KEV, STEWART'S 25TH ANNIVERSARY Fifteen Hundred Friends Congratulate Him Speeches-Fine Music-Elegant

To timonisis-Banquets. The 25th anniversary of Rev. Dr. C. W. Stewart's pastorate of the Union terian church of Colerain, which was eclebrated on Sunday last, and full earticulars of which have been published a the INTELLIGENCER, was fitly supplemented yesterday by a grand social gatheding of his parishioners and friends at the church of which he has been so long a faithful pastor and for whose spiritual and temporal advancement he has done so

Early in the day vehicles of every description, and coming from every direc tion, each freighted with friends of Dr. Stewart, gathered in the vicinity of the church, while hundreds of men and women, boys and girls, attired in their best, wonded their way afoot to the sbrine to which all were centring until the number reached 1 200 or 1,500, a much larger number than could be possibly crowded into the char th, capacions though it be. But everybody was happy and good natured, and the crush and jun rather added to than detracted from the general joy of the occasion.

Devotional exercises formed the opening part of the programme. An earnest in vocation was offered by Rev. Ely, of Columbia. Appropriate passages from the scriptures were read by Rev. Dr. Mitchell, of this city, and prayer was offered by Rev. Crawford, of Slate Ridge, Rev. W. R. Bugham, D. D. of Chesier, was called to the chair and made an address of a half hour's duration. He and Dr. Stewart had been raised together in the all Chanceford church, York and their family paws were adjoining. Dr. Biugham related many interesting reminiscences of their bayhood days, not lorgetting to raise a laugh at Dr. Stewart's expense by telling how he used to "slumber in his pew" during the dull sermous of some of the long winder divines who furnished the spiritual paintless on which the babes of the churck were ted. Dr. Blagham spoke in glowing terms of the great good that had been no emplished during Dr. Stew nit's pastored; and spake in flattering terms of M.s. Stewart, who was a help meet for her husband, and who had left the impress or how Christian picty and violately virtues not only on the congregation but throughout the whole community by which she v. v-arrounded.

Rev. Alfred Novem, D.D., LL. D. of Pholadelphia was next introduced and related many terminis senses and interest ing incide a val old D megal precbytery, of which the present. A FIRE ESCAPE.

An Amusing Sight of the Stevens House. Postay at mon im exhibition of a fire mape was given at the Stevens house, a high was very successful and created lots or tun. The escape is made of canvas, and when in position works exactly like a schute. The canvas is held together with stout pieces of wood, which can be used as a ladder also. It was fastened at the window of a female story room, and about 160 persons descanded safely in it to the ground. The schools had just left out when the trial began, and the small boy was there in force. When the little fellows found that they could get a ride for nothing they all scrambled up stairs, which come down made much assessment, over suffed sofa, handsomely carved change were thereight friedrag at but they, base, upholstered with spring seat edge, back Same were terrially frighteend, but they and arms, with diamond pleating and covered had no then to think of that, as in an inwith crimsen silk plush, with silk rosetts and stant they were no the bottom, where the tassels on face of each arm and each end of canvas was nightly held by a number of back, men who kept it above the ground to pre vent accidents. MATRIMONY. Orange Blossoms in Strasburg.

A noteworthy event in Strasburg yes terday morning was the marriage of Miss Ida Walker, eldest daughter of Dr. Isaac late graduate of the Lane seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio, who graduated at Lafayette college in the class of '78, in the senior class with Mr. E. T. Walker, the brother of the bride. Has been since called to two churches in the town of Campus and Emington, Livingston county, Ill. The bride, Miss Ida Walker, has long been connected with the Presbyterian church and Sunday school of the borough, and will be greatly missed by the congregation and her many friends. Four maids of honor-Miss Clara B. Walker, sister of the bride, Miss Jennie Woods, Miss Hattie Leach and Miss Agnes Keneagy, of Strasburg, were in attendance. The floral decorations were profuse, many being arranged in pleasing negligence in and around the rooms. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents, many of them being crisp greenbacks, varying from ten to a hundred dollars. Bidding farewell to their many friends they started on an extended tour of two weeks, after which Mr. and Mrs. Riggs will make Cin cinnati their destination, on a Saturday evening, where the many relatives of the bridegroom will detain them for a few days, thence on to their field of labor in

THE SECOND TRAGEDY.

The Excitement over Dukes Killing Subsid Uniontown, Pa., June 14.—The shooting of N. L. Dukes last evening, the slayer of Capt. A. C. Nutt, by the son of the latter, was the all absorbing topic to-day. The excitement has comparatively subsided, however, and every one apparently is breathing a sigh of relief now that the last chapter has been added to the sad tragedy. There is a large influx of the dollar, and it is just as cool as rural population eagerly inquiring into every particular of the horrible affair.

The Question of the Hour. Among the masses the question is What will be done with young Nutt?" People are afraid to trust the tribunal which acquitted the murderer of Capt. Nutt, and would have the avenger tried by a popular vote. These questions are a little premature, but the past, present and future are all discussed in one and the same moment. The coroner's jury re sumed the investigation this morning, only one witness testifying last night.

Who Saw the Shooting. Officers Frank Pegg, Geo. B. Hutchison, Alfred Collins, E. A. Lingo, Postoffice Clerk George Minor and others, described the shooting and the incidents thereof, but their statements did not vary materially from the descrip For $5, Gingham or Seer- tion of the shooting telegraphed from here last night.
