residing on Third street, had his left hip dislocated by a fall while ascending the stairs at his home on Thursday evening.—Al. Ulmer, a Susquehanna rolling mill employe, was run through the calf of his right leg, on Thursday night by a red hot bar of iron from the rolls.—

Around the Town.

Three attempts have lately been made to fire buildings in the eastern part of town; an attempt on 'Squire Frank's stable was the last.—Mt. Zion A. M. E. church will hold a cup and saucer tea party in the armory on Tuesday evening, June 5th.—Pennsylvania castle, No. 76, A. O. K. of M. C, will meet to-night.—Harry Lichty is in Philadelphia.—Pennsylvania car movement for May is as follows: Eastward, loaded, 39,075; empty, 1,878; total, 40,973. Westward, loaded, 12,601; empty, 26,247; total, 38,848. Grand total, 79,821; increase over April, 5,545.—The fire committee of council inspected the working of the Shawnee and Columbia fire engines this afternoon on the river shore. The Vigilant will be tried on Monday afternoon.—Mr. Jacob Sneath returned home yesterday from an extended business trip to Lehigh and Northumberland counties.—Several colored children were detected in thieving operations on 8th street yesterday. None have been arrested as yet.

A Boy's Leg Cut Off.

Harrisburg Patriot.

Viran Miller, aged fourteen, was brought to the hospital last evening on the 7:20 train from the east on the Pennsylvania railroad. His left leg was horribly crushed and ready for amputation, which surgical operation was performed and is now doing well. Yesterday afternoon at Falmouth, Lancaster county, he attempted to jump on a moving train. He fell and his leg was thrown under the cars the wheels of which passed over it. The boy is a driver on the Pennsylvania canal, but his home is at York where his parents reside.

No News From a Thief.

At last accounts nothing had been heard of Nichols, the horse thief, who jumped from a railroad train between Frazer's and West Chester, and he has likely made his escape.

A Horse With Lockjaw.

Isaac Powell & Son were compelled to kill a valuable horse belonging to their livery this morning as the animal was suffering terribly from lock jaw.

Paid Off.

The members of the fire department and other employes of the city, with the exception of the police, were paid off to-day at the treasurer's office.

To Dispense With Pages.

Harrisburg Telegraph.

Mr. Samuel A. Groff, of the city of Washington, D. C., has shown to members of the House and Senate his page indicator, which will be put in the House and Senate at Washington for the next term, also of Virginia. The reform is this, that in place of clapping hands for pages, by which members are much annoyed, and the undignified manner of snapping of fingers as school boys, one only touches a button and the indicator flies up which can be seen from any part of the house. There are often times when a clapping sound is given that the page cannot see, from dozens who made the sound; but this indicator will show at once the parties who call. Its also very convenient for a one armed man—and we have three in our House at present—as with one hand you cannot indicate, only with the improvement to touch a button with a finger. It is also good and a great improvement in voting, as in taking a standing vote you can indicate instead of standing. It is a great ornament besides. It is highly endorsed by our most experienced public men, such as Wade Hampton, Gen. Rosecrans, Dan Voorhees, Tom. Ochiltree, Senators Morgan, Call, Hon. A. Herr Smith, and many others.

Will Preach.

Rev. L. F. Brown, the newly elected pastor of the Presbyterian Memorial Mission, South Queen street, will preach his first sermon there to-morrow evening.

Festival.

The Strawberry festival of the Young Men's Social club of the Moravian church, began Thursday evening, in their rooms, third-story of Rhoades' building, will be continued this evening. Ten cents, for which a plate of cream is given, is the admission fee.

An Experienced Practical Dentist.

In this age of specialties a man must serve long years in some one business calling to achieve success, and be of greatest benefit to his patrons. Specially true is this of dentistry, therefore our people should patronize W. L. Fisher, whose twenty years' dental experience is invaluable. At his office, 62 North Queen, he furnishes full upper or under sets of teeth from $8 to $10. Gas given. Preservation of teeth a specialty. my19-13tdS

Dress Handsomely.

A pleasing exterior is often a passport to good society, for the well-dressed guest is apt to be a welcome one. Indeed all who seek to favorably impress others should pay much attion to their outward appearance—the ruler, the priest and the judge, that their influence may be heightened and the ladies that they may continue to be the moving ornaments of our streets. The charms of dress were never displayed to greater advantage than at present and those ladies why would have them must call on Miss Sue Wolfersberger, 64 North Queen street. Summer's attractive garbs for city, seashore or mountain quickly and cheaply prepared.

Summer Flowers Bloom Brightest on Our Heroes' Green Mounds.

