Simmons' Liver Regulator

For Dyspepsia, Constipation, Sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhoea, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Fever and Ague, Malaria and all diseases caused by Derangement of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED LIVER.

As the liver is situated in the right side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, mistaken for Rheumatism; a general loss of appetite; a brown green color to the face, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, is dull and heavy, with considerable loss of memory; sometimes a burning or nervous, easily startled; feet cold or burning; sometimes a prickly sensation of the skin; a patient complains of weakness and debility, and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial, yet one can hardly summon up fortitude to try it—in fact, sometimes every remedy fails to give relief. In some cases, however, the patient is so affected that he is obliged to lie in bed, and in some cases he is obliged to be carried to bed.

Persons traveling or living in Unhealthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in healthy action, will avoid all Malaria, Biliousness, Headache, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, etc. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage.

If you have eaten anything hard or indigestible, or feel heavy after meals, or sleepless at night, take a dose and you will be relieved. Time and Doctor's Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

For, whatever the ailment may be, a thoroughly safe purgative, alternative and tonic can never be out of place. The remedy is harmless and does not interfere with business or pleasure.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE.
And has all the power and efficacy of Calomel or Quinine, without any of the injurious after-effects.

A Governor's Testimony.
Simmons' Liver Regulator has been used in my family for some time, and I am satisfied it is a valuable addition to the medical science.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Ga., says: "I have derived some benefit from the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator, and wish to give it further trial."
"The only thing that never fails to relieve," I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver and Biliary troubles, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent Simmons' Liver Regulator has done for me. I have used it for several months, and would advise all who are similarly afflicted to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."
F. M. JANNY, Minneapolis, Minn.

Dr. T. W. Mason says: "From actual experience in the use of Simmons' Liver Regulator in my practice, I have been and am satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative, which always produces a healthy action of the bowels, and is the only safe and reliable medicine."

NEWS OF A DAY.

HAPPENINGS OF CURIOUS AND CALAMITOUS

The Devious Ways of the World's Wickedness—The Criminal Habits of a Merchant's Poem.

About three weeks ago Deputy Marshal Aherston, with a posse, was looking for a couple of Indian ruffians in the Chickasaw nation, near Red River, Indian territory. They were supposed to be at a certain house which was surrounded just before daylight. The woman of the house with two of her children, aged 11 and 16 years, were sleeping under the trees, owing to the heat of the night, and the third child, 9 years old was sleeping in the house. The posse riding up woke them, and they, supposing some drunken Indians were carousing around, ran for the house. The marshals without investigation opened fire, killing both the boys and wounding the woman. They then rushed into the house, and seeing the other boy lying there in the dim light, shot and killed him. On discovering their mistake they left and reported that they had killed three desperadoes of the Chickasaws are investigating the matter.

In March last a man named McMahon disappeared from Elm township, Putnam county, Iowa. Certain information led his friends to institute a search on Saturday, and McMahon's body was found in the brush a short distance from his residence. While the party stood around the dead body they were fired upon by a concealed person and a farmer named Lawson fell dead. A young man named May is suspected of both murders.

"Paddy" Hannan and his brother "Jerry," both white, but married to squaws of the Cherokee nation, in the Indian territory, got drunk on last Friday and quarreled, which ended in "Paddy" fatally shooting his brother and an Indian named Tom Scrapper, who interfered. A reward of $1,000 is offered for the capture of the murderer.

A family of 15 Irish immigrants, unable to speak English, who were recently sent to North Adams, Massachusetts, from Boston, with just enough money to pay their fare, have been discovered in a wretched condition in an unfinished tenement. Six of them have been sent to a factory to learn spinning.

A house at Crystal Springs, Mississippi, was struck by lightning on Saturday evening, killing Mrs. Clara Cook and several other women who surrounded her.

Simon W. Meddaugh and his wife, an aged couple, were thrown from a carriage at Ithaca, New York, on Friday. Mrs. Meddaugh, died her injuries on Saturday night, and her husband was not expected to recover.

The wife of Marcus Townsend, a prominent farmer of Washington county, New York, committed suicide on Saturday morning. She had been sick and despondent.

Early yesterday, John Burke was knocked down and cut severely in the abdomen and across the forehead by a party of colored persons in Hurst street, near Lombard, Philadelphia. Seven persons are under arrest and will be held to await the result of Burke's injuries.

Ferdinand Oscar Loscher, about 23 years old, committed suicide early on Saturday morning, in Philadelphia, by shooting himself in the left breast. No cause was assigned for the act.

Garrison Chambers was arrested at Madison, Indiana, on Saturday on a charge of horse stealing, preferred by his brother Ahimazz. Both being prominent citizens, the matter causes a sensation.

Thirteen boys, whose ages ranged from 8 to 14, were arrested in Portsmouth, N. H., on Thursday, for breaking into railway cars to steal beer. After tapping the barrels and drawing what they wanted they allowed the rest to run waste.

The boys had been sent for several days.

Determined attempts have been made to burn the house of the fire department of Petersburg, Virginia. During a fire yesterday morning the house of the hook and ladder company was set on fire and destroyed. The citizens generally are said to be very much exercised over the subject.

