Fitteen Years of Suffering .- Body Covered with Homor -- Hud Tweive Doctors .- Paid Out $500.- No Cure .- No Hope.

I will now state that I made a miraculous cure of one of the worst cases of skin diseases known. The patient is a man forty years old; had suffered fifteen years. His eves, scalp, and neafly his whole body presented a fright-ful appearance. Had had the attention of tweive different physicians, who prescribed the best remedies known to the profession, such as lodide potassium, arsenic, corro ive sublimate, sarsaparilia, etc. Had raid 500 for medical treatment, with but little relief. I prevailed u on him to use CUTICURA RESOLV EXT (blood putfier) internally, and the Cuti-cura and CUTICURA SOAF externally. He did so, and was completely cured. The skin on his head, face, and many other parts of his body, which presented a moit loathsome appear-ance, is now as soft and smooth as an intant's, and no scar or trace of the disca e left behind. He has now been cured twelve months. He ported by I will now state that I made a miraculous nds From Ohio to Attend Obsequies-Miss Beeson aud the Dead Man.

The excitement at Uniontown over the killing of Dakes has quieted down very much, but the tragedy is still the absorbing subject for conversation. Several of Dukes' friends from Ohio arrived there Friday and went by carriages out to the Struble residence, from which place the tuneral took place to day at eleven o'clock. Rev. A. J. Mulholland. pastor of the Presbyterian church, of Uniontown, and M. C. Bailey, pastor of the Presbyterian church at McClellandtown, officiated at the funeral Dukes was a member of a Presbyterian church in Ohic, where he used to live, but has never communed

From the fact that Miss Beeson, who i Dukes' most intimate lady friend, wanted to get his keys so badly from the coroner on the night of the shooting it is generally supposed he had in his possession papers of great importance to her. Many think she knew he had made a will and wanted to get it. Others supposed she was after letters written by her to him. Miss Beeson's friends deny that she was engaged to Dukes and say she was nothing more than a friend, and they are very much worried that her name was | ever published in connection with his.

As to whether Dukes made a will or no has been a question of much talk and it was not known but by one or two whether he had or not. Although Dukes was a man of excellent health and quite youngnot yet 33 years old-he did in his short life make two wills. The first one was made some five or six years ago, just be-fore starting on a trip to the West. A short time after his return home from that trip he destroyed that will and did not write the second one till after he killed Captain Nutt. This second will was written while he was supposed to be in jail but was taking it easy in the sheriff's sitting room. On the morning of the habeas corpus hearing he was in his office with the sheriff before the hearing took place and he called C. D. Conner, who was passing by, to come in. He said to him : 'Here is my will; I want you to witness t, for I do not know what may happen.' He doubtless feared that some one might shoot him as he was going along the street to the hearing. No one knows the con tents of this will and will not until it is entered for record. Dukes possessed from eight to twelve thousand dollars' worth of ern lands. Henry Jennings, the proprie-tor of the hotel where Dukes boarded, says that Dukes told him a few days ago that he had received several anonymous lotters saying that he was to be killed and

OLD LADISS OF THE HOME OF THE FRIENDLESS. Delayan, Wis, Sout 21 1880 permitted to see the execution. Good order prevailed throughout. Both men had slept well. Hewitt ate but little breakfast, while Hardee refused everything but a few crackers. Hewitt was led to the scaffold at 10 o'clock. He was calm, knelt on the scaffold and was prayed for by Rev. W. R. Alston, a Methodist Episcopal elergyman. He declared he was ready to die and would die an innocent death. He denied all knowledge of the crime for which he was to be hung and also of the cutting of Ben McMillan, their fellow prisoner, at the time of their recent escape from jail. At 10:30 o'clock the cord holding the trigger was loosed and Hewitt fell and died without a struggle in fifteen minutes. Wm. Hardee was brought upon the gallows at 11 o'clock. He denied all knowledge of the crime for which he was to be executed; and of the cutting of Mc Millan. He was prayed for by Rev. W. R. Alston and L. A. Clay. He made a long rambling speech, asked for a drink of water and for a chew of tobacco and time to chew it. He talked all the time, begging that when he was buried the black cap might be taken off; also that his hands and feet might be untied. As the trap fell he exclaimed : "Oh Lord have mercy." Both men thanked the sheriff for his kindness to them. At 11:30 the cord was again loosed and Hardee was launched into eternity. He died hard and

My health has been very bad for many years past. I was troubled with weakness, bad cough, dyspep-sia, great debility and constipation of the bowels. I was so miserable that I could eat nothing. I heard of Hop Bitters and was re-solved to try them. I have only used three bottles and I feel wondertal good, well and strong again. My bowels are regular, my ap-petite good, and cough gone. I think it my duty to let the people know how bad I was and what the medicine has done for me, so they can entre themselves with it. My wife wastroubled for years with blotches, moth patches, freckles and pimples on her face, which nearly annoyed the life out of her. She spent many dollars on the thousand in-falible (?) cures, with nothing but injurious effects. A lady friend, of Syracuse, N.
