

Knights Templar Decorators. The decorators will be in this city on May 23 for the purpose of making decorations for the Knights Templar. Their address is 231 Dock street, Philadelphia. All orders left at Copland's saloon, North Queen street, will be promptly forwarded.

Miss Hillberry. It things of beauty are to be loved, the handsome millinery rooms of Mrs. A. W. Wetzel, No. 28 North Queen street, are fountains of perpetual bliss. The richest display of bright-hued colors of spring in millinery and trimmings are in lovely contrast to the crepe and crepe bonnets which are there made a specialty. Everything in human hair goods also sold by Mrs. Wetzel, whose 27 years' connection with the business enables her to do better for her patrons than any one else.

Claret, Old Brandy and Ginger Ale. Just imported from Belgium's old wine store, 23 East King street, Claret in bottles to be sold at unusually low prices for the quality. For the warm weather celebration of Old Brandy, and Cognac and Caere's Beloit Cognac and Apollinaris and Saratoga waters, unsurpassed in quality and quantity, and lower in price than elsewhere. Also Pleasant Valley comes brand and West's Western extra and Belgium's Old Whisky, Madeira and Sherry Wines, etc.

The Roto Patent. The Roto Patent Automatic Independent Carriage will be on exhibition at the Heister house, corner of North Queen and Chestnut streets, this evening, between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock. It is the most ingenious piece of machinery and well worth looking at, and as it is to be shipped to Chicago to-night this will be the last opportunity our people will have of seeing it.

Amusements. Dutch "Pinafore" to-night.—To-night the Pennsylvania Dutch company of "Pinafore" will be given at Fulton opera house, and the audience promises to be very large. Prof. C. Alf. Moss, the translator, will personally direct the entertainment. Rehearsals for Lancaster and Lebanon have been in active progress for some days. Miss Sallie Corkery will sing "Buttercup." Everybody should see and hear it.

Special Notices. Sundry Men. "Wells' Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility, &c.

Never Fails. Mr. J. L. Lest, warehouseman for Lantz Bros., Buffalo, N. Y., says he had a swelling on his foot which he attributed to chilblains. He used Thomas' Electric Oil, and it is troubled no longer. For sale at the Lancaster drug store, 137 and 139 North Queen street.

For a sure cure for Dyspepsia, take Simmons Liver Regulator.

The Diamond Dyes for family use have no equals. All popular colors easily dyed, fast and beautiful. 10 cents a package for any color.

For Lame Back, Side or Chest use SHILOH'S PAIN EXPELLER. Price, 25 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

U. S. Surgeon Recommendations. Dr. J. M. G. Phipson, U. S. Surgeon, residing now at Reading, Pa., writes, to say: "I recommend Serravallo's Tonic because it cures epilepsy." Physicians, generally, are its friends.

These ladies: You can permanently beautify your complexion with the Serravallo's Tonic. It is the best hair and skin restorer. 50 cents. Sold by H. B. Cochran, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster.

The weak, worn, and dyspeptic should take Codden's Liquid Beef Tonic. Take no other.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

SATURDAY AT JOHN WANAMAKER.

We fell upon a piece of good fortune on Thursday when we found three pieces of 24-inch Solid Silk Black Damasse that are fairly worth $2.00 at retail and are probably held at that in some stores; the price to day with us is $1.00. The quality will quickly settle how they wear.

The time of buyers out of the special lots of Silks at about half price advertised in the beginning of the week continues unabated. If you have saved the papers and will read what we have said, or if you are curious to see how little extravagance there is in owning a real good quality silk dress, spend a few minutes in examining into this special offering.

Real Laces.—We have taken up this branch of the business to do it thoroughly. Our connections with Paris and Brussels are direct. We show on our counters and in our cases the same goods that are used by Worth, Pingat and Hentenaar in trimming the charming models of mantles and costumes that we get from them.

Laces are the fashionable trimmings this season in the best workrooms. The old Chantilly and Spanish Laces are still sought for, though the Matelasse Spanish is newer; Escorial is newer still, and the Vandye is the newest of all.

Brussels Point in cream and antique yellow shade, as though it had already been worn by the ancients. It is wonderful that lace machines should produce copies of such costly laces and that art should age them as soon as they are born. It is difficult for some people to step out of the beaten tracks, but a single call at the lace counter will settle where laces can be wisely bought.

Neck Ruffings and Ruchings are now in stock in wonderful profusion. Our up-stairs factories save several profits, of which our customers have the benefit. Whenever we run out of a style and have to buy it from other makers we are compelled to charge higher, so that we know that our own make of Ruchings is always cheaper.

Embroidered Linen Collars are near the Lace Department. We keep up the steady stream of these Goods from the foreign houses and have all the sizes now in stock. The celebrated house of Dognin have sent us a fine lot of Soule Nets, 27 inches wide, 28c., all colors. This is a very low price.

Laces counter, third from Chestnut street entrance, right of main aisle.

Fifty dozen Chemises, at 50c. each, well made out of "Fruit of the Loom" muslin; and many very cheap things just now in the Ladies' Underwear Department, Chestnut street front, right of Arcade.

One hundred dozen women's balbriggan hose, at 20c., offered to-day. There are other lots of Children's and Misses' Goods, equally desirable.

The Zenith of a Boy's Life.

With the first trousers the mother loses the baby boy and the boy takes the first strut toward manhood. Oak Hall has first suits from $2.00 to $12.00. Please read what follows: DON'T GET BEWILDERED

With the ferment in Clothing. We want a quiet word with you before buying or ordering Spring Clothing. We run Oak Hall on broad ideas, but we are just narrow enough to put the claims of Oak Hall, as we understand them, fairly and sharply all the time. We claim your trade because we can do best for you. We can do best for you because we offer you the biggest stock to select from and a stock unsurpassed in style. We claim your trade because we keep a large portion of your money circulating in the business life of your city, and because we will not allow anybody to give you a better bargain.

The greater includes the less. If you accept the principles you will come and test their application.
