Picked up by the Intelli-The case of the man charged by Mr. J C. Stoner with stealing milk from his but tery near town, on Monday night, and which was heard by 'Squire Grier last evening, the accused clearly proved his Squire Grier also had before him yesterday afternoon the three men arrested on suspicion of having stolen postage stamps, and one of whom had sold about a hundred to persons in this place. Charles B. Barrett, postoffice inspector at Philadelphia, was present and examined the accused. Two of them were discharged as no evidence could be brought against them, but the third, a young man named William Anderson, was committed to the county prison to await a further hearing as soon as the case can receive investiga tion from the proper authorities.

"Big Al" is again in town. He says his absence was caused by a dislike to trouble the 'rquires, and declares that the fight which occurred on Fifth street about two months ago, and for which a warrant had been issued for his arrest, was not caused by him. He was attacked, and only defended himself.

There were more drunk and boistcrous men and boys in town last night than is usual on disagrecable nights.

The Soldiers Reunion To-morrow. Last evening the different committees appointed to make arrangements for the reunion of the 1224 regiments held a meeting and arranged every thing for the affair to morrow. The exercises will be held in the opera hous; beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and will consist of addresses, music, &c., all open to the public. It is expected that over 300 members of the regiment will be here. The orators will be K Allen Lovell and J. Davis Duffield. Judge Fell, of Philadelphia, who was a member of the regiment. is expected to be here. In the evening the barquet will be given in Mæanercher hall. It is the desire of the veterans that citizens of the town decorate their houses and fling their flags to the breeze in honor of the occasion.

The A. M. E. Church. In the African Methodist Episcopal church conference in Philadelphia, the sessions of which have just ended, the committee on judiciary reported that they found Rev. B. F. Martin, of the Oxford circuit, guilty of the charge of immoral conduct, and recommended his suspension for three months, and the Rev R. J. Long guilty of disobedience of the bishop's orders, and suggested that he be reprimanded before the conference. The report and recommendation were agreed to. In the list of appointments for the coming year are the following of local interest : Mount Joy, J. L. Hamilton; Oxford, Henry T. Johnson; Wrightsville, Benj. Dark; Columbia, Teachers' Picute, Preparations are being made by County Superintendent, T. M. Balliett, and teachers of Carbon county to have a social gathering of the teachers of the state on July 13, at Glen Onoko, the famous summer resort near Mauch Chunk. The state teachers' association will meet at Williamsport on July 10, 11 and 12. Members of the association can go directly from Williamsport to Mauch Chunk. It is believed that a large number of the teachers will be present. The beautiful and picturesque scenery around Mauch Chunk makes the place a very appropriate one for such a gathering.

Police Cares. The mayor had five druuken and disorderly persons before him this morning. Three of them were discharged on payment of costs and two were sent to jail for five days each. Last evening Samuel McClain went to the poorhouse for a night? lodging. He was set upon on the poor house grounds by three drunken roughs, who amused themseives by beating him. They were arrested and taken before Alderman Fordney this morning. They gave their names as Wm. Fulvey, John Wilson and James Murray, they were committed for 30, 20 and 15 days respectively, in the order named.

Wnere To Find Him. Two or three people, who profess to feel aggrieved at the narration of local events in these columns, have been anxiously and profanely inquiring around town "who wrete it." A MISSING BARBER He Leaves Home and Business While Pre-paring for His Wedding

The Philadelphia Record of to-day has the following account of a young man, late of this city and well known here: "The friends of J. G. Hoeltzel, a barber on Sixteenth street, two doors below Market, are alarmed at his mysterious disappearance. He has not been at his place of business since Friday, and the last seen of him was on that evening, when he visited the Arch Street theatre in company with his cousin, a young lady living at Twenty fourth and Brown streets. On bidding her good night he said he was going straight home. He did not do so, however, nor did he send any word to his mother or to the men employed in his

