THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

Little or No Interest in Them Excited. The annual primary elections of the Republican party of this county will be held next Saturday, though as yet they have excited little or no public interest. Candidates are to be chosen for the office of district attorney, prison inspectors, directors of the poor and county surveyor; also delegates to the state convention and members of the county committee. A most extraordinary popular indifference in the result continues to prevail, and outside of some of the towns which have been especially worked up by the candidates a light vote is expected, the aggregate being estimated at about 8,000. For delegate to the state convention from the city representative district Dr S. T. Davis has no opposition; for senatorial delegate in the lower end the contest is between H. R. Fulton and Geo. Ulmer; for representative delegate from the southern district two of these three are to be chosen : Eli Eshleman, H. M. Herr, B. F. Rowe; and from the upper district four out of these five: D. W. Graybill, Lemon S. Groff, Geo. H. Rauck, W. S. Smith, J. W.

The pools, rings and combinations, the big Mondays, lavish pay of heelers and bummers and the scenes and incidents of the ordinary campaigns have been want- Pills are prepared expressly to cure and will ing this year. For prison inspectors the cure Headache of all kinds, Neuralgia, Nerv-Burkholder New Era faction are running John H. Miller and N. M. Andrews, of Strasburg, and M. N. Bru-Steve T. Harrison, Rochester, N. Y. $1, at baker, of East Hempfield, are the candidates for county surveyor; for poor directors Daniel Herr, Jacob G. Keller, Christian Lefever, John K. Miller, A. R. Strickler.

For district attorney the distinctly Sen senig politicians are for Eberly, though the New Era and Examiner factions, as such, keep hands off, and some of the Stalwarts are heartily for Reincehl. Weaver has been making some diversion the last week, but he is generally considered third in the race; and unless there is a general concentration of the politicians in favor of Eberly, for which now there seems to be neither opportunity nor motive, Reinethl will get his nose under the wire, a good head in advance of Eberly. An alleged dialogue printed in the Examiner, "Itw," is claimed to represent the last conference in the famous castle in-the

A Tea and Coffee Picture

Of the many shrewd devices devised by dealers to catch the eye of the public and thus advertise their wares one of the cutest is to be seen in the window of the Great Atlantic & Pacific tea company, 114 North Queen street. It is a portrait of J. L. Carneross, the min strel, on a background of white sugar and beneath his name written with ground coffee, the well-known phiz appears. The hair, eye brows and monstache are of black tea, face of light brown sugar, eye balls and ears of ground coffee, shirt front of white sugar, neck tie of black tea, light coffee band and coat of roasted coffee, with green coffee lapels. This quaint picture was much admired by the original, who happened to see it, and our reaffers should take a peep at it. The artist is Mr Clarence S. West, the G. A. & P. Co.'s affable and business-like a ent.
