

SECOND EDITION. TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 12, 1883.

COLUMBIA NEWS.

OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE. Events along the Susquehanna—Items of Interest in and around Lancaster—Picked up by the general reporter.

Westley Donnelly appeared before Squire Young last evening, charged with assaulting a little boy named Willie Buller. It appears from the evidence that a number of small boys were engaged in throwing gooseberries at one another in a playground on Sunday afternoon.

A lad who is employed at the Susquehanna rolling mill was arrested by Officer Wittig this morning, for attempting to steal butter from a wagon while its owner was going to the market.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Keely stove company was held last evening to hear the report of the auditing committee of the board of directors.

The fishing stand and shanty erected thereon of George Hardeol was overturned by the storm of Sunday night. Considerable damage was done to the other of the fishing stands and cabins below the dam by the same storm.

A runaway horse was captured in an alley leading off from Second street, by two men from Walnut street, yesterday. It was the property of H. M. North.

The list of unclaimed letters. Following is a list of letters remaining in the postoffice for the week ending June 11, 1883:

A JEWISH FESTIVAL.

Commemoration of "Shebhoth" Pentecost. The feast of Shebhoth has peculiar and beautiful teachings for the Jew.

That day of beginning to put the sickle to the corn is called "the day that we begin to reap the sheaf of the wave offering."

By this feast our forefathers did annually worship God with the best produce of the earth, after it had been brought in and threshed out, and separated from the chaff and purified and made most perfectly fit for the food of man.

The removal of the Stamp Act a Benefit to the People. In anticipation of the repeal of the stamp act, the size of the stamp containing the celebrated Simmons Liver Regulator have been materially increased.

Spent Fifty Dollars. In doctoring for rheumatism I tried Thomas' Electric Oil. Used a 50-cent bottle of this medicine.

Brother's Household Panacea. Is the most effective Pain Destroyer in the world. Will most surely quieten the blood.

Blood, Sympies and Hay Fever. Nature has resolved that all people are not to enjoy the same life.