"Mr. Hoeltzel has been a sober and industrious man and was regular in his habits. Though young, he had a good custom and was making money. He al ways carried large sums of money on his person, and it is feared that he has been waylaid on that account, as he had $200 with him on Friday. Hoeltzel was engaged to be married to a young lady in Lancas-ter, Pa., and was making alterations at house in anticipation of his wedding in June. The young lady has been communicated with. She knows nothing of her lover's whereabouts, nor can she assign any reason for his singular behavior. There was no trouble between them, nor has he shown a lack of affection. " Hoeltzel's relatives were puzzled yesterday over the announcement that he had been seen on Saturday morning going to New York by a Bound Brook train. The police in this city and New York have been informed of the disappearance. The missing man is slightly over five feet high, with light hair, cut close, and a light mus-

While in Lancaster Horltzel worked with Joel L. Haines, with whom he learned his trade. He went to Philadelphia four or five years ago. He was a quiet, steady and pleasant spoken young man and his friends here are as much at a loss to account for his mysterious disappearance as his Philadelphia acquaintances.

Hod Carriers Strike. A number of colored hod carriers in the city struck for higher wages yesterday and to day they are walking idly around the streets. Heretofore they have been re-ceiving $1.75 per day but they are not satislied with that and want $2. The strike caused a great deal of inconvenience to several bricklaying firms. At the new Mænnerchor hall on Priuce street a large number of men were at work and they stopped short yesterday. Mr. Blumerstock who has the work in charge at once had a large derrick erected and is now elevating the bricks with horse power. He can do the work much cheaper than with men and with more satisfaction to himselt.

· Crowner's Law. In the beginning of last year a protest against the payment of a deputy coroner's bill was sent, by mistake, to the county auditors. any violent deaths, that they may be properly investigated as soon after death as possible. A Mt. Joy Mystery. The coroner, district attorney and Dr. Fitzpatrick left Lancaster for Mt. Joy this afternoon to investigate the circumstances attending the sudden death and burial of a woman in that borough who is said to have been the victim of malpractice. The woman was the wife of Andrew Rode, a poor but respectable man and it is said she was in her confinement and was attended by a German doctor, through whose alleged malpractice she lost her life. She was somewhat over 30 years of age and the mother of four or five children. The Children's Home. Decorating the Graves of Our Dead. When our loved ones have passed away like the fairest and sweetest of flowers the last tribute of respect we can give is to make beautiful the hallowed spot where rests all that is mortal of them. To this end the best creative talent and decorative skill have been directed and nowhere else are seen such splen did evidences of man's heart being in his actions as there. The saunterer in the peaceful cities of the dead notes with eager eye the emblematic designs of monumental skill. The broken column typical of youthful career suddenly snapped short by death's rude hand, the ponderous tomb indicative of solidity of character, the light shaft pointing heavenward to the regions of eternal day, the simple marble slab, poverty's well-meant offering, and the tiny stones marking where the little innecents siumber. The broken, carved wreaths remind us of those wreaths of affection which bind on earth and the flowers, of the perennial flowers of the beautiful paradise. It is therefore, a question of no ordinary interest where suitable adornments for cometeries are to be had; and it is a pleasure to say that moned to prove that the one eyed man at Lewis Haldy has devoted the best years of his West Chester is the same individual as the life to this very purpose. Since 1849 his efforts have given to our people unlimited satisfaction, and he has now an unrivaled assortment of marble and granite monum nts, head stones, tombs, etc., in his mammoth business dace, No. 154 North Queen street.

Fitzharris Sentenced to Penal Servitude for Life-Disposal of Several Prisoners-Charged With Landlord

DUBLIN, May 16.-The trial of Fitzharris, the cab driver, as an accessory after the fact to the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke, was concluded this morning. The jury returned a verdict of guilty against him and he was sentenced to penal servitude for True Bills Found,

The grand jury have found true bills for conspiracy to murder against Kingston, Gibney and Healy who were charged with conspiracy to murder Poole, the informer, and a true bill for threatening to murder against Matthias Brady, who was charged with making threats against the life of the foreman of the jury which convicted his brother, Joe Brady.

