ADVERTISING CHEATS!!!

It has become so common to write the beginning of an article, in an elegant, interesting manner.

Then run it into some advertisement that we avoid all such.

And simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain, honest terms as possible.

To induce people to read the beginning of an article, in an elegant, interesting manner.

Simmons' Liver Regulator

On the left, as you enter the arcade from Chestnut street, is our new stock of parasols, a la mode 1883. There is a queenly article, all lace, at $15, rich enough to justify the price asked originally, which was $25.

There are over one hundred sorts and some of the most delicate beauty, modest and sweet. Fourth counter from centre, towards Market street, left of main aisle.

Lace buyers are having a good time of it in reveling among the airy things, Spanish, French, Swiss and the like in the lace quarters. Fast as the pretty things go out the ground is covered again by the fleecy clouds that rise from the reserve rooms.

The break in silks continues. It is surely a good time to buy. You could hardly miss it from one end of our counter to the other, and we should like our friends to have a portion out of some of our recent purchases.

Trade in linens active; stock and prices both inviting; quality tells. Printed figures in newspapers are not much except to state the fact, but even then how misleading! It is quality that we care for and that we want to talk about.

A bargain lot of Flemish table linen in several odd patterns at 95 cents; sixty-nine inches wide; same make in slightly better grade at $1.00 and $1.10.

Napkins.—We have had of one make of Linen Napkins one hundred and twenty-six thousand—we haven't more than six thousand left. They come in several very pretty designs, are 24 inches square, allowing for the hem, and only $1.85 a dozen.

We are offering a napkin, by the same maker, for $3.25 a dozen, which is remarkably cheap. French Linen sheeting, hand woven and finished similar to the Barnley, 90 inches wide. We had 150 pieces of these goods and sold them all.

An excellent quality of Butchers' Linen, 40 inches wide at 22 cents. Chestnut street entrance, left.
