WELCOME HOMES TO THE AUTHOR OF "WEEK END."

Serialized in Oak Hill Cemetery, Washington, D. C., June 9, 1883.

Oh, down and flowers of splendid June... With pensive sighs and tremulous lips...

Our mariner on the Spanish main, The lattered miner in his tent...

And when to bugle and to blast, Where battle turns the lilies red...

The weary traveler who waits, In twilight's dim and drear abode...

A camp of blue, a camp of gray, A peaceful river rolled between...

The evening clouds were crimson snow, The twinkling campfires faintly rose...

And then, above the glancing beam of moon, A bright star shined in the sky...

And other songs were like the snow, Among the pines when winds are still...

Like some bird starting from a stream, "Home, Home, Sweet Home," and echoes rang...

And gray and blue harmonious sang— All other songs were like the snow...

The Mennon murmured song, they thought, When dawn's day his lips impressed...

Some causes of Animal Disease, Germantown Telegraph.

It was formerly a general belief, especially among farmers, that many diseases...
