PURE PAINT,

WHERE TO BUY IT.

There is no advantage in buying and using the common mixed paints that are now flooding the markets. They can be bought at any price you offer for them, but you only waste your money and the work expended on putting them on. Wadsworth, Martin & Longman's Paints cost more at first, but they go farther, look better and last longer than any other goods in the market. Don't buy paint till you have inquired into the merits of these goods.

Simmons' Liver Regulator

For Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhoea, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria and all diseases caused by derangement of the Liver and Gallbladder.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER. Bad breath, pain in the side, sometimes the right, sometimes the left, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory; it is sometimes an attendant, often mistaken for consumption; the patient complains of weakness and debility; nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning, sometimes a prickling sensation of the skin extends to the tips of the fingers and toes; and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up spirits to try it. In fact, distress is sent down. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where but one or two existed, yet examination after death has shown the liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms appear.

Persons troubled or living in Unhealthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all the evils which attend its derangement, such as, Headache, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard or indigestible, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night, a dose will do you good.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House.

For whatever the ailment may be, a thorough purgative, alternative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasure.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE. And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after-effects.

A Governor's Testimony. Simmons' Liver Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I must declare it is a valuable and reliable medicinal agent.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga., says: Have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, and wish to give it a further trial.

"The only thing that never fails to relieve."—I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never found anything to benefit me to the extent Simmons' Liver Regulator has. I would send further for such a medicine, and would advise all who are afflicted to give it a trial, as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve.

F. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn. Dr. T. W. Mason says: From long experience in the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator in my practice, I have been led to believe in its efficacy and prescrib it as a purgative, alterative and tonic.

THE INDIAN SCHOOL.

THE EXAMINATIONS AT CARLISLE.

A Distinguished Company of Guests—Inter-esting Exercises—General Address—Special Correspondence of the INTELLIGENCER.

CARLISLE, Pa., May 24.—Yesterday was a great day at the Indian industrial school at Carlisle. It was an annual examination day, and elaborate preparations had been made to give the affair a grand character.

Many friends and friends of the school in various parts of the country, and not less than 200 visitors from abroad were in attendance, while the residents of Carlisle and vicinity who witnessed the exercises swelled the number to nearly one thousand.

The exercises were of a high order. Following is a partial list, principally of those from a distance:

Hon. H. M. Teller, secretary of the interior; Hon. Hiram Price, commissioner of Indian affairs, Washington, D. C.; J. M. Haworth, inspector of Indian schools; Assistant Attorney General Jos. C. McLaughlin, Washington, D. C.; Hon. Philip C. Garrett, of the state board of charities; Hon. Wm. McMichael, Philadelphia; H. B. Sheldon, Indian commissioner, Round Valley agency, California; Rev. Dr. A. L. McCauley, president of Dickinson college; Dr. Cattell, president of Lafayette college, Easton; Rev. Dr. Brown, Iowa; His Honor, Judge R. M. Henderson, of Carlisle; W. Lindsey, ex-deputy superintendent of education, Cumberland county, Pa.; Rev. Dr. Lippinott, of Dickinson college and chaplain of the Indian school; Rev. Mr. Beadle, of New Jersey; Rev. Father Lane, of St. Aloysius, Philadelphia; Rev. Father Hickey, Carlisle; Revs. Wing, Vance, Norcross and Prie, of Carlisle; Rev. J. Bolton and wife, of New York; Hon. J. B. Stratton, Carlisle; Albert K. Smiley, New Paltz, N. Y.; Dr. N. N. Stokes, Frank Wells, of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin; Misses Susan Longstreth, Mrs. E. H. Faranum, Mrs. Ed. J. Cope, Mrs. J. D. Wood, Philadelphia; Miss R. H. Stearns, Miss D. T. Estes, Mr. and Mrs. H. Leed, Mrs. S. D. Perkins, Misses Vail, Bowers, Boggs and Chase, Philadelphia; Miss Lillie Lewis, Baltimore; Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Dr. Agnew and daughter, New York; Percy Johnston, of the Philadelphia Press.

The following named were present from Lancaster: R. K. Buehrle, city superintendent of schools; Dr. C. A. Heintish and wife; Mr. Geo. K. Reed and wife; Mr. J. M. Johnston and daughter.

