EDGAR POE'S COTTAGE.

Where he wrote "The Raven." Sold Under the Sheriff's Hammer.

New York Herald. In the spring of 1846 Edgar Allan Poe, with his invalid wife and his mother-in-law, moved from the noisy and bustling New York life to a small cottage in the quiet village of Fordham.

Near the house is a Spring, planted by the poet. It is a tall, straggling bush, in keeping with its surroundings. Bending down a lilac Mrs. Dockert broke a handful of the fragrant flowers, and giving them to her visitor, sent him away, saying: "You have seen the cottage; you can hear something of its master by calling on Mrs. Cromwell."

Turning to the right at the first corner and following the shell path is another white cottage, in which Mrs. Cromwell lives.

"What do you want to know about Eddie Poe?" she said. "He's been dead so long I thought he was forgotten. Well, it's mighty curious. You folks think more of him now than you did when he was alive."

"You know him?" the reporter asked. "Knew Eddie Poe? Why, I was the first neighbor his folks got acquainted with when they moved out here thirty-seven years ago. Mr. Poe found me himself in the cherry tree and he took me right over to see his wife, poor woman, and his mother-in-law. I used to go over there very often."

"Did you know much of the family?" "I knew they were mighty poor—poorer than I ever was or ever expect to be. They lived hard over there, and didn't have much that was nice. Mr. Poe was a good man—when he wasn't drinking. He seemed very fond of that poor sick wife of his. Mrs. Clemm used to watch him mightily close, and I've known her to go to New York twice a day to tend to his business just to keep him from going. She knew he would get in bad company and go to drinking again. Why, I've seen him when three men couldn't hold him in the bed. But there wasn't a better man in the world when he was sober. He was very fond of flowers and used to tramp all over the woods to find 'em. He loved birds, too, and had lots of 'em singing in his yard. He was the greatest walker I ever saw, and used to go to White Plains—16 miles—and back in a day, and many's the night he has wandered over these hills without a coat or a hat."

"When his wife died Mr. Poe took it mighty hard. She was buried up in the old Dutch cemetery, but they afterward moved her to Baltimore, about five years ago. He used to cry over her grave every day and kept it green with flowers."

"You have some relics, I believe?" "This is the chair he used to sit in," said the old lady, rising slowly. "It's just exactly like it was when I got it, except that from strap on the arm. Somebody broke it and it mended. Hey, he is his own Bible, and his clock is upstairs if you want to see it."

It is an eight day clock, running yet as it has for 36 years. The chair has been in constant use, but has the same cane in back and seat it had when the poet sat in it.

"I bought the chair and clock," continued Mrs. Cromwell, "but Mrs. Clemm gave me the Bible, and I'll never part with it. I might sell the other things, but if you are all going to think so much of Mr. Poe, I guess I'll have to think something of him too."

In the old Bible one passage was found marked—Job, vii, 16—"I loath it, I would not live always; let me alone for my days are vanity."

"Who did you get those flowers?" Mrs. Cromwell asked. "Over at the cottage, I reckon. You are all just alike and go crazy about nothing. I wonder how many more will want to hear about Eddie Poe?"

Honesty the Best Policy. In advertising a medicine it is best to be honest; deception will never do. The people won't stand it. I have seen many who have tried the Blood Purifier cure scrofula, and all eruptions of the skin. This medicine is sold everywhere by Dr. H. E. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 127 and 129 North Queen street.

We challenge the World. Who says we believe, we have evidence to prove that. This is the best medicine made, in as much as it will cure a common or Chronic Cough in one to five days, and relieve Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, and show more efficacy than any other. It will cure where they fail, it is pleasant to take, harmless to the youngest child and we guarantee that it will cure 100, 50c and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore, Chest or Back lame, use Shirk's "Purifier" for sale by H. E. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 127 and 129 North Queen street.

A Word of Caution. Railroad men, mechanics, commercial travelers, baseballists, farmers, and others who labor out of doors, are peculiarly liable to accident and injury. Their safety depends on their clothing, hats and shoes, and it is one of the best applications yet devised for their use by H. E. Cochran, druggist, Nos. 127 and 129 North Queen street.