Hattie Boyles, aged 17 years, committed suicide at Dennison, Texas, last Friday, by shooting herself through the heart. She and another young woman, accompanied by John Boner, alias Bowser, who was not white, attempted to escape from the House of Correction, Philadelphia, of which he was an inmate. The wound is not dangerous.

KIDNEY-WORT.

SIGNIFICANT SPRING.

A Dissertation upon its advent, and its effect upon mankind.

"The green leaf of the new come Spring—
Shak.
Everybody recognizes spring, when it is once upon us, but many persons are not familiar with the exact date of its appearance. Webster, the world-renowned lexicographer, gives us a definition, which may not be inappropriate here. "Spring" says he, is the season with which the year when plants begin to vegetate and rise; the vernal season, comprehending the months of March, April and May. In the middle latitudes north of the equator."
Thomson, in his "Seasons," and Shakespeare in many of his works, have, perhaps, no peers in describing it, and yet "ethereal spring" is freighted with malaria, "that insidious foe, lurking unseen in the very air we breathe." It springs over the fairest of our land, and brings death and disease to thousands; cuts off scores upon scores of our children and youth, as well as those in advanced life. A pestilence is regarded with little less apprehension, and people everywhere are asking, "what is it?" "Where does it come from?" "What will cure it?"

KIDNEY-WORT, AS A SPRING MEDICINE.

When you begin to lose appetite;—have a headache, a pain in your side, back and shoulders;—to lose about a pound in weight;—dreams;—wake in the morning a fourth and fourth tongue; feel inclined to get up about your work, heavy in body and oppress in mind;—have a fullness in the head;—when your urine gets scanty or high colored;—to suffer with constipation, diarrhoea, or indigestion;—have a puffy, swollen face, dull eyes, or a fullness in the head;—these are common complaints which certainly evidence that your liver is disordered, torpid, or perhaps diseased. A bottle of Kidney-Wort is, under such circumstances, a priceless boon to such a person.

Bare assertions of proprietors have come to possess less force than they frequently merit. The cause of this condition of popular skepticism is, in the main, to be found in the fact that charlatans covers our broad land. Metastor articles are too frequently found in bad company.

The proprietors of Kidney-Wort always prove all their assertions, touching the merits of their preparation. When we affirm, therefore, that Kidney-Wort is a specific for just such disorders as have been mentioned in this article, the proof, too, belongs to and shall follow this statement.

A PHYSICIAN'S EXPERIENCE.

Dr. R. K. Clark, a regular physician of extensive practice in Grand Isle county, and a worthy deacon of the Congregational church, at South Hero, Vt., has used Kidney-Wort for several years in his practice, and before the present proprietors purchased an interest in it, he had given his unbiased opinion in its favor. This opinion has not changed. "It has done better than any other remedy I have ever used," says the doctor, and further on he writes: "I do not recollect an instance where the patient to whom I have given it has failed to receive benefit from its use, and in some severe cases most decidedly so." These are strong words. They are from a representative, conscientious, ever-approaching public citizen, however, any better still—they are true.

Kidney-Wort will bear all the encomiums lavished upon it by its friends—and their name is legion. "I will never by Kidney-Wort all the time," writes Mr. J. R. Kaufman, of Lancaster, Pa. We will supplement this by asserting, as a matter of fact, and one capable of demonstration, that all honest patrons of Kidney-Wort are its friends and advocates.

For full particulars of its merits and uses, see the circulars and pamphlets sent free of charge to all who apply for them.

THE PUGILISTIC LORD.

Lord Charles Beresford knocked out Jem Maco on Saturday.

Lord Charles Beresford has entered the prize ring. The arrival of Jem Maco and his Maori novice in London was no sooner announced than his lordship's aristocratic blood was stirred for a fight. He, of course, was not to fight on his own terms, but without gloves was arranged. Sporting circles became interested and even the fashionable world was eager to patronize the fight. Jem Maco accepted the challenge and the fighters met in a specially engaged private room near the Elephant and Castle public house in the Boro road. The Prince of Wales was present and was surrounded by a large number of aristocratic sports and private gentlemen. There was also a number of the "fancy" in the near neighborhood of the ring. Heavy betting was indulged in and the fun was enjoyed immensely by those present. After several exciting rounds, in which excellent science was displayed on both sides, Maco failed to come to time and frankly acknowledged himself badly beaten. Lord Charles won an easy victory and almost without a scratch.

Herbert Slade, the Maori, who had been anxious to have a round or two with Beresford, looked on with amazement as the old fighter, Maco, received the punishment from his noble opponent. When Lord Charles had finished with Maco and had received the plaudits of the company, he invited Slade to take a turn, but the Maori, warned by the woeful appearance of Maco, refused to enter the ring or risk any encounter with Lord Charles. Maco took his defeat quietly. The Maori seemed much chagrined at the result of the fight. He had counted on getting some reputation in England and his backing down at the first challenge is regarded with suspicion. It is now known that Lord Charles had intimidated to his royal highness that an English gentleman could always whip a professional fighter and that he had expressed a determination to meet Jem Maco and the Maori giant at the first opportunity.
