VETERAN REUNION.

THE 122D REGIMENT PENN'A. VOL. The Members Requite After Twenty Years -A Sketch of the Regiment-

To-day's Exercises. The members of the One Hundred and Twenty-Second regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers are to day having a reunion in celebration of the twentieth anniversary of their muster out from the United States service.

The regiment was organized by Col. Emlen Franklin, under authority given by Governor Curtin, in the month of July, 1862, served in Maryland and Virginia, for nine months, and was mustered out of service at Harrisburg on the 15th and 16th days of May, 1863.

On receiving authority to recruit a a short distance east of this city, and in a short time had recruited no less than fourteen companies. Ten of these were or-ganized into a regiment and designated the 122d regiment. The field officers were Col. Emlen Franklin, Lieut. Col. Edward McGovern, Maj. Thaddeus Stevens, jr. All these officers had seen service. Col. Franklin had been a captain in the 1st regiment, Lieut. Col. McGovern had been a captain in the 79th and Maj. Stevens a private in the three mouths' service.

The captains of the several companies were as follows : Co. A., George Musser and afterwards George M. Franklin; Co. B., Samuel W. Rowe : Co. C., Smith P. Galt; Co. D., J. Miller Raub; Co. E., Andrew R Byerly; Co. F., B. F. Baer, and afterwards J. F. Ricksecker; Co. G., Jefferson N. Neff, and afterwards John P. Kilburn; Co. H., Lewis C. Audenried; Co. I., John M. Amweg, and afterwards Henry W. Gara; Co. K., Wm. R. Duncan. Nearly all the men in the regiment were from Lancaster county. After drilling in camp for a short time, the regiment was ordered to Washington, Pope's disastrous campaign, having exposed the national capital to assault from the Confederates. The regiment reached Washington August 16, 1862, and a few days afterwards moved out to Fairfax Court House, where it was a signed to Gen. Piatt's brigade. It lay in several po-sitions in front of Washington until December following, when Burnside weather. The army went into winter and lost 135 men in killed, wounded and missing. Gen. A. W. Whipple, commander of the division to which the 122d belonged, was killed on the field. His remains were forwarded to Washington, the 122d acting as an escort to his funeral. After the funeral, its term of service having expired, the regiment proceeded to Harrisburg and was mustered out of ser vice on the 15th and 16th of May 1863.

The House Agrees to Adjourn June 6th. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencen. HARRISBURG, May 17 .- In the Senate to-day an effort to pass the House bill providing for the payment of laborers employed about manufactories and mines was defeated. A resolution was adopted to consider the legistative apportionment bill this afternoon and congressional apportionment bill to morrow morning. The Senate then proceeded to consider the prohibitory liquor amendment. Cooper and Laird opposed the measure and Stewart advocated its passage in view of the alleged fact that 250,000 voters had patitioned for its submission to the people. An hour was consumed in the discussion, when Kennedy interrupted further talk by calling the order of the day, the Senate having decided to consider the pilot bill in the time being used on the discussion of the prohibition question.

The pilot bill was indefinitely postponed

In the House. Zeigler, Democrat, called up the resolution to adjourn finally on the 6th of June. A motion by Jenkins, Democrat, to amend by fixing final adjournment a week later was defeated. A motion to postpone the question was defeated, when the original resolution was adopted—yeas, 124; nays, 54. The consideration of the bill to tax crude petroleum was resumed. Ammerman offered an amendment that no pipe line company shall charge more than twenty cents per barrel for transporting,
