. Speculators, who believe that they will make $40 on every 100 pounds of Sumatra which can be brought into this country before July 1, are there in abundance. No wonder that this recent sale was turned into a "grab" game affair. The enormously high prices were certainly not due to a short crop or lack of fine assortment. The crop of offered exceeds its predecessor by 40,000 bales. Let the present excitement subside, and we have full confidence in the falling of the price thereafter, so that even when the increased duty takes effect Sumatra will be bought bere prices prevailing now. To harbor expec-tations that money will be made just because the '82 crops have been bought reasonably is absurd. Sumstra tobacco never found a market in this country because our own tobaccos were too high or too low in price. That tobacco simply exceeded our own crops in yield and looks. How is the '82 crop regarding yield and looks? Who can tell? At this time of year every holder of new tobacco is im-bued with the idea or rather forces himself and tries to force others to believe it, that what he has is the best. And, furthermore, holders are and have been all along too apt to consider a lull in the sales of Sumatra in this market as a sure indication of its rapid extinction in favor among cigar manufacturers and consum-Moreover, they on all possible occ sions volunteer the statement that their tobacco will beat Sumatra all to splintereens, and whoever don't believe it is either an idiot or a villian. The great drawback in the career of most of our leaf dealers and packers is, that they know little or nothing about the manufacture of cigars as carried on to-day, though they may have sprung from the most illustrious ngar making families in this and the old country, and may, in the early days of their lives, even have subs sted on the profits which arise from making cigars at the rolling board with the usual sweat of their brows. We find that those leaf men in our market who are either directly or indirectly interested in cigar factories, and therefore are familiar with the workings of things in such establishments and the demands of the cigar jobber and consumer, that they operate with caution and with a peculiar system, and do not trade in illusions and trust to luck. We are audacious

Gans' Report.

Sales of seed leaf tobacco reported by J.
S. Gans' Son & Co., tobacco brokers, No.
131 Water street, New York, for the week ending May 14, 1883:

500 cases 1882 Pennsylvania, p. t.; 500 cases 1881 Pennsylvania 8@14c.; 100 cases 1881 Wisconsin Havana, p. t.; 200 cases 1881 New England 14@25c.; 100 cases 1882 Ohio, Little Dutch; 100 cases 1881 Ohio, 4@6je. Total 1,500.

The Philadelphia Market.

Leaf. Seed Leaf—Packers and dealers of cigar leaf, while not overrun by business, still admit of a steady, favorable and satisfactory demand, especially for reliable old stock. Connecticut and Pennsylvania 1881 wrappers are daily becoming better appreciated from the fact, by thorough test, that the stock fills the bill. Havana seed wrappers of A. No. 1 quality are becoming scarce. Old binders and fillers are difficult to find, therefore high in price. Sumatra finds admirers in a small way at an advauce, as Havana is moving in fair size lots. Vuelta takes the lead, There is however, some quality Remedios in the market. Prices rule steady.

Receipts for the week-281 cases Connecticut, 364 cases Pennsylvania, 61 cases Ohio, 59 cases Wisconsin, 44 cases York state seed, 170 bales Havana, 39 bales Sumatra, and 323 hhds. Virginia and Western leaf tobacco.

Sales have been—202 cases Connecticut 221 cases Pennsylvania, 40 cases Ohio, 59 cases Wisconsin, 33 cases York state seed, 104 bales Havana, 19 bales Sumatra, 72 hhds. Virginia and Western leaf in transit direct to manufactories.

Exported of leaf tobacco—To Liver-pool, 18, 319 lbs.; to West Indies, 3,717 do.: total, 22,026 do. [The local tobacco market will be found

A FEW SPECIALTIES—A few specialties with us this season are Spring Suits of Clothing for men at $8, $10, $12 and $14. We claim these suits to be excellent material, made exclusively by skilled Lancaster workmen and to be the cheapest and best suits in Lineaster market. Better lined, better made and better trimmed than most clothing sold elsewhere at $3 more per suit. These suits show just what they are and will be until worn out, as there is no artificial luster on the goods, but every piece of goods is sponged before it is worked up into garments and it retains its finish until it is worn out. All clothing sold by agents of New York and Philadelphia wholesale clothing houses, and are purchased by retailers being compelled to pay a good profit to them, you can very readily see why Centre Hall can furnish clothing cheaper than a house compelled to buy in the East. Our prices are those of the manufacturer, prices less the price of middle men or agents. As a consequence they are such as will suit all desirous of purchasing good clothing at moderate prices. The samples sent out this spring with prices named are bringing us a great many purchasers and all go away delighted and fully convinced that Centre Hall is the place to buy clothing for men, youths, boys or children. In our custom department we are busy working up to our fullest capacity. Our stock is such as every taste can be supplied, and at such prices are within reach of everybody who is in want of a good suit of ciothing made to order. We are getting in new styles every day, and we are watching the market and the bargains offered, and we give the customers the advantage. Drop in, and at your leisure, and just see what a little amount of money will buy at Centre Hall.