Doubtless the attendance would have been much larger had not the weather been so unpropitious—the storms of the two days preceding being followed by an overcast sky and a raw, disagreeable air.

In the Workshops. At 7:30 the several shops were opened as usual, and the Indian boys went to work at their several trades—shoe making, harness-making, wagon making, tailoring, painting, tinsmithing, carpentering, blacksmithing, baking, printing, laundrying, &c.

Secretary Teller and the other officials together with many strangers visited the shops and were much interested in the work done—it being conceded by all that the Indian workmen were in all respects equal to white men having equal advantages.

The girls' industrial rooms were also visited and many fine specimens of needlework, darning, &c., were shown, and dozens of Indian girls were engaged at their work with sewing machines and with the ordinary hand needle.

The schools were next visited. There are ten of them, located in the large two-story building near the southern part of the campus, formerly used as a quarters for soldiers. They are graded and taught by the following corps of teachers: Miss Semple, principal; Misses Carter, Fisher, Burgess, Booth, Morrow, Patterson, Bender, Phillips and Shields. The school walls being covered with a very large quantity of blackboard and hung with maps, charts and pictures, while all the rooms contain a full supply of black letter, books, globes, &c.

Several of the rooms were examined in the morning, and the following were read—writing, written and mental arithmetic, grammar, history, &c., and their rendition of problems and answers to questions put to them in the several branches, were as rapid and correct as if they were white pupils in schools of equal grade. They were especially rapid in writing upon the blackboard dictated words or sentences, and their penmanship was generally very neat and clean, and their orthography almost always correct.

On the afternoon of the 24th were held the excited drawings by the pupils of men, horses, buffaloes, birds, flowers, geometrical figures, &c., &c.

The guests at Luncheon. At the close of this examination about two hundred of the invited guests sat down to an abundant luncheon prepared by Capt. Pratt, superintendent of the school, and spread in the chapel, the benches of which had been removed and tables laden with substantial viands occupied their place. The waiting was done by the Indian girls, in their neat and clean uniforms in their duties as well drilled hotel girls.

After lunch the boys in bright new uniforms were formed for dress parade on the parade ground in front of Capt. Pratt's residence, and under command of their captain, Mr. Wm. P. Campbell, were drilled through various evolutions, and finally marched to the large room used as a gymnasium, where the remaining exercises of the day took place.

Exclusive of the three hundred pupils present, there were not less than six hundred visitors in the room. The exercises consisted of instrumental music by a band composed exclusively of Indian boys, vocal music, consisting of duets, choruses, &c., original speeches by both male and female pupils, recitations, declamations, dialogues, &c., nearly all of which were creditably executed.

To these features were added exercises in map drawing, arithmetic, history, reading, &c., &c.

The Speeches. Judge Henderson, of the Carlisle courts, was introduced and made a ringing speech in behalf of the school, taking occasion to say that he had lived in the city in Carlisle perfectly familiar with Carlisle barracks, when they were occupied for military purposes, and never during all these years was there a more intelligent, industrious, well behaved or perfectly disciplined body of men.

The boys and girls now in attendance at the school. Secretary Teller was next introduced and spoke in the highest terms of the school, saying that he earnestly approved of Capt. Pratt's method of conducting it, and declaring that so long as he was secretary of internal affairs no effort should be spared to increase its efficiency, enlarge its appropriations, and to establish similar schools, until the 40,000 Indian children in our territories shall all be provided with school facilities.

Frank Wells, of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, was next called on for a speech, and made one brim full of humor and telling points, in his comparison of the results of the two systems followed by the government in its attempt to solve the Indian question—first by a war of extermination and second by education. The former had taken hundreds of years of time and cost hundreds of millions of dollars and thousands of lives and had failed; while the latter, during the few years it had been in practice, had proved its success beyond a doubt, while the money expended on it had been a mere pittance in comparison, while life had been preserved instead of sacrificed.

Mr. Wells called upon the friends of the school to look after these congressmen, as they had done for those who had opposed liberal appropriations to the cause of the schools should be re-elected. With a solid delegation from Pennsylvania in favor of Indian education, the project could be pushed so that in a few years there would be a hundred such schools as this established, and the Indians who have long been hunted and wronged may become intelligent, industrious citizens.

