utler's Statement of the Treatmen tibe Received at Mis Hands A special to the New Orleans Picayune from Mansfield, Lia., says: The profitainary examination of Rev. Benjamin T. Jenkins, jr., for the murder of Rev. J. Lane Borden began yesterday. An offort was made by the defense to postpone the case, but Judge Logan decided to hear the testimony, which want to show that the testimony, which went to show that the accused fired the fatal shot. The case was adjourned until to-day. Immediately after the shooting of Borden District Attorney Hall wrote to J. S. Butler, father of the young lady whose name is involved in the matter, giving him the particulars of the tragedy, the alleged sause being the ruin of his daughter. Mr. Butler replied under date of June 18, say ing : "There is not one word of truth in the charge you refer to. I regret very much Mr. Jenkins took up such an idea. My daughter says that she said nothing to Mr. Jenkins that he possibly could infer snything of the kind." A special from Alexandria, La., gives the following statement made by Miss Mary Butler: "I hereby deny having made at any time a confession to Mr. Ben. T. Jenkins, jr., to the effect that Mr. Borden had in any manner ill treated me, only so far as shall be explained. When asked by Mr. Jenkins if Mr. Borden had treated me badly, I told him yes. He then asked in what way. I told him 'I can't tell, but you can think any way you The only indignity ever offered by Mr. Borden to me was in the library about ten days ago. I was there for some books, when he approached part of the body. Price, One Dollar per packme and attempted to put his hands upon me and I immediately left the room and was never in his presence alone again during the remainder of my stay at Mansfield. This treatment of Mr. Borden to me was never mentioned to any one but my

Miss Butler has a father and two broth ers to protect her honor if such protection had been necessary. She is 18 years old, handsome and unusually intelligent. A younger sister was at the Mansfield seminary with her. Jenkins seems to have been suffering from hallucination of mind when he fired the fatal shot.

NOTHING IS MORE DREADED than salt rheur or eczema, which has fully a dozen species, going under various names, nearly all ot which defy the ordinary remedies, destroy the hair, the skin and the flesh, and in many cases death comes as a blessing. Ecalp and skin alike are subject to this, as well as to dandruff, tetter and other scaly diseases producing baldness, eruptions, ulcers and other

Intelligent people should beware of taking poisons as remedies for this class of diseases of the skin and scalp, and the various reme dies which are sent out by unskilled men should be avoided as one would a plague. There is but one "Srin Cure" which can e relied on, and that is Dr. Benson's, and its name is an earnest of its worth. It is not a patent medicine, but the result of his own experience and practice, and is a sure cure for he special diseases for which it is offered. It o akes the skin soft and white and smooth, removing tan and freekles, and is the best toilet preparation in the world. It is elegantly put up, two bottles in one package, consisting of both internal and external treatment. Simple in its combination, pure and free from all poisons, it may be relied upon by all those who wish to have perfect health and freedom from all skin diseases of whatever nature, whether they are Eczema, Tetters, Humors, Inflamma tion, Milk Crust, Rough Scaly Eruptions, Diseases of the Hair and Scalp, Scrofuli Ulcers, Pimples or Tender Itchings on any age. All druggists have it for sale.

A Revolution n the treatment of nervous diseases is now taking place. Dr. C. W. Benson, of Baltimore, many years ago discovered a sure remedy in his Celery and Chamomite Pills-they have had a wonderful sale and success. They can be relied on to permanently cure sick and nervous headache, neuralgia, dyspepsia, sleepless ness and all nervous diseases. All druggists krep them. Price, 50 cents per box. Two boxes for $1, six for $2.50, free by mail on re ceipt of price. Dr. C. W. Benson, Baltimore C. N. Crittenton, of New Xork, is wholesale
