BOWERS & HURST.

Ornelty to a Child. Mrs. Annie Wertz, residing on Clay street, has been complained against by her neighbors for cruelty to a little three-year old girl, a daughter of Mrs. Misenhall, who she had taken to raise. It is alleged that she not only beats the child, but frequently locks it up in the house and leaves it alone for many hours at a time both day and night. She will have a hearing before Alderman Samson.

lammany Arrested. A dispatch from Wilkesbarre to the INTELLIGENCER this afternoon says: Tammany, the notorious blackmailer, who incited the riot at Lec Park yesterday, had a hearing before Alderman Parsons this morning and held in $5,000 bail to answer. Tammany is well-known in Lancaster be ing a student of Franklin and Marshall college for some years.

Lots For Handsome Houses. On North Lime street, opposite Lancas ter cometery, are the most eligible lots available, on which to build fine mansions. The eight lots are for sale by A. W. Russel, at 22 East King street. He has also very desirable lots for building pur-poses on Frederick street. Those contemplating building should call at once.

ATTENTION is called to the advertisement of the sale of real estate of the late Mary M. Danner, at the Keystone hotel this evening.

Ice Cream Garden. The most inviting place in Lancaster during this temper-provoking weather is the lovely ice cream parlors and garden of J. R. Royer, at Nos. 50 and 52 West King street. Mr. R. has done all that money and good taste could do to beautify his always magnificent place. Cooling tountains, shady nooks, refreshing ices, and a general air of brightness and airl ness pervades this tempting spot. Summer contectionery, fruits, berries and cakes whole sale and retail at same place.

1001 Pretty Things Of all kinds, of which everyone needs something; such as jewelry, plain or showy; cutlery, bright and keen; accordeons and guitar strings; spectacles of all grades for people of all ages, from 22c up ; gents' turnishing goods in all the lovely shades of summer wear; boots and shoes; combs and brushes parasols, and especially millinery. Special eduction has been made in summer millinery and ladies before going to seashore or mountain should see how pretty and cheap millinery is at A. Hirsh's, No 6 North Queen street. Everything pretty and cheap. N. B.-Everything pretty and cheap, 182

Beauty at Bome. Once only the rich had beautiful homes, but happily now most all can have them. The families who have cheerful rooms where everything breathes of welcome will be hap pier than those who live where beauty and taste are strangers. In visiting the homes of Lancaster the writer finds those most attract tive that have received the careful attention of skilful upholsterers and furniture dealers, for it is their art which so greatly aids the good hou-ewife in her efforts to make home pleasing. Those who wish to obtain a glimpse of the charms of this art are invited to call on J. M. Keiper, the extensive upholsterer and farniture manufacturer, No. 45 North Queen street. There will be found many beautiful things in his line, and can be seen the Queen Anne style, which is again coming into favor while the refined Eastlake is fast being num bered among things that were. The Queen Anne style of turniture is low and plain chairs and bedsteads; heavy and strong tables and large mirrors. In parior suits oddity of colors prevail and different kinds of chairs are used in the same parior. Indeed, it is pretty much a go as you-please-style just now. As the goods and terms will suit you, all Mr. Keiper isks is a call at No. 45 North Queen st. 11d&w

Amusements. Lecture.-On Tuesday evening next, Rev James Morrow, D. D., of Philadelphia, will deliver a lecture in the Duke street M. E church, on "Ireland and Specimen Irishmen." In view of the late events concerning the Irish nation and the attention given them, the lecture of Dr. Morrow will be from this rea son alone interesting. And as he has the reputation of a good speaker and his lecture is said to abound with humor and instruction. he should have a large attendance.

enstration - A Statement of Kelley's Innocence DUBLIN, June 9. - Timothy Kelley, who was convicted of participation in the Phonix park murder, was hanged in Kilmainham jail at eight o'clock this morning. He was the fifth man executed for those murders and was the last one convicted thereof. There was a large crowd of people outside the prison, but there was no disturbance. It is believed that Kelly died without making any statement.

Carey, the Informer, Cursed. A large police and military force surrounded the prison, but the crowd was very quiet. When the black flag was hoisted over the prison, some persons in the crowd uttered shrieks, and a young women fell on her knees and called "the curse of God on James Carey, the informer." Kelly left no statement regarding the

THE BARBER BROTHERS HUNG. Taken From the Jail by a Mob and Strung Up on a Tree.

WAVERLY, Iowa, June 9.-The Barber brothers were taken from jail by a mob at 11:30 last night and hung to a tree half a mile from the jail. The mob was composed of men from Fayetie county and was led by a brother of Deputy Sheriff Sheppard, who was killed by the Barber brothers last fall at West Union. The sheriff refused to give up the keys of the jail, whereupon the mob battered down the doors with sledge hammers. After a short delay inside the lynchers brought the criminals out with ropes tied around their necks. Neither of them flinched a partielo, and they did not even plead for mercy at any stage of

SATURDAY. - FAIR AND SLIGHT

It is for these hot days and others that are coming that much of our present stock was gathered. Six months ago the looms of Nottingham were weaving these thin undershirts and drawers and hosiery that everybody wants now almost as fast as we can hand out proper sizes. Scores of factories were busy when the snow was on the groundmakingup Jean Drawers for gentlemen, Dusters and Traveling dresses for ladies, Shirt Waists for the boys, Straw Hats for the young gentlemen and hundreds of other things that are necessary in this hot climate. It is easy shopping for them when they are all together. Mosquito Nets, Hammocks, Lawn Tennis Sets or Baby Coaches, Cottage Furnishings or Full Suits of Thin Dress for ladies, misses, children and gentlemen.