Pleas of Various Prisoners. Several of the prisoners, who are charged with conspiracy to murder, were arraigned

Daniel Delaney and Edward McCaffrey pleaded guilty, and their sentences were HARRISBURG, May 16 .- In the Senate to-day the Standard oil company resolution of inquiry was reported from the committee, providing for the appointment of a joint committee of eight, to inquire into its alleged liability of the corporation to the state, the expenses of the committee not to exceed $2,500. Humes succeeded in having action postponed for the pur-pose of examining it. The House bill providing for fortnightly payments to labor-ers about manufactories and mines was negatively reported. The following House bills passed finally : Requiring physicians in cities of the second class to report to the board of health all infectious diseases; authorizing permanent certificates to be issued to teachers in cities of the fourth class; providing for free evening schools. The Senate then considered the Mexican war pension bill. The bill passed finally by a vote of 31 to 9 after a long discussion. A communication was received inviting the Legislature to participate in the Gettys burg Decoration Day ceremonies.

In the House. Snodgrass, of Allegheny, made an uncessful effort to have the harbor companies the right of eminent domain considered out of order. After a determined effort to have the House bill providing for the taxation of crude petroleum at one mill on every gallon shipped outside the state recommitted, the bill Winter Clothing Until the Moth Destroys Them. | outside the state recommitted, the bin was passed on second reading; yeas, 107;

nays, 75.

The House bill to relieve foreign insurance companies and other foreign corporations of the payment of an office license was passed second reading. After several unimportant bills had passed second reading, Hulings, of Venango, moved to reconsider the vote by which the oil tax bill was passed, which was agreed to, and an amendment was discussed until adjournment requiring pipe line companies to furnish the amount o oil transported to the auditor general at stated periods.

THE G. A. B. REUNION.

The Ceremonies at Washington, D. C. WASHINGTON, May 16.—The weather to day proved most auspicious for the opening ceremonies of the reunion of the Army of the Potomac. At 11:20 p. m., the procession, which consisted of 700 men of the society of the Army of the Potomae and an escort composed of various organizations to the number of about 1,800 men, moved up Fifteenth street and proceeded over the principal about 1,800 men, moved up Fifteenth street and proceeded over the principal street and proceeded over the principal streets to Pennsylvania avenue and passed in review before the stand erected upon the pavement opposite the White House. Upon the stand were the president, Gen. Sherman and a number of other than the president of the pres ber of other prominent men.

It was the first representative gathering of the Army of the Potomac in Washing ton since the war, and as the soldiers of twenty years ago marched past the stand, many of them gray haired and bearded, it recalled the review of 1865,

Upon the returning to the point of starting the escort was dismissed and the Army a of the Potomac marched to the White House and paid their respects to the president. To-day business meetings of different Table Tabl corps were held at their several headquar-ters and at three o'clock a general business meeting began at the National theatre.

MONDAY'S CYCLONE.

How the Death-Dealing Winds Swept Ruth-lessly Along.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 16.—Reports have been received of the ravages of Monday night's storm in Indiana and Ohio, showing that the cyclone swept across an area about twelve miles in length, about six miles north of Connersville, Ind., with a path a few rods wide, striking the little village of Waterloo and destroying every house but three in the place and doing great damage to the farms in its path, but injuring nobody. The fine iron bridge over White Water river was whirled to pieces. In the southern part of Wayne county adjoining much damage was done to the farms. Houses were unroofed and one or two people were slightly injured. The same storm passed through Preble county, Ohio, unroofing houses and barns and doing damage estimated at $79,000.

Farther east at Germantown and Miamisburg there was a severe hail storm, doing immense damage to vegetation. The fruit was almost entirely destroyed. AT THE BLUE FRONT, No. 17 WEST KING STREET WILLIAMSON & POSTER.

The Revolution

Made this season in CHILDREN'S SHORT PANT SUITS is apparent to the most casual observer, the Coats and Pants being made much shorter than formerly for Boys of Nine Years old and upwards, the smaller Children wearing a longer Jacket Pleated back and front with a very neat belt. The SAILOR SUIT'S are made with a Yoke front and back with flat pleats to the waist.

We have paid especial attention to the JUVENILE DEPARTMENT this season to rocure none but the most indestructible maerial. For BOYS' WEAR at the same time we have not lost sight of strength in making and matchless fit and finish.

We court criticism on these especial Points, and whether purchasing or looking we shall esteem it a pleasure to show you OUE HAND-SOME NEW STOCK of CHILDREN'S SUITS. For LADIES who are looking for HAND-SOME SLIPPERS the Shoe Department can supply them with the most perfect fitting and durable slippers of all kinds.

Also NEWPORT TIES in FRENCH and their Pocket Books.
