REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE

Events Along the Susquehanna-Items of Interest In and Around the Borough Picked up by the Intelligencer Reporter. Samuel I. Osmond, deputy supreme archon of the Improved Order of Heptasophs, a secret fraternal society, is now in town endeavoring to form a lodge of that order. He will effect an organization if twenty, or more, names can be secured for the charter list. It is a beneficial society, and provides for the payment of frem $1,000 to $5,000 to the heirs of a deceased member. It has been in existence five years, but now has a large membership, which is rapidly increasing. There is but one degree, and the ceremonics attendant upon its conferment is solemn and impressive. Mr. Osmond thinks there will be no difficulty in organizing a lodge here, as also one in Wrightsville and Marietta. Election Held.

An election was held by Chiquesalunga tribe, No. 39, I. O. R. M, last evening to fill the vacancy in the stump of chief of records, caused by the resignation of L.M. Williams. Mr. Emanuel Newcomer was chosen his successor, and Edward Harsh was elected to fill the position of assistant chief of records.

New Lodge Organized.

The injury was not for a time considered dangerous, but as the patient grow worse, it was found nee essary for him to satural, to the operation of repainting, which gave some relief, but he breame despondent and weaker until he died on the morning of the 1-t east, as

Deceased was a sergeant in Troop C, 31 U. S. cavalry. Captain Mersells, in a letter to his sister, Miss May Ella Patter non, says: "He had every care and attention shown him, besides great sympathy from every one. As his captain I can bear testimony to his good conduct, ambition and intelligence. It is a source of great regret to me that he could not have died at home, among those dear to him, but since his injury he has at no time been this to travel.......Sergt. Patterson will be buried to morrow [June 2] after toon with the proper religious and military honors. Believe me, that I feel deeply the loss of so promising a young man and sympathixe with you in your affliction."
Orderly Sergeant Millard says of him

"We have been warm friends, James and , since his arrival in the company last July, and I have used every opportunity to push him ahead in his military career and had he lived and continued in the service would, no doubt, have taken my place as 1st sergeant, or, as it used to be called during the war 'orderly sergeaut, on the expiration of my term of service next August. But who can tell what a day may bring forth in this life, even when not exposed as men in the army are to danger on every hand? Three months me for instructions here; to-day he has reported for instructions to the Great The wheels passed over him breaking both Judge, the father of all Convey to his mother my kindest regards and sympathy in the bereavement, as well as who was taken to the residence of his that of the other men in the troop. DOARD OF HEALTH NOTICE.

Gotting Satisfaction Miss Sarah Williams and Miss Alice Gray, of Marietta, had an unpleasantness and called each other naughty names. Miss Williams made complaint of disorderly conduct against Miss Gray, before a Columbia 'squire, and the magistrate, after hearing the case mulcted Miss Gray in the costs and then discharged her. Miss Gray, to get satisfaction, made complaint of disorderly conduct against her prosecutor. The case was heard before Alderman Spurrier this morning. From the testimony it appeared that Miss Williams was very naughty in some respects, but that she was not disorderly, and so the alderman discharg ed her, and placed the costs again upon Miss Gray. She is not yet satisfied and threatens to sue Miss Williams for slander -but slander suits cost more money and are even more uncertain of ending rightly than common police cases. The only party who has been benefited thus far is Constable Stahl, of Marietta, who charges the county 38 miles mileage for serving sub paraes-not one mile of which he travel ed. the direction of Judge Wylie, the jury in the Star Route case came into court at 10:35 this morning to receive instructions upon points of law. Before they were seated, however, Juror Vernon, who had been unwell during the night, fell on the floor in fits, creating great excitement. He is now under the care of a physician, and the remaining jurors have returned to their room.

The Judge's Opinion of the Injured Man-Juror Vernon, in falling, struck his head heavily upon a chair, but he subsequently fully recovered. Judge Wylie announced that Vernon was a hard drinker and he supposed the cutting off of supplies had resulted in an attack of delirium tremens. The deputy marshal stated that Vernon

EXPLOSION AT TRENTON.

TRENTON, N. J., June 13 .- Thomas Culliton, aged 60, and Michael Hawk, the explosion of a rubber vulcanizer at the Trenton rubber works about 7:30 o'clock

The vulcanizer or heater had been filled with pans of rubber and before removing these the steam should have been blown off. This the men neglected to do and began at once to unserew the bolts of the door. When a few bolts had been freed the strain came too heavily on others and the explosion followed. The door blew out and the men were whirled with terrific force through a brick wail twenty feet away. The vulcanizer itself was thrown backward fifty feet through two brick walls into the car spring shop where a dozen men were employed. The escape of these men without injury seems almost miraculous.

HEW ADVERTISEMENTS. WEDNESDAY - PAIR, AND SLIGHT CHANGE IN TEMPERATURE.

A large sized freight car of the Pennsylvania railroad comes along loaded with chairs, but they don't stay with us long enough to get fairly fixed. We can't keep up with the draft on us for Porch and Cottage Easy Chairs, but the stock has fresh things in it every day, and what it lacks one day comes along the next. We have connections with all the best manufacturers and they are feeding our stock every day as best they can. We cannot take poor chairs from the manufacturers or our stock would be larger very soon.