It is sad, though sweet thoughts that prompt the annual pilgrimages to the peaceful cities of the silent, and p acing fragrant pillows on holy hillocks there evinces loving attachment that even death's dread power could not sever. Of these flowers t'will soon be said, they too have passed away, but lasting evidence of our country's gratitude is seen in enduring granite and spotless marble, on which is the splendid epitaph of the brave, "he died for his country." On cemetery decorations affliction has lavished its wealth, and we have in Lancaster, one who, keeping pace with the times, ever has freshest and nicest designs of adornments of burial places. We refer, of course, to Charles M. Howell, who has the oldest an l largest manufacturing establishment in this county, at 139 North Queen street. The writer, a stranger here, saw in Lancaster cemetery a highly polished tomb of Quincy granite over late Rear Admiral William Reynolds, and a stately tomb of pure Italian marble, where rests Harry Gundaker. On Woodward Hill a graceful structure reposes o er Lillie K. Stauffer Rathvon and many other elegant marbie and granite memorials are Mr. Howell's workmanship. Now that early summer is decking our path with beauties of leaf and blossom we should stroll among the graves, and also view the spot dedicated to perpetual reminder of them where is now being prepared many fine Italian monuments of beautiful design and exquisite carving, including that of Rev. James Allen Brown, ex-president of Gettysburg theological seminary.

SECOND EDITION.

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 2, 1883

IN THE WEST.

HEAVY RAIN STORMS IN IOWA.

Much Damage to Property Done in the Track of the Wind—The Gold Excitement in Arizona.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., June 2.—One of the heaviest storms that ever visited this vicinity, began at 6 o'clock last night, and for four hours poured down in torrents. Indian creek, which runs this city, overflowed and seven iron bridges and two culverts were swept away, also several dwellings and barns. Several lives are reported to have been lost. Particulars are difficult to obtain. The water is waist deep in the streets one block from the creek. The flood rose so quickly that many men found it impossible to reach their wives and children, and a number narrowly escaped drowning while endeavoring to gain their homes. The sight of the rushing waters in the streets was awful to behold.

Wanting a Mayor to Forfeit His Office.

TOPEKA, Kas., June 2.—The court here has been petitioned to declare that Mayor Joseph Willson has forfeited his office by his refusal to observe the provisions of the prohibition law.

The Arizona Gold Excitement.

TUSCAN, Arizona, June 2.—The excitement continues in regard to the Lower California gold fields. The exact location of the fields, it is said, is known only to the Indians in that vicinity.

CAFFREY HANGED.

The Fourth of the Phœnix Park Murderers Executed.

DUBLIN, June 2.—Thomas Caffrey, the fourth of the Phœnix park murderers brought to the gallows, was hanged in Kilmainham jail at 8 o'clock this morning

During a farewell interview with his mother yesterday Caffrey broke down completely. The crowd outside the prison this morning was very small, numbering only about fifty persons. Among these were the mother and brother of the prisoner and a woman who has been present at all the executions of the men convicted of the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke and prayed for the condemned men. Caffrey was composed when on the scaffold. His death was instantaneous.

To His Mother.

Caffrey wrote a letter to his mother last evening, in which he said: "I hope you will never have cause to blush for my name. As I am paying the penalty of my crime in this world, I hope I won't have to suffer for it in the next."

STATE LEGISLATION.

Bills Disposed of in the Senate and House.

Special Dispatch to the INTELLIGENCER.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 2.—The following House bills passed the Senate finally to-day: Prohibiting the receiving and detaining of children in almshouses; prohibiting the killing or pursuance of deer, except from October 1 to December 15; giving bituminous coal miners increased protection. A communication was received from the governor, announcing that he had appointed the following commission to improve the keeping of accounts in the various departments: Charles H. Rogers, Philadelphia; John Ballentine, Allegheny; J. Brinton, Luzerne; J. G. Smiley, Titusville; B. M. Nead, Harrisburg, and Charles Nash, Williamsport; the cost not to exceed $25,000. The House bill vesting in Allegheny City for park purposes the title of the state to the old Western penitentiary grounds was passed second reading.

In the House.

The following Senate bills passed finally: Prohibiting the consolidation of competing telegraph lines; for the interest of medical science allowing the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies.

OPIUM JOINTS.

Raiding the Chinese in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—The police early this morning made a raid on the Chinese laundry in the basement of No. 50 North Tenth street, which is also an opium den, and is kept by Ah Fow. Two young women were found in the place under the influence of opium, and a man named Woods, a minstrel performer, who had accompanied the women. They were taken into custody, together with the proprietor and three other Chinamen. The Chinese laundry in the adjoining building was also raided and five Chinamen captured. No opium smoking was in progress at the latter place. The prisoners were arraigned to-day, and Ah Fow was held in $1,000 bail for keeping a disorderly house. The two women and the man were held in $600 as witnesses, and the rest in $300 to keep the peace.

A Light Sentence for a Causeless Deed.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—Catharine Burneson, who was convicted of the murder of the child, Maggie Curtett, was to-day sentenced to 18 months imprisonment. Mrs. Burneson, who was of a nervous disposition, was annoyed by a party of children playing in front of her house and pointing a pistol out of the window fired and killed the child.

Revolution in Panama.

PANAMA, May 24.—The revolutionists now completely surround Guayaquil and communication with it can only be held through the lower part of the river. The first shots were exchanged on the night of the 22d, and it is believed the city will be taken within a week.

The Walking Match Score.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 2.—At 2 p. m. this afternoon the score at the walking match was: Hughes, 541 miles, 1 lap; Noremac, 495 miles, 9 laps; Panchot, 485 miles; Hart, 383 miles, 12 laps.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—For the Middle Atlantic states, fair weather, winds mostly easterly, stationary or higher temperature, lower pressure.