The ceremonies closed with an address by Captain Pratt.

A CLEVER ROBBERY. Bags of Money Taken from an Express Car.

At Cleveland, the United States express company's money carrier, Alexander Granger, received sundry packages of money and other valuables from an east bound Lake Shore train at the Union depot yesterday morning and placed them in a suggy which was standing outside. Somebody from the ice room called him, and nobody being in sight he stepped a little way from his vehicle to ascertain who called. Returning, he drove to the company's office where it was found that pouches, filled with brown paper, had been substituted for the money; the two containing the money. It is supposed that the robbery was carefully planned by experts, and executed at the moment Granger's attention was diverted. The missing packages are said to have on the whole a value of $15,000 in thirty packages of remittances from rail way stations on the Lake Shore railroad between Chicago and Toledo to headquarters. The exact amount will not be definitely known for some days. Many of the remittances are thought to be in bank checks and certificates of deposit.

Trouble in a Court Room. A Helena special says: Immediately after the circuit court adjourned for dinner yesterday, and while its judge, M. F. Saunders, was in the court room looking up some authorities in cases pending before him, Dr. E. D. Moore approached him in regard to some matter in which Phillips county was indebted to Moore for services rendered while Saunders was county judge. His declining to listen increased Moore's wrath, and he struck the judge and fired twice at him, the second shot taking effect in the left hand. Both gentlemen are highly respected, and the occurrence is deeply deplored by every citizen. Moore was arrested.

ARMY OFFICER'S TESTIMONY. Captain Joseph L. Hayden, residing at No. 924 Fourth street, South Boston, Mass., formerly captain in the army, now with the Walworth Manufacturing Company, South Boston, writes, April 22, 1883: "While living in Cambridgeport my wife was afflicted with terrible pains in her back and sides, accompanied with great weakness and loss of appetite. She tried many so-called remedies without avail, growing rapidly worse, when her attention was called to Hunt's Kidney-Wort. She purchased a bottle from Lowell's drug store, in Cambridgeport, and after taking the first dose she began to feel easier, she could sleep well, and after continuing its use a short time the severe pains in her back and side entirely disappeared, and she is a well woman. Many of our relatives and friends have used Hunt's Kidney-Wort, and all have benefited. I have recommended it many times, and as many times heard the same story. Hunt's Kidney-Wort is all that is claimed for it, and a real blessing to all afflicted with kidney or liver trouble."

MADE A MAN OF HIM. Mr. C. O. Wheeler, No. 25 Austin Street, Cambridgeport, Mass., makes the following remarkable statement. On April 27, 1883, he writes as follows: "I have been troubled with kidney disease for nearly twenty years. I have suffered at times with terrible pains in my back and limbs. I used many medicines, but found nothing reached my case until I took Hunt's Kidney-Wort. I purchased a bottle from the drug store, 17 and 19 North Queen street, and before I had used this one bottle I found relief, and continuing its use, my pains and weakness all disappeared, and I feel like a new man, with no more of my old troubles. Hunt's Kidney-Wort wonders for me, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all afflicted with kidney or liver diseases, as I am positive that by its use they will be cured. I feel like a man again, and I can do my old work as well as ever. I can give you this letter in any way you choose, so that the people may know of a sure medicine for the cure of all diseases of kidney and liver." my21-lw.M.W.F.R.W.

"Don't Harry, Gentlemen." Said a man on his way to be hanged, "there'll be no fun till I get there. 'Way to the gallows, you're going, and I'll be glad to see you there." The strongest evidence of his great value is the fact that parties knowing his great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a for a hint of a walnut leaf-blows in the glass; and a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper. The strongest evidence of its genuineness is that it possesses all properties necessary to restore life, vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from respectable parties. A Dangerous Counterfeit. There are dangerous counterfeits in circulation purporting to be the genuine. Beware of the cheap imitations. A Newspaper Editor. O. M. Holcomb, of Bloomfield, Ohio, rises to explain. "I had the terrible disease catarrh for twenty years; couldn't taste or smell, and could not hear. I used many remedies, but they all failed. I then tried Kidney-Wort, and I was cured. These facts voluntarily given against a former prejudice of patent medicine."
